Naked in Public Bella Vendramini, 2011 Follow your dreams whatever they are except the ones where you're naked in public Bella Vendramini knows that any good adventure starts with running away from home but packing twenty or so cities into just over a year probably went a wee bit overboard Add in a life changing romance or two acting in New York slow dancing with Quentin Tarantino in Berlin a super duper upside4d fast food breakdown meeting her very own Mr Big celebrity mayhem a Manhattan society wedding a donkey in a brothel driving the Monte Carlo grand prix circuit drunk breaking into the Cannes Film Festival also drunk digging up dead people exploding buildings tropical jungles parachuting pains embracing a Parisian love affair sigh fleeing a Canadian detention centre shooting movies making friends falling in love on the idyllic Island of Capri oh yeah and learning how to find herself where she last left herself draw breath and Bella figures she's finally learnt a thing or two about adventure and about life

Negative Space Robert Steiner, 2010-09-10 While sitting on a French terrace overlooking a three hundred year old olive grove at sunset a man listens as his wife confesses her love for someone else Preparing to leave after twenty years of marriage she details her erotic and emotional life a confession that leaves her husband spent but delirious with love for her The imminent loss of the passion of his life leads him to experience the power of desire grief and flushed obsession and thus begins this riveting monologue at the end of a marriage one that is mesmerizing with anger and regret Entirely alive in these intense moments the husband examines every experience every feeling that floods his mind with grief and anticipation And this need this experience becomes one of absolute truth as the story itself becomes composed of complicating love and loss Negative Space joins Steiner's earlier fictions such as Bathers Dread and The Catastrophe in evoking the dark texture and brilliant detail of erotic loss The result is an exploration of heartbreak and sexual obsession the reader will not soon forget

Naked City Sharon Zukin, 2009-12-18 As cities have gentrified educated urbanites have come to prize what they regard as authentic urban life aging buildings art galleries small boutiques upscale food markets neighborhood old timers funky ethnic restaurants and old family owned shops These signify a place's authenticity in contrast to the bland standardization of the suburbs and exurbs But as Sharon Zukin shows in Naked City the rapid and pervasive demand for authenticity evident in escalating real estate prices expensive stores and closely monitored urban streetscapes has helped drive out the very people who first lent a neighborhood its authentic aura immigrants the working class and artists Zukin traces this economic and social evolution in six archetypal New York areas Williamsburg Harlem the East Village Union Square Red Hook and the city's community gardens and travels to both the city's first IKEA store and the World Trade Center site She shows that for followers of Jane Jacobs this transformation is a perversion of what was supposed to happen Indeed Naked City is a sobering update of Jacobs' legendary 1961 book The Death and Life of Great American Cities Like Jacobs Zukin looks at what gives neighborhoods a sense of place but argues that over time the emphasis on neighborhood distinctiveness has become a tool of economic elites to drive up real estate values and effectively force out the neighborhood characters that Jacobs so evocatively idealized
