Studies In Art:

Critical Studies in Art and Design Education David Thistlewood,1989 Art, Research, Philosophy Clive Cazeaux,2017-04-11 Art Research Philosophy explores the emergent field of artistic research art produced as a contribution to knowledge As a new subject it raises several questions What is art as research Don t the requirements of research amount to an imposition on the artistic process that dilutes the power of art How can something subjective become objective What is the relationship between art and writing Doesn t description always miss the particularity of the artwork This is the first book length study to show how ideas in philosophy can be applied to artistic research to answer its questions and to make proposals for its future Clive Cazeaux argues that artistic research is an exciting development in the historical debate between aesthetics and the theory of knowledge The book draws upon Kant phenomenology and critical theory to show how the immediacies of art and experience are enmeshed in the structures that create knowledge The power of art to act on these structures is illustrated through a series of studies that look closely at a number of contemporary artworks This book will be ideal for postgraduate students and scholars of the visual and creative arts aesthetics and art theory The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorandfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution NonCommercial No Derivatives 4.0 license <https://www.taylorfrancis.com/books/9781315764610> Handbook of Research and Policy in Art Education Elliot W.
