

Chapter 29, Section 3 Notes: Challenges & Changes in the Movement

- In the early 1960s, all civil rights groups wanted to achieve change through peaceful means; by the late 1960s, many of the groups began to disagree- rise of Black Nationalism & violent period.

Northern Segregation

- Problems of poverty in inner cities (white flight)
- Inferior schools
- Demands for civil rights were met with white anger, violence, & police brutality
- Similar problem to Southern cities
 - De facto segregation- segregation that exists by practice & custom- will be harder to change because it means changing people's minds- Dr. King wanted to fight this (Chicago 1966)
 - De jure Segregation- Segregation by law; had been fixed

Urban Riots

- New York City- July 1964
- Watts, Los Angeles, CA- August 11, 1965
- Chicago, Detroit, Newark- 1966
- People angry over de facto segregation, police brutality, run-down communities & schools, & high unemployment

Malcolm X

- Nation of Islam
- Blamed black problems on whites & advocated armed resistance to white oppression; blacks should separate from white society
- Changed views after he visited Mecca
- Shot by members of his own organization on Feb. 21, 1965 in Harlem, New York

Stokely Carmichael

- Black Power- Pride in being African American
- Believed in violence; he alienated his group SNCC from Dr. King & SCLC
- Did not want whites to join SNCC
- Angry over events in MS (Mereditth & "Walk Against Fear" in 1966)

Black Panthers

- Oakland, CA 1966
- Founded by Huey Newton & Bobby Seale
- Political Party
- Wanted to fight police brutality in ghettos, self-sufficiency for African Americans, full employment, & decent housing
- Against Vietnam (Dr. King agreed with this stance)
- Won support because of community programs

Meeting the Challenges of Change in Postgraduate Education Trevor Kerry,2010-06-24 This text takes a radical look at the nature of adult learning in the postgraduate context and at the implications of this for universities and their courses While over recent decades schools have had to undergo major re assessments about how learning is developed into curriculum how learning is delivered to students and how that learning is assessed universities have remained very largely detached from these pedagogical andragogical issues However the circumstances of higher education provision have changed There is also real pressure now from vocationalism Meeting the Challenges of Change in Postgraduate Education places these movements in both a UK and a wider context examines the nature of learning and teaching in postgraduate education and opens up the debate for rethinking university provision The book examines concepts such as integration as ways of retaining the higher order skills of a university education over against narrower technicist approaches and suggest a continuum of provision but one in which the learner takes centre stage

Unintended Outcomes of Social Movements Fang Deng,2014-03-18 For the first time ever the Tiananmen Square massacre is presented as an unintended outcome of social movement The author shows how and why that is so and challenges existing explanations that are based on ideology democracy vs totalitarianism and capitalism vs communism an oversimplified framework that does not fit the complex reality in China In a way that has never been done the author offers an intriguing high powered game theoretical analysis of the interplay between the 1989 movement in China and the Chinese state The main contribution of the book is a finding that a particular condition namely a newly created social system with four highly specific properties was both necessary and sufficient to create the Tiananmen tragedy Determinism is dead in the social sciences This book provides an alternative theoretical framework and methodological approach for change

What Should Individuals Do about Climate Change? Marion Hourdequin,Dan C. Shahar,2025-06-10 Climate change is a pressing problem Does each of us have a moral responsibility to help tackle it In this volume Marion Hourdequin and Dan Shahar debate the timely issue of individual behavior and climate change examining what it takes to live morally in a warming world Hourdequin argues there are important reasons for people to translate their concerns about climate change into actions in their personal lives This includes attending to the many ways a single individual can help catalyze systemic change through choices about voting and political participation food and clothing energy use travel and so on Shahar disagrees because he endorses moral specialization and division of labor in a world filled with many problems He argues we should not expect everyone to take action on every serious issue rather it is acceptable and even desirable for people to focus on certain issues and decline to act on others including climate change The two authors take turns responding to each other and then defending their ultimate conclusions This volume is sure to draw attention to the question of individual choice in climate change debates and to help clarify some of the best thinking on this issue Key Features Refocuses attention from big picture debates over the actions of nations and corporations to more tractable questions about individual choices Examines whether there are good reasons to structure our daily lives to reduce our impacts on the climate Explores whether it would be best if individuals became moral specialists by focusing on a small number of problems while declining to act on many others Is highly accessible with clear language and an easy to follow format Provides a glossary of key terms that are bolded in the main text Includes section summaries that give an overview of the main arguments and a comprehensive bibliography for further reading

