Labor and the Class Idea in the United States and Canada Barry Eidlin,2018-05-03 Why are unions weaker in the US than in Canada two otherwise similar countries This difference has shaped politics policy and levels of inequality Conventional wisdom points to differences in political cultures party systems and labor laws But Barry Eidlin s systematic analysis of archival and statistical data shows the limits of conventional wisdom and presents a novel explanation for the cross border difference He shows that it resulted from different ruling party responses to worker upsurge during the Great Depression and World War II Paradoxically US labor s long term decline resulted from what was initially a more pro labor ruling party response while Canadian labor s relative long term strength resulted from a more hostile ruling party response These struggles embedded the class idea more deeply in policies institutions and practices than in the US In an age of growing economic inequality and broken systems of political representation Eidlin s analysis offers insight for those seeking to understand these trends as well as those seeking to change them

Relations and Roles in China's Internationalism Chih-yu Shih,2024-08-01 Pluriversalism within International Relations and the literature on Chinese international relations each embrace ideas of relation and difference While they similarly strive for recognition by Western academics they do not seriously engage with each other To the extent that either succeeds in winning recognition it ironically reproduces Western centrism and the binary of the Western versus the non Western In Relations and Roles in China s Internationalism author Chih yu Shih demonstrates through a critical translation exercise that Confucian themes enable both the critique and realignment of liberal thought allowing all of us including the members of Confucianism and the neo liberal order to understand how we adapt to and coexist with each another In the end Confucianism not only informs the pluriversal necessity that all are bound to be related but also de nationalizes China s internationalism

Peace Studies for Sustainable Development in Africa Egon Spiegel,George Mutalemwa,Cheng Liu,Lester R. Kurtz,2022-10-26 This book presents a snapshot of a major challenge and shares subjective views on various areas of conflict in Africa and the diverse theoretical and practical efforts to achieve peace Following an essential review of several real world conflict contexts on the African continent and attempts to come to terms with them critically as a first step the book explores the lessons learned to date with regard to peace studies in Africa

Africa's Elite Football Chuka Onwumechili,2019-11-11 This book explores various aspects of intranational elite football in Africa drawing on the expertise of notable scholars from across the world Africa s Elite Football focuses on an area largely ignored by current scholarship on African football where interest has focused on international migration In exploring the intranational the book is written in two parts The first is a general focus on the continent and the second is an examination of country cases The general focus of the book is on the nature of elite tier leagues the relationship between politics and football the media youth academies intranational migration and fans Notably chapters on topics such as intranational migration present groundbreaking scholarship in this area Currently football discourses on migration focus on international migration of footballers yet the majority of migration in African football is intranational Thus by addressing the intranational this book brings attention to an area that is underrepresented in the current academic discourse The second part of the book which focuses on country cases covers Botswana Egypt Kenya Nigeria Senegal Zambia and Zimbabwe The topics explored in those cases include religiosity health women s football media and management The coverage of health related issues is particularly important given that several books on African football rarely broach such a topic With its unique approach to African football this book will be of interest to scholars and students of sports history African studies politics in sports and African sports Economic Survey

Transforming the livestock sector through the Sustainable Development Goals Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations,2018 For decades the livestock debate has focused on how to increase production in a sustainable manner However the UN 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development has shifted the emphasis from fostering sustainable production per se to enhancing the contribution of the sector to the achievement of the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs This publication examines the sector s interaction with each of these Goals as well as the potential synergies trade offs and complex interlinkages This global report is intended to serve as a reference framework that Member States and stakeholders can use as they engage in the transformation process of the livestock sector towards sustainability It calls for an integrated approach towards livestock sustainable development highlights the effective adaptation of the SDGs into specific and targeted national policy action as the major challenge ahead and flags the steps in the implementation road map

Stop Mugging Grandma Jennie Bristow,2019-08-13 A decisive intervention in the war between generations asking who stands to gain from conflict between baby boomers and millennials Millennials have been incited to regard their parents generation as entitled and selfish and to blame the baby boomers of the Sixties for the cultural and economic problems of today But is it true that young people have been victimized by their elders In this book Jennie Bristow looks at generational labels and the groups of people they apply to Bristow argues that the prominence and popularity of terms like baby boomer millennial and snowflake in mainstream media operates as a smoke screen directing attention away from important issues such as housing education pensions and employment Bristow systematically disputes the myths that surround the generational war exposing it to be nothing more than a tool by which the political and social elite can avoid public scrutiny With her lively and engaging style Bristow highlights the major issues and concerns surrounding the sociological blame game

The Routledge Companion to Cultural Text and the Nation Sheera Talpaz, Anuradha Dingwaney Needham, 2025-03-31 The Routledge Companion to Cultural Text and the Nation brings together over 30 articles by leading and emerging scholars from around the world who engage fresh critical lenses from affect studies to the medical humanities and re energize established frameworks to examine the interplay between cultural production and conceptualizations of the nation and nationalism The scholarship in this volume takes as its objects of analysis various forms of aesthetic and cultural production from film and literature to museums and costume books enriching the conversation that has often siloed these forms Geared toward scholars graduate students and upper level undergraduates across the humanities and social sciences this timely interdisciplinary collection is issued at a critical juncture in the transformation of the nation and the global resurgence of regressive and populist nationalist movements Both offering new insights reorienting our understanding of canonical materials and bringing noncanonical works to light this volume challenges long held assumptions about the nation while establishing its continued significance and future possibilities

