Canadian Reference Sources Mary E. Bond, Martine M. Caron, 1996 This bibliography cites those Canadian and foreign reference sources that describe Canadian people institutions organizations publications art literature languages and history It lists books of a general nature as well as works in the disciplines of history and the humanities These large divisions are then broken down by subject genre type of document and province or territory Titles of national provincial territorial or regional interest are included in every subject area when available The contents of the book are indexed four ways by name title French subject and English subject And to facilitate browsing the major reference books those dealing with more than one subject or a large geographical region are also cross referenced Two entries have been created for each bilingual document in order to provide access and bibliographical descriptions in both of Canada s official languages Entries for unilingual works include citation in the language of the publication and a bilingual annotation The annotations are descriptive and provide information on the content arrangements and indexing of works the availability of non print formats previous editions and title changes and related works Canadian Reference Sources will be an invaluable reference tool for future scholars and researchers

Academic Writing in a Second or Foreign Language Ramona Tang, 2012-01-12 It can be a challenge writing in a language that is not your native tongue Constructing academic essays dissertations and research articles in this second or foreign language is even more challenging yet across the globe thousands of academics and students do so some out of choice some out of necessity This book looks at a major issue within the field of English for Academic Purposes EAP It focuses on the issues confronting non native English speaking academics scholars and students who face increasing pressure to write and publish in English now widely acknowledged as the academic lingua franca Questions of identity access pedagogy and empowerment naturally arise This book looks at both student and professional academic writers using qualitative text analysis quantitative questionnaire data corpus investigations and ethnographic approaches to searchingly examine issues central to the EAP field

Liberal Education, Civic Education, and the Canadian Regime David W. Livingstone, 2015-10-01 Shortly after Canadian confederation Thomas D Arcy McGee proclaimed that education was an essential condition of our political independence and that its role was to form citizens for the new regime Comparing this idea of education for citizenship or civic education to the modern goals of education Liberal Education Civic Education and the Canadian Regime explores the founders principles their sources and the challenges that threaten their vision for Canada The collection s first essays analyze the political thought of early Canadians such as Brown McGee Ryerson and Bourinot while later chapters examine enduring principles of liberal democracy derived from Aristotle de Tocqueville and Hobbes The final chapters bring the discussion forward to such topics as the decline of Canadian Catholic liberal arts colleges and the emerging role of our Supreme Court as a self appointed moral tutor Moreover as it deals with the changing roles of universities in contemporary Canada Liberal Education Civic Education and the Canadian Regime engages current debates about the value and place of a traditional liberal education and the consequences of turning our back on the concepts that inspired our founding leaders Considering whether Canada s early documents and traditions can revive past debates and shed light on contemporary issues this highly original collection presents education as an essential condition of our independence and asks whether current educational principles are threatening Canadians capacity for self government

Dad's Best Memories and Recollections Charles J. Humber, 2016-01-19 DAD S BEST MEMORIES AND RECOLLECTIONS is Chazz Humber s epitaph casting a very long and sentimental shadow across North America and beyond This 230 page volume is his granite monument well polished It lavishly records 125 of his best memories over a life span of nearly eighty years The vignettes are serenaded with more than 400 illustrations Those discovering this volume likely will find themselves wanting to record in their own sunset years their personal memories and recollections And when they do they are apt to recall what it was like to live in their fluctuating world dominated by a variety of personalities and cascading events Mr Humber vividly describes what it was like in 1945 to travel in a 1930 Model A Ford from Toronto to Boston With lively enthusiasm he reports what it was like to live in post World War II Boston to cook a lobster for a former President of the United States or to sell a pair of elevator shoes to one of Hollywood s shortest celebrities or to shine the shoes of a Derby hatted father of a future President of the United States It is not a remarkable achievement to reflect to recall or to have memories that are treasured But to tell them with literary aplomb to recall the events that happened nearly seventy five years ago with utmost clarity is definitely an admirable achievement and should be cherished not only by the kin who follow Mr Humber but by those who might like to imitate what he has monumentally achieved in Dad s Best Memories and Recollections

Canadian Universities in China's Transformation Ruth Hayhoe, Julia Pan, Qiang Zha, 2016-06-01 Canada was one of the first Western countries to sign an agreement to provide development aid to China in 1983 and the Canadian International Development Agency invited universities to cooperate in ways that would facilitate the multiplication of contacts at the thinking level In Canadian Universities in China s Transformation leading scholars from Canadian and Chinese universities elaborate on the historical experience of collaboration in areas as different as environmental science marine science engineering management law agriculture medicine education minority cultures and women s studies Contributors use theoretical frames such as dependency theory human capital the knowledge economy and Habermas s theory of communicative action to facilitate a striking dialogue between Canadian and Chinese perspectives on common questions They provide insights into factors that ensured the long term success of some partnerships as well as barriers that hindered others and vivid lessons for current collaboration Case studies include a project that began with the training of Chinese judges developing into reciprocal programs in legal education in China Canada and Latin America and an examination of how joint environmental research has had policy impacts at national and international levels Presenting the story of universities working together in the era after the Cultural Revolution Canadian Universities in China s Transformation is a unique account of partnerships in knowledge production and application and their resulting impacts