Sons of the Movement Jean Bobby Noble,2006 Sons of the Movement documents the female to male FtM transition process from an insider s point of view and details the limitations of both surgical procedures and pronouns Bobby Noble challenges both the expectations of masculinity and white masculinity As a result this text is equally invested in creating both gender trouble and race trouble calling for a new provocative analysis of the field of gender studies This is an accessible treatise arguing that the relation among FtM transsexual masculinity female masculinity and feminism is an underexplored site of politics in the field While FtM transsexuals have been viewed with some suspicion within feminist and lesbian circles Sons of the Movement argues that since FtMs have the potential to offer a unique vantage point on both feminism and masculinity FtM masculinity instead should be rearticulated as an alterantive and pro feminist embodiment of non phallic masculinity

Nigeria - Politics, Religion, Pentecostal-Charismatic Power and Challenges Akintayo Emmanuel, 2023-10-13 Nigeria presents an enthralling case study for understanding developing architypes in interreligious encounters in Africa The global community needs a cultural understanding and sensitivity for productive engagement with the Arab and non Arab Muslim world The Nigeria religious exigencies provide a requisite intelligence into the challenges facing a global community seeking to foster peace Without a domain of tolerance love equity and justice Nigeria will continually be immured by pessimism parochialism cynicism and mutual suspicion Despite being the largest economy in Africa and the most populous Black country Nigeria demonstrates incessantly an uncommon fault line between Christianity and Islam The significance of this goes beyond the borders of Nigeria but has become a global showcase anywhere the two religions exist contemporaneously Nigeria is the nexus between west and central Africa Rooted in the dusty Sahel of the north the savannah plains the rich rainforests of the Atlantic coast the rocky hills of the West and the oil filled swamps of the Delta Nigeria is the beauty sound vision passion and the soul of the African continent In Nigeria the Nigeria Pentecostal Charismatic Movement possesses a distinctive flair that demands a holistic understanding of the movement s historical cultural fundamental and religious dimensions in a multifarious religious landscape The disquisition of the movement s political cognizance identity power authority theology popular culture ethics and missiological impact in northern Nigeria presents a fine embroidery of their trials frustrations and challenges but inveterate in faith hope and love that opens up innovative panoramas of peaceful dialogical prospects and coexistence between Christians and Muslims in northern Nigeria In Nigeria Politics Religion Pentecostal Charismatic Power and Challenges Akintayo Emmanuel reconnoiters the complex missiological hindrances challenging the Nigerian Pentecostal Charismatic Movement Their contextual missional landslide disheveled with complicated paradoxes in the way the Christian majority have responded to Muslims in northern Nigeria is anatomized The Nigerian Pentecostal Charismatic Movement s puissance to solve some of Nigeria political ideological cultural and spiritual dimensions of crisis and sectarian violence is achievable if the movement can mitigate her missiological hindrances The responses of Nigerian Pentecostal Charismatic Movement to Nigeria s socio political and ethno religious complexities can construct a great future for the soul of Nigeria They do not only have the capacity to provide the Christian alternatives to Nigeria s peculiarities they can also stimulate Nigeria s deification among other nations by continuing to disentangle from unscrupulousness and atrociousness embedded within a reproach and opprobrium to any people

Legal Challenges at the End of the Fossil Fuel Era Daniel Iglesias Márquez, Clara Esteve-Jordà, Beatriz Felipe Pérez, 2024-09-24 This edited collection proposes a wide range of approaches to address the legal issues pertaining to the end of the fossil fuel era While the fossil fuel era is coming to an end both because of the inherent limits of its resources and because of the need to prevent to further pump out CO₂ in an already saturated atmosphere the legal dispositions to ensure an ordered and rational shift toward cleaner energy still need to be developed Not only in relation to CO₂ emissions themselves but also in relation to the manifold issues related to environmental justice in an era of global climate change and global warming This book is unique in that it provides a theoretical framework but also works to address cutting edge issues through a series of case studies !Presente! Kyle B.T. Lambelet, 2020-02-03 Presente develops a lived theology of nonviolence through an extended case study of the movement to close the School of the Americas also known as the SOA or WHINSEC Specifically it analyzes how the presence of the dead a presence proclaimed at the annual vigil of the School of the Americas Watch shapes a distinctive transnational nonviolent movement Kyle B T Lambelet argues that such a messianic affirmation need not devolve into violence or sectarianism and in fact generates practical reasoning By developing a messianic political theology in dialogue with the SOA Watch movement Lambelet s work contributes to Christian ethics as he explores the political implications of the resurrection of the dead This book contributes to studies of strategic nonviolence and civil resistance by demonstrating how religious and moral dynamics remain an essential part of such struggles
