February 20, 2013

BLUE SKIES!

Residents of Issaquah spotted blue skies two days this week. A rare sight this time of year, the neighborhood kids celebrated by leaving their raincoats inside while they played basketball, soccer and Lava Monster at the park.

Unfortunately, rain is scheduled to return today.

KIDS SHOULD BE ABLE TO STAY UP PAST BEDTIME

There are important things to do after 8:00 p.m. For example, watch a good game on TV, read longer, finish your drawing or play with your toys. Some kids get to stay up until 8:30 or 9:00. That would be better. The best idea would be for kids to pick their own bedtime. If they're tired in the morning, they could go to bed earlier the next night.

THE HEAT WINS AGAIN

Last Saturday, the Heat beat the Spartans, 18-10. The Spartans were no match for the Heat with their strong defense and 4-1 record.

Learning to Speak, Learning to Listen Susan E. Chase, 2011-03-15 Over the past three decades colleges and universities have committed to encouraging embracing and supporting diversity as a core principle of their mission But how are goals for achieving and maintaining diversity actually met What is the role of students in this mission When a university is committed to diversity what is campus culture like In Learning to Speak Learning to Listen Susan E Chase portrays how undergraduates at a predominantly white urban institution which she calls City University a pseudonym learn to speak and listen to each other across social differences Chase interviewed a wide range of students and conducted content analyses of the student newspaper student government minutes curricula and website to document diversity debates at this university Amid various controversies she identifies a defining moment in the campus culture a protest organized by students of color to highlight the university's failure to live up to its diversity commitments Some white students dismissed the protest some were hostile to it and some fully engaged their peers of color In a book that will be useful to students and educators on campuses undergoing diversity initiatives Chase finds that both students willingness to share personal stories about their diverse experiences and collaboration among student organizations student affairs offices and academic programs encourage speaking and listening across differences and help incorporate diversity as part of the overall mission of the university Forum, 1991 The Law of Higher Education, Student Version William A.
