Establishing the Family-Friendly Campus Jaime Lester, Margaret Saltee, 2023-07-03 The impact of changing demographics in higher education and the importance of family friendly policies is well documented There is an urgent need to keep PhDs in the higher education sector to recruit talented scholars into academia and retain them over the course of their academic careers The key is instituting policies to enable all constituencies to balance work and personal responsibilities This book covers the range of issues faced by all generations in academe from PhD students to the sandwich generation those caring for children and aging parents simultaneously through to older faculty and administrators It addresses the causes for women faculty with children leaving the academy at a disproportionately higher rate than men the conflicts women face between academic work and motherhood and the difficulties they encounter in reentering the academy after having left the professoriate In examining the need for family friendly policies this book documents the best practices currently in use at institutions across the United States Each chapter highlights practices and programs from a variety of institutions and institutional types that address the needs of a more inclusive family friendly campus and offers suggestions to others who are implementing similar change on their campuses These examples provide context so that readers no longer have to develop practices in isolation and without evidence of their effectiveness The editors suggest that the most successful campuses are those that utilize a work life systems framework to meet the needs of its employees They also point to future growth trends including expanding the focus from faculty and staff to incorporate all in the campus community This book offers guidance to department chairs deans faculty administrators and graduate students on setting a family friendly agenda and models for implementation Contributors include Emily Arms Kathleen Beauchesne Jill Bickett Sharon A Dannels Mariko Dawson Zare Karie Frasch Marc Goulden Jeni Hart Caryn Jung Jaime Lester Sharon A McDade Jean McLaughlin Mary Ann Mason Sharon Page Medrich Kate Quinn Margaret Sallee Randi Shapiro Angelica Stacy David L Swihart Gloria D Thomas Darci Thompson Administrative Justice and Asylum Appeals Robert Thomas, 2011-01-18 FIRST PRIZE WINNER OF THE SLS BIRKS PRIZE FOR OUTSTANDING LEGAL SCHOLARSHIP 2011 How are we to assess and evaluate the quality of the tribunal systems that do the day to day work of adjudicating upon the disputes individuals have with government This book examines how the idea of adjudicative quality works in practice by presenting a detailed case study of the tribunal system responsible for determining appeals lodged by foreign nationals who claim that they will be at risk of persecution or ill treatment on return to their country of origin Over recent years the asylum appeal process has become a major area of judicial decision making and the most frequently restructured tribunal system Asylum adjudication is also one of the most difficult areas of decision making in the modern legal system Integrating empirical research with legal analysis this book provides an in depth study of the development and operation of this tribunal system and of asylum decision making The book examines how this particular appeal process seeks to mediate the tension between the competing values under which it operates There are chapters examining the organisation of the tribunal system its procedures the nature of fact finding in asylum cases and the operation of onward rights of challenge An examination as to how the tensions inherent in the idea of administrative justice are manifested in the context of a tribunal system responsible for making potentially life or death decisions this book fills a gap in the literature and will be of value to those interested in administrative law and asylum adjudication The Critics and Hemingway, 1924-2014 Laurence W. Mazzeno, 2015 Traces Hemingway's critical fortunes over the ninety years of his prominence telling us something about what we value in literature and why scholarly reputations rise and fall Hemingway burst on the literary scene in the 1920s with spare penetrating short stories and brilliant novels Soon he was held as a standard for modern writers Meanwhile he used his celebrity to create a persona like the stoic macho heroes of his fiction After a decline during the 1930s and 1940s he came roaring back with The Old Man and the Sea in 1952 Two years later he received the Nobel Prize While his popularity waxed and waned during his lifetime Hemingway's reputation among scholars remained strong as long as traditional scholarship dominated New approaches beginning in the 1960s brought a sea change however finding grave fault with his work and making him a figure ripe for vilification Yet during this time scholarship on him continued to appear His works still sell well and several are staples on high school and college syllabi A new scholarly edition of his letters is drawing prominent attention and there is a resurgence in scholarly attention to and approbation for his work Tracing Hemingway's critical fortunes tells us something about what we value in literature and why reputations rise
