While the usual suspects fall short Berding suggests a new solution one that satisfies all the evidence and gives us a fuller view of Paul Far from an abstract puzzle Paul's own suffering is relevant to Christians today Paul's Thorn in the Flesh is an accessible study that casts new light on Pauline studies first century background and theological and pastoral concerns

The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1917 Text and Artifact in the Religions of Mediterranean Antiquity Stephen G. Wilson,Michel Desjardins,2006-01-01 Can archaeological remains be made to speak when brought into conjunction with texts Can written remains on stone or papyrus shed light on the parables of Jesus or on the Jewish view of afterlife What are the limits to the use of artifactual data and when is the value overstated Text and Artifact addresses the complex and intriguing issue of how primary religious texts from the ancient Mediterranean world are illuminated by and in turn illuminate the ever increasing amount of artifactual evidence available from the surrounding world The book honours Peter Richardson and the first two chapters offer appreciations of this scholarship and teaching The remaining chapters focus on early Christianity late antique Judaism and topics germane to the Roman world at large Many of the essays relate to features of Jewish life the epigraphic evidence for gentile converts to Judaism or for Jewish defectors ancient accounts of the Essenes or of the siege of Masada and the material context of the first great rabbinic work the Mishnah Other essays connect early Christian texts with the social and cultural realia of their day modes of travel notions of gender patronage and benefaction the relation of tenants and owners or reflect on the aesthetics of Christian architecture and the relation between building and ritual in Constantinian churches One study relates the writing of the famous novelist Apuleius to a household mithraeum in Ostia while another explores the changing appropriation of religious realia as the Roman world became Christian These wide ranging and original studies demonstrate clearly that texts and artifacts can be mutually supportive Equally they point to ways in which artifacts no less than texts are inherently ambiguous and teach us to be cautious in our conclusions

Ancient Love Letters Anna Tiziana Drago,Owen Hodkinson,2023-01-30 This volume investigates the form of love letters and erotic letters in Greek and Latin up to the 7th Century CE encompassing both literary and documentary letters the latter inscribed and on papyrus and prose and poetry The potential for and utility of treating this large and diverse corpus as a genre is examined To this end approaches from ancient literary criticism and modern theory of genre are made mutual influences between the documentary and the literary form are sought and origins in proto epistolary poetic texts are examined In order to examine the boundaries of a form limit cases which might have less claim to the label love letter are compared with more clear cut examples A series of case studies focuses on individual letters and letter collections Some case studies situate their subjects within the history and literary evolution of the love letter using both intertextuality and comparative approaches others placing them in their cultural and historical contexts particularly uncovering the contribution of epistolarity to erotic discourse and to the history of sexuality and gender in diverse eras and locations within Classical to Late Antiquity The American Year Book Albert Bushnell Hart, 1918
