Section 8translation Study Guide:

Questions for Translation Studies Douglas Robinson,2023-08-15 This is a book in the classical Quaestiones genre like the Tusculanae Quaestiones Tusculan questions of Cicero around 45 BCE and the Quaestiones disputatae de Veritate disputed questions on truth of St Thomas Aquinas 1256-1259. It seeks to ask seven series of questions about key theoretical approaches to the study of translation: three on equivalence theories (semantic equivalence, dynamic equivalence, and deverbalization), three on Descriptive Translation Studies norms (Toury's laws and the translator's narrativity), and one on the translator's visibility. Each Question chapter charts a circuitous course through past answers to new questions and new answers, drawing especially on the theoretical traditions of hermeneutics, phenomenology, and 4E cognitive science. The book will guide both veteran and novice scholars of translation deep into the complexities besetting the seven keywords.

Translation as Metaphor Rainer Guldin, 2015-10-05 In today's ever-changing climate of disintegration and recombination, translation has become one of the essential metaphors, if not the metaphor, of our globalized world. Translation and Metaphor is an attempt to draw a comprehensive map of these new overlapping theoretical territories and the many cross-disciplinary movements they imply. In five chapters, this book examines the main metaphor theories developed in the West. The way the notion of metaphor relates to the concept of translation. Different theoretical perspectives on metaphors of translation in translation studies. The main metaphors developed to describe translation in the West and in the East. Spatial metaphors within translation studies, cultural studies, and postcolonial theory. The use of the metaphor of translation across psychoanalysis, anthropology, and ethnography. Postcolonial theory, history, and literature. Sociology, media, and communication theory, and medicine and genetics. Comprehensive analysis of key metaphor theories, revealing examples from a wide range of sources, and a look towards future directions make this a must-have book for students, researchers, and translators working in the areas of translation and translation theory.

norms of constitutional theory and intellectual history causes the collapsing of norm and description he acknowledged in 1989 and thus frequent misunderstandings about the historical validity of Structural Transformation s ideal type derived from Condorcet s absolute rationalism and Kant s unofficial philosophy of history Specifically the guide explains that Habermas s key construct of a morally pretentious rationality of the bourgeois public sphere entirely depends on the claim about natural laws harmoniously regulating the economy While neoliberalism still maintains this claim Hegel decisively destroyed it already in 1821

Aspects of meaning-making through translation Sidiropoulou Maria,Hatzidaki Anna,Kefala Stavroula,Gogonas Nikos,Korda Diamantoula,Lavidas Nikolaos,Gioti Ioanna,2025-05-07 The book addresses an audience with no prior knowledge of the intricacies of translation practice and allows a rather pervasive view into issues arising in the study of translation It shows how the study of translation may capture a reader s attention and what scholarly issues it may give rise to It tackles systemic functional cognitive and societal aspects of the transfer phenomenon between English and Greek from both a synchronic and a diachronic perspective It starts with pragmatic perspectives of meaning making moves to cognitive aspects of translation and interpreting goes on with aspects of tourism translation and globalization and ends up with diachronic perspectives to gender in translation and diachronic aspects of the history of translation in the West It is a collaborative work of the translation team of the Department of English Language and Literature National and Kapodistrian University of Athens and owes a lot to insights gained by the authors interaction with undergraduate and postgraduate translation students of the Department which is always insightful and productive
