The New Grove Book of Operas Stanley Sadie, 1996 This book combines meticulous scholarship with a lightness of touch that will delight the opera goer The fascinating illustrations bring an amusing dimension showing how opera has been staged from its beginnings to modern deconstructed productions The operas are listed in alphabetical order In addition to a full synopsis of every plot there is a cast list and a note of the singers in the original production as well as information about the origins of the work and its literary and social background Each contribution concludes with a brief comment on its place in operatic history There is also a listing by composer a glossary and indexes of the names of operatic characters and the first lines of arias so if you are not sure which opera Gilda or Agathe sings in or are apt to confuse Vespina with Despina your problem is quickly solved

Yiddish Cinema Jonah Corne, Monika Vrečar, 2023-09-01 In this book Jonah Corne and Monika Vre ar offer a conceptually innovative reexamination of Yiddish cinema a crucial yet little known diasporic phenomenon that enjoyed its golden age in the mid to late 1930s Yiddish cinema they argue exhibits a distinctive fascination with media forms technologies and institutions and with relationality writ large What stands behind this communication obsession as it might be understood is the films engagement both with Judaic ideals and with a series of Jewish sociohistorical predicaments of troubled communication immigration displacement the breakdown of tradition and so on that the films seek to reflect Accordingly the authors create a resonant conversation between Yiddish cinema populated by an endless procession of disconnected characters ardently striving to rejoin the world of communication and the brilliant yet underappreciated ideas of pioneering Czech Jewish media theorist Vil m Flusser 1920 1991 who escaped Nazi persecution and built the first part of his intellectual career in Brazil Indeed the authors claim that the popular art of Yiddish cinema articulates in dramatic terms a version of the central Flusserian hypothesis that the structure of communication is the infrastructure of human reality and by doing so embodies a remarkable Jewish media theory from below Films discussed include The Wandering Jew 1933 The Dybbuk 1937 Where is My Child 1937 A Little Letter to Mother 1938 Kol Nidre 1939 Motel the Operator 1939 Tevye 1939 The Living Orphan 1939 and Long Is the Road 1948
