To Whom It May Concern,

I am pleased to write this letter of recommendation for Shelley Webster, who is applying to Columbia University. Shelley was enrolled in our 2-year nursing program. Here, I taught her four of the major courses she opted for.

In the capacity of her teacher and supervisor, I found Shelley a very hardworking and dedicated student who is always eager to learn. She also opted for two short elective courses pertaining to women's health and family medicine.

I genuinely admire her nursing skills and abilities. In particular, her way of handling disturbed patients is commendable. Besides being naturally compassionate and caring, she is highly dependable because of her ability to update patient charts and record files perfectly.

Furthermore, Shelly was an active participant in the weekly nursing seminars. She wrote a paper at the Annual ANA conference, which was published in the National Journal of Nursing Edition of May 6, 2019.
