

Overview

First published in 2006, Alabama Moon by Watt Key is a realistic middle-grade novel set in 1980 in rural Alabama. After being raised by his survivalist father, 12-year-old Moon Blake knows he can acquire anything he needs from the forest. When his father dies, Moon sets out for Alaska as Pap instructed. On his journey, Moon finds conflict with authorities, peers, "the system," and a constable intent on breaking his spirit. This guide follows the 2006 edition from Farrar, Straus, and Giroux. Alabama Moon was a 2007 Bank Street College of Education's Best Children's Book of the Year. A movie version was made in 2011.

Alabama Moon is categorized as middle grade or juvenile fiction and includes profanity within the novel's dialogue. The term "skinhead" (187) is used once in the novel when a character shaves Moon's head to rid him of bugs and ticks, then jokes about his appearance.

Plot Summary

Moon Blake is 12 years old in 1980. His father Ozzie, a skilled survivalist, just died, and Moon faces a new life alone in the rough, shelterless back woods. Pap raised Moon to survive in the woods using his own skills and resourcefulness and to never trust the government, rules, society, or authority. Moon's mother died when he was two, and Moon is unused to seeing or speaking with anyone besides Pap. Infrequently, he and Pap hiked out six miles to sell produce to Mr. Abrascotta at the general store. Before he broke his leg and died of infection, Pap grew increasingly paranoid and said that a lawyer recently built a large hunting lodge near to their shelter. Pap left Moon with instructions to seek the same unsullied lifestyle in Alaska, where he can hunt and kill without hassle.

After Moon buries his father, he seeks Mr. Abrascotta's advice on getting to Alaska. Mr. Abrascotta, however, calls the authorities. Moon rushes back to the shelter to hide out, but his loneliness that night drives him to spy on the lawyer through the hunting lodge window. The lawyer, Mr. Wellington, finds Moon asleep outside the next morning. Mr. Wellington welcomes Moon in and feeds him, telling him that a constable is looking for him. Mr. Wellington offers to find maps of Alaska for Moon, but it is a trick; soon Mr. Gene, headmaster of a local boys' home, arrives. On the way to the home, Moon gets sick. When Mr. Gene stops the car, Moon hits him before fleeing back to his shelter.
