The Ministry of Louis Farrakhan in the Nation of Islam Dawn-Marie Gibson, 2023-12-14 In the first scholarly biography of Minister Farrakhan leader of the controversial religious movement the Nation of Islam NOI Dawn Marie Gibson challenges popular portrayals of Farrakhan in American media Placing Farrakhan s life and leadership in historical context she traces his evolution from a fiery Black Nationalist in 1960s Harlem to a respected leader in sections of the USA and abroad and uncovers Farrakhan's work in rebuilding the NOI's reputation following Malcolm X's assassination Archival material includes FBI s files on the NOI and its leaders Farrakhan s writings in the Muhammad Speaks and The Final Call newspapers and lectures and interviews from the late 1970s to the present day Excerpts from first hand interviews from NOI officials pastors imams and community groups provide important insights into Farrakhan's religious life The Essential Black Literature Guide Roger M. Valade, 1996 Significant works of all time periods and genres are represented from Phyllis Wheatley s 1773 Poems on Various Subjects Religious and Moral to William Wells Brown s 1845 Clotel the first novel by an African American to Spike Lee's contemporary screenplay Malcolm X The Columbia Guide to Contemporary African American Fiction Darryl Dickson-Carr, 2005-12-06 In both the literal and metaphorical senses it seemed as if 1970s America was running out of gas The decade not only witnessed long lines at gas stations but a citizenry that had grown weary and disillusioned High unemployment runaway inflation and the energy crisis caused in part by U S dependence on Arab oil characterized an increasingly bleak economic situation As Edward D Berkowitz demonstrates the end of the postwar economic boom Watergate and defeat in Vietnam led to an unraveling of the national consensus During the decade ideas about the United States how it should be governed and how its economy should be managed changed dramatically Berkowitz argues that the postwar faith in sweeping social programs and a global U S mission was replaced by a more skeptical attitude about government's ability to positively affect society From Woody Allen to Watergate from the decline of the steel industry to the rise of Bill Gates and from Saturday Night Fever to the Sunday morning fervor of evangelical preachers Berkowitz captures the history tone and spirit of the seventies He explores the decade s major political events and movements including the rise and fall of d tente congressional reform changes in healthcare policies and the hostage crisis in Iran The seventies also gave birth to several social movements and the rights revolution in which women gays and lesbians and people with disabilities all successfully fought for greater legal and social recognition At the same time reaction to these social movements as well as the issue of abortion introduced a new facet into American political life the rise of powerful politically conservative religious organizations and activists Berkowitz also considers important shifts in American popular culture recounting the creative renaissance in American film as well as the birth of the Hollywood blockbuster He discusses how television programs such as All in the Family and Charlie's Angels offered Americans both a reflection of and an escape from the problems gripping the The North American Muslim Resource Guide Mohamed Nimer, 2014-01-21 This useful resource provides basic information about Islamic life in the United States Coverage includes population statistics and analysis as well as immigration information that tracks the settlement of Islamic people in the America The guide contains contact information for mosques community organizations schools women s groups media and student groups Recent Islamic American events over the past five years are also reviewed To see the Introduction the table of contents a generous selection of sample pages and more visit the The North American Muslim Resource Guide website A History of Marriage Elizabeth Abbott, 2011-01-04 What does the tradition of marriage really look like In A History of Marriage Elizabeth Abbott paints an often surprising picture of this most public yet most intimate institution Ritual of romance or social obligation Eternal bliss or cult of domesticity Abbott reveals a complex tradition that includes same sex unions arranged marriages dowries self marriages and child brides Marriage in all its loving unloving decadent and impoverished manifestations is revealed here through Abbott s infectious curiosity Islam in Black America Edward E. Curtis IV,2012-02-01 Many of the most prominent figures in African American Islam have been dismissed as Muslim heretics and cultists Focusing on the works of five of these notable figures Edward W Blyden Noble Drew Ali Elijah Muhammad Malcolm X and Wallace D Muhammad author Edward E Curtis IV examines the origin and development of modern African American Islamic thought Curtis notes that intellectual tensions in African American Islam parallel those of Islam throughout its history most notably whether Islam is a religion for a particular group of people or whether it is a religion for all people In the African American context such tensions reflect the struggle for black liberation and the continuing reconstruction of black identity Ultimately Curtis argues the interplay of particular and universal interpretations of the faith can allow African American Islam a vision that embraces both a specific group of people and all people Black Political Organizations in the Post-Civil Rights Era Ollie Johnson, Karin Stanford, 2002-12-16 We know a great deal about civil rights organizations during the 1960s but relatively little about black political organizations since that decade Questions of focus accountability structure and relevance have surrounded these groups since the modern Civil Rights Movement ended in 1968 Political scientists Ollie A Johnson III and Karin L Stanford have assembled a group of scholars who examine the leadership membership structure goals ideology activities accountability and impact of contemporary black political organizations and their leaders Questions considered are How have these organizations adapted to the changing sociopolitical and economic environment What ideological shifts if any have occurred within each one What issues are considered important to black political groups and what strategies are used to implement their agendas The contributors also investigate how these organizations have adapted to changes within the black community and American society as a whole Organizations covered include well known ones such as the NAACP

Rainbow PUSH Coalition the Southern Christian Leadership Conference the Urban League and the Congress of Racial Equality as well as organizations such as the National Association of Colored Women's Clubs Religious groups including black churches and the Nation of Islam are also considered Black October the Missing Moment Wilson J. Washington Jr., 2017-01-05 WE Black Men were all equal leaders that day of the original Million Man March It was a significant moment in African American history a Missing Moment History has shown us time and time again that true change engages momentum when we experience a defining moment As we continue to embrace the defining moment changes are destined to occur without much additional effort and progress will be realized It is at this time we can look back and call the change that occurred as a defining moment a pivotal moment Black October The Missing Moment Back where We Belong Louis Farrakhan, 1989 Within the Veil Pamela Newkirk, 2002-09 A candid front line report on the continuing battle to integrate America's newsrooms and news coverage now available in paperback Without Justice For All Adolph Reed, 2018-02-12 Without Justice for All The New Liberalism and Our Retreat from Racial Equality questions examines and explains the way a new orthodoxy of American leaders has contributed to the social stratification and inequality which plagues America today By looking at the history of our social policies since the New Deal as well as the status of specific policy arenas essayists show how political shifts over the past fifty years have moved us away from a more egalitarian politics Throughout the book responds critically to the now conventional argument that liberalism must be reconfigured in ways that retreat from immediate identification with the interests of labor minorities and the poor From a look at federal housing policy and the failure of New Deal social programs to an examination of long established public assistance programs and Affirmative Action Without Justice for All is a timely and important contribution to the dialogue on race in modern America Sajdah Dora Muhammad, 2006
