workfare a proactive alternative to conventional welfare and their emergence with unique talents and perseverance to balance motherhood and work in the face of adversity. This compassionate and informative text uses the participants' own authentic voices in poems, plays, and narratives to tell their stories of survival and success in this unique governmental program. Women's Immersion in a Workfare Program: Emerging Challenges for Occupational Therapists first provides a socio-historical overview to place the issues in context and then comprehensively reviews the interaction between barriers to work and self-sufficiency, including kinship systems, mental health issues, complying with workfare, family role strain, and psychological well-being. The research findings examine how the women receiving TANF experience the mandatory work program as preparation for transition into the workforce, how the women fit the mandatory program into their daily life, and how the women feel about the transition into the workforce. Topics discussed in Women's Immersion in a Workfare Program: Emerging Challenges for Occupational Therapists include welfare reform, history of single mothers, transition to self-sufficiency, experience of workfare, qualitative research methodology, surviving adversity, impact of welfare reform on children. Women's Immersion in a Workfare Program: Emerging Challenges for Occupational Therapists is a revealing, at times moving, text for occupational therapists, nurses, social workers, welfare reform professionals, researchers, educators, and students. Annual Report of the Ministry of Health Great Britain.
