British Medical Journal, 1893     A Bold Profession Leslie Anne Hadfield, 2021-05-11 In rural South African clinics Black nurses were charged with administering life saving health care measures despite a lack of equipment and personnel often while navigating the intersections of traditional African healing practices and changing gender relations A Bold Profession is an homage to their dedication to the well being of their communities     New Society, 1969     Farmer's Weekly, 1923     The Nightingale Shore Murder Rosemary Cook, 2015-10-07 This updated and expanded second edition is the true story of the unsolved murder of Florence Nightingale's goddaughter Florence Nightingale Shore grew up in a Victorian family that found itself mired in controversy and scandal She became a respected Queen's Nurse who worked for five years in France from 1914 and was decorated for her heroism in World War 1 Tragically on her return to England Florence was murdered on a moving train a classic closed room murder mystery in a railway carriage In spite of the best efforts of the local police Scotland Yard and the famous pathologist Bernard Spilsbury the crime was never solved But now a new suspect has been identified and another mystery has been uncovered amongst the shadowy characters surrounding the crime to add to the unanswered questions Who was the man in the brown suit What was the significance of the unloaded revolver And did the Arlington burglar have a sinister reason to burn all his clothing These questions and the breathtaking new theory that would rewrite the whole story of Florence's life are all explored in this fascinating book which combines mystery with history and true crime with true heroism Florence's story ranges from Victorian England to South Africa China and war torn Europe Her family members emerge as flawed fascinating characters and her brutal death as one of the most tragic and enduring unsolved crimes in England     Acoustics of Empire Peter L. McMurray, Priyasha Mukhopadhyay, 2024 Music and sound studies have increasingly turned their attention to questions of empire and postcolonial thought in recent years raising new questions about the forms and circulation of cultural technological political and military power as manifest in and through sound However most of this scholarship has focused on the twentieth and twenty first centuries Conversely sound and media studies have made nineteenth century histories of science and technology a central part of their canonical repertoire but largely overlooked the ways in which these technological developments emerged from contexts of empire

Acoustics of Empire provides a cultural history of global acoustics in the Age of Empire Examining histories of sound listening practices and audiovisual technologies of the long nineteenth century through the lens of geopolitical power the authors recover a sonic history that is irrefutably entangled with questions of imperial power and colonial rule This volume brings together historians musicologists anthropologists and literary scholars to consider topics ranging from Indian music treatises and vocal practices in Brazil to Egyptian traffic noises and stethoscopes as props in South Africa Across its chapters more broadly it also draws attention to a period when Euro American academic disciplines like musicology and linguistics were created shaped by the imperial contexts in which they emerged These intertwined legacies of sound and power are not simply historical curiosities rather they stand as formative influences in cultural modernity and its discontents that continue to shape the ways we hear and experience the world today

Taking Care of the Future Oliver Pattenden, 2018-03-06 Taking Care of the Future examines the moral dimensions and transformative capacities of education and humanitarianism through an intimate portrayal of learners volunteers donors and educators at a special needs school in South Africa and a partnering UK based charity Drawing on his professional experience of inclusive education in London Oliver Pattenden investigates how systems of schooling regularly exclude and mishandle marginalized populations particularly exploring how street kids and poverty afflicted young South Africans experience these dynamics as they attempt to fashion their futures By unpacking the ethical terrains of fundraising voluntourism Christian benevolence human rights colonial legacies and the post apartheid transition Pattenden analyzes how political economic and social aspects of intervention materialize to transform the lives of all those involved

The Third Kind Michael Ryan, 2015-11-16 This book is a Compendium of all documented UFO sightings through out history from as early as 200 BC to Events taking place today on a world wide scale What does it all mean Are They real and if so why are they here In the end the decision is yours