Pakistan Maleeha Lodhi, 2024-06-13 A realistic assessment of the evolution of contemporary Pakistan one that eschews lurid headlines for sober analysis Media and Mass Atrocity Allan Thompson, 2019-04-05 When human beings are at their worst as they most certainly were in Rwanda during the 1994 genocide the world needs the institutions of journalism and the media to be at their best Sadly in Rwanda the media fell short Media and Mass Atrocity revisits the case of Rwanda but also examines how the nexus between media and mass atrocity has been shaped by the dramatic rise of social media It has been twenty five years since Rwanda slid into the abyss The killings happened in broad daylight but many of us turned away A quarter century later there is still much to learn about the relationship between the media and genocide an issue laid bare by the Rwanda tragedy Media and Mass Atrocity revisits the debate over the role of traditional news media in Rwanda where confronted by the horrors taking place international news media for the most part turned away and at times muddled the story when they did pay attention Hate media outlets in Rwanda played a role in laying the groundwork for genocide and then actively encouraged the extermination campaign The news media not only failed to fully grasp and communicate the genocide but mostly overlooked the war crimes committed during the genocide and in its aftermath by the Rwandan Patriotic Front The global media landscape has been transformed since Rwanda We are now saturated with social media generated as often as not by non journalists Mobile phones are everywhere And in many quarters the traditional news media business model continues to recede Against that backdrop it is more important than ever to examine the nexus between media and mass atrocity The book includes an extensive section on the echoes of Rwanda which looks at the cases of Darfur the Central African Republic Myanmar and South Sudan while the impact of social media as a new actor is examined through chapters on social media use by the Islamic State and in Syria and in other contexts across the developing world It also looks at the aftermath of the genocide the shifting narrative of the genocide itself the evolving debate over the role and impact of hate media in Rwanda the challenge of digitizing archival records of the genocide and the fostering of free and independent media in atrocity s wake The volume also probes how journalists themselves confront mass atrocity and examines the preventive function of media through the use of advanced digital technology as well as radio programming in the Lake Chad Basin and the Democratic Republic of Congo Media and Mass Atrocity questions what the lessons of Rwanda mean now in an age of communications so dramatically influenced by social media and the relative decline of traditional news media Religious Diversity in Post-Secular Societies Zakaria Sajir,

The Overthrow of Robert Mugabe Blessing-Miles Tendi, 2025-01-21 The Overthrow of Robert Mugabe Gender Coups and Diplomats argues the 2017 coup that ousted long time Zimbabwean president Robert Gabriel Mugabe and the generality of coups cannot be accurately and rigorously understood without examining the crucial role of gender and women s politics in military seizures of power Tendi s book shows that gender and women s politics pervade military coup causes dynamics justifications and international responses to coups Contrary to influential representations of Zimbabwe s 2017 coup and other recent coups as markedly different from past coups Tendi draws on long gendered histories of military coups in Africa to argue that there are significant continuities in coup characteristics across time Additionally Tendi s highly original study of Zimbabwe s 2017 coup identifies the motives dynamics and trigger of the coup Despite the existence of an international anti coup norm and democracy promotion in Africa by Western states Zimbabwean coup makers direct intervention in politics was largely not publicly condemned or penalized by Western and African diplomats Tendi uses original interviews with diplomats and politicians involved in external responses to the coup to address this important puzzle New Urban Worlds AbdouMaliq Simone, Edgar Pieterse, 2018-03-15 It is well known that the world is transitioning to an irrevocable urban future whose epicentre has moved into the cities of Asia and Africa What is less clear is how this will be managed and deployed as a multi polar world system is being born The full implications of this challenge cry out to be understood because city building and retrofitting cannot but be an undertaking entangled in profound societal and cultural shifts In this highly original account renowned urban sociologists AbdouMaliq Simone and Edgar Pieterse offer a call for action based fundamentally on the detail of people's lives Urban regions are replete with residents who are compelled to come up with innovative ways to maintain or extend livelihoods whose makeshift character is rarely institutionalized into a fixed set of practices locales or organizational forms This novel analytical approach reveals a more complex relationship between people the state and other agents than has previously been understood As the authors argue we need adequate concepts and practices to grasp the composition and intricacy of these shifting efforts to make visible new political possibilities for action and social justice in cities across Asia and Africa The Palgrave Handbook of Youth Gangs in the UK Paul Andell, John Pitts, 2023-02-17 This handbook brings together cutting edge research from key contributors on the rapidly expanding and fast changing field of UK youth gangs It examines the contours of the academic debates describes and explains the origins and evolution of violent street gangs in the UK against a backdrop of globalization and discusses the factors surrounding the emergence of these gangs in each of the four UK nations and some English regions It also examines the relationship between gangs and wider issues relating to gender ethnicity drug distribution and organised crime It critically assesses the potential and limitations of Public Health approaches to gang violence reduction and the government's policy responses to violent street gangs in the UK Providing a broad examination of the latest UK gangs research with international comparisons it is essential reading for undergraduate and post graduate students in criminology sociology social policy and law policy makers at local and central government level and practitioners in the fields of law policing youth work social work housing and workers in dedicated voluntary sector organizations
