

AP Government Study Guide

Unit One: Constitutional Underpinnings

Fundamental Principles of Democracy

- Direct Democracy – citizens meet and vote directly on government decisions
- Representative Democracy (Republic) – citizens choose officials who make decisions on government policy
- Magna Carta (1215) – the first ever attempt to limit the power of the British King, guaranteed all people certain rights
- Enlightenment Philosophers –Locke and Rousseau

○ Social Contract Theory – principle that people enter into a social contract with the government and allow to be ruled

○ Consent of the Governed – principle that there are no supreme rulers, all rulers depend on the approval of the people; when governments fail to protect rights the people have the right to change the government

○ Natural Rights – principle that all people are born with certain rights: life, liberty, and property (Jefferson changes property into pursuit of happiness)

- Declaration of Independence – Thomas Jefferson's document built on principles of "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness" consent of the governed, and social contract theory. It also justified American revolution against England
- Common Good – Belief in doing what's best for the nation overall
- Popular Sovereignty – Belief that the ultimate authority rests with the people
- Majority Rule – Belief that government is run based on the will of the majority

The First Government – Articles of Confederation

- Weak association of states (states very independent)
- No central executive power
- No federal power to tax citizens directly
- Federal government could raise an army, (but not pay for it), print money, declare war, and run the post office
