Studley Winter Trips Kelly Givens, 2014-12-26 A PERSONAL NOTE FROM THE ARTIST My initial inspiration to draw and sketch came from my father an artist and oil painter who taught me how to sketch at an early age I learned to quick sketch while studying architecture abroad in Spain since I didn't have a camera I discovered that sketching rather than photographing allowed me the ability to retain the image and memory of the moment indefinitely After leaving architecture to pursue a career in development and construction my sketch book sat idle for years Upon joining Studley in 2000 and having the opportunity to travel the world via the annual Winter Trip the inspiration to sketch was reborn The blank sketchbook my father gifted to me before he passed away and the Winter Trips fueled my inspiration to express myself with the pen My preference for sketching on linen dates back to my college days in Spain when I did not have a formal sketchbook and I would sketch on anything I could find Because we dined out quite a bit table clothes and bar napkins were an easy target My linen napkin sketches evolved over the years into the Numero Uno drawing I do every year for the top performing broker in our company Center City Digest Newsletter: Winter 2008 , Bulletin - U.S. Coast Guard Academy Alumni Association United States Coast Guard Academy.
