Study Guide for Exam 1

General Information about the Exam

Exam 1 will consist of multiple choice and matching questions. You will take it in iCollege during Week 5 of the semester during any 75-minute window of your choosing between Monday at 12 am and Sunday at 11:59 pm. The exam will be based on Chapters 1–4.

Equipment Requirements for Respondus Proctoring

You will take the exam in iCollege using Respondus Lockdown Browser with Respondus Monitor. This means you must have access to a computer with a functioning webcam and microphone for each exam. Unfortunately, Respondus Monitor does NOT work on Chromebook, Android devices, or iPhones. (Note: an iPad will work for this and all other class requirements.) Instructions for downloading Respondus Lockdown Browser are available at this link.

If you do not own (and cannot borrow) a Respondus-compatible device with the required equipment, you will need to take your exams on campus. Many computers in the library are equipped for proctored exams with Respondus as are most computers in the computer labs. Follow this link for locations and hours of computer labs \(CATLABs\).

Required “Exam Rules & Equipment Check Quiz”

Before you can take your first exam, you will need to earn a perfect score on a brief quiz in iCollege that tests your knowledge of exam rules. The quiz becomes available in iCollege during Week 1 and must be completed by Sunday of Week 4. You can retake the quiz (called “Exam Rules & Equipment Check Quiz”) multiple times, but the best way to pass will be to read the rules carefully. Violating any of the rules when taking exams will be considered cheating, regardless of whether it can be proved that you actually cheated. Violating rules can result in a zero for that exam and possibly an F for the course. The rules are provided in the policy section of the syllabus and are copied on the description of the Exam Rules & Equipment Check Quiz in iCollege so that you can review them before taking the quiz.

Besides assuring you understand exam rules, the quiz is designed to allow you to test whether your equipment is functioning properly for taking exams with Respondus Lockdown Browser and Respondus Monitor. This quiz is due during Week 4 so that you have plenty of time to acquire functioning equipment if necessary before you take Exam 1 during Week 5.

How to Use this Study Guide to Prepare for the Exam

Everything on Exam 1 will be based on items you are prompted to study below. Thus, you will do well on the exam if you can thoroughly answer all the questions on this Study Guide. Conversely, you need not (and should not) spend time studying things from the chapters that are not on this Study Guide.
