are training yourself every time you handle a gun and if you stand out in the open when shooting drills you are training yourself to stand out In the open when returning fire an immobile and easy target as is very often observed in law enforcement shootings The antidote is to shoot from cover from the very outset and keep it a constant part of your training As law enforcement training shifts to this paradigm they observe that officers who come up for qualification are uneasy firing in the open they instinctively prefer to shoot from Behind cover when it is available There is very little use of cover in these drills which is why I mention it here They can however be adapted It is up to you to give yourself the kind of training you want to have
