Ethnicity, Commodity, In/Corporation George Paul Meiu,Jean Comaroff,John L. Comaroff,2020-08-04 In the economics of everyday life even ethnicity has become a potential resource to be tapped generating new sources of profit and power new ways of being social and new visions of the future Throughout Africa ethnic corporations have been repurposed to do business in mining or tourism in the USA Native American groupings have expanded their involvement in gaming design and other industries and all over the world the commodification of culture has sown itself deeply into the domains of everything from medicine to fashion Ethnic groups increasingly seek empowerment by formally incorporating themselves by deploying their sovereign status for material ends and by copyrighting their cultural practices as intellectual property Building on ethnographic case studies from Kenya Nepal Peru Russia and many other countries this collection poses the question Does the turn to the incorporation and commodification of ethnicity really herald a new historical moment in the global politics of identity Kenyas Past as Prologue Marie-Aude Fouere, Susan Mwangi, 2015-06-16 During the run up to Kenyas 2013 general elections crucial political and civic questions were raised Could past mistakes especially political and ethnic related violence be avoided this time round Would the spectre of the 2007 post electoral violence positively or negatively affect debates and voting How would politicians electoral bodies such as the IEBC the Kenyan civil society and the international community weigh in on the elections More generally would the 2013 elections bear witness to the building up of an electoral culture in Kenya characterized by free and fair elections or would it show that voting is still weakened by political malpractices partisan opinions and emotional reactions Would Kenyas past be inescapable or would it prepare the scene for a new political order Kenyas Past as Prologue adopts a multidisciplinary perspective mainly built upon field based ethnography and a selection of case studies to answer these questions Under the leadership of the French Institute for Research in Africa Institut francais de recherche en Afrique IFRA political scientists historians and anthropologists explore various aspects of the electoral process to contribute in depth analyses of the last elections They highlight the structural factors underlying election and voting in Kenya including the political system culture and political transition They also interrogate the short term trends and issues that influence the new political order The book provides insight into specific case studies situations and contexts thus bringing nuances and diversity into focus to better assess Kenyas evolving electoral democracy

Human Portage and Colonial State Formation in German East Africa, 1880s-1914 Andreas Greiner, 2022-11-07 This book explores the role of caravan transport and human portage in the colony of German East Africa present day mainland Tanzania Rwanda and Burundi With caravan mobility being of pivotal importance to colonial rule during the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries the exploration of vernacular transport and its governance during this period sheds new light on the trajectories of colonial statehood The author addresses key questions such as the African resilience to colonial interventions the issue of labor recruitment and the volatility of colonial infrastructure This book unveils a fundamental contradiction in the way that German administrators dealt with precolonial modes of transport in East Africa While colonizers championed for the abolishment of caravan transport they strongly depended on porters in the absence of pack animals or railways To bring this contradiction to the fore the author studies the shifting role of caravans in East Africa during the era of high imperialism Uncovering the extent to which porters and caravan entrepreneurs challenged and shaped colonial policymaking this book provides an insightful read for historians studying German Empire and African history as well as those interested in the history of transport and infrastructure
