Serving Vulnerable and Marginalized Populations in Social and Educational Contexts Anies Al-Hroub, Sally Reis, Joseph Madaus, Itab Shuayb, 2024-04-26 There is evidence that the global COVID 19 crisis is exacerbating existing inequalities and marginalization of vulnerable groups including exceptional learners stateless street migrant and refugee children and youths and the limited use of frameworks of emergency planning with and for marginalized and at risk individuals These challenges are multi sectoral and intersecting and they require multi and interdisciplinary interventions to inform inclusive responses These issues include being at a greater risk of excluding vulnerable learners from gaining access to equitable education online remote and blended education Intersecting forms of discrimination such as gender socioeconomic and legal status further exacerbate the problem This has alerted us to examine the living conditions of marginalized and vulnerable populations around the globe and to reveal their experiences problems and needs from an educational perspective thus bringing insights into their vulnerabilities during the pandemic

Criminality at Work Alan Bogg, Jennifer Collins, Mark Freedland, Jonathan Herring, 2020-03-12 From the Master and Servant legislation to the Factories Acts of the 19th century the criminal law has always had a vital yet normatively complex role in the regulation of work relations Even in its earliest forms it operated both as a tool to repress collective organizations and enforce labour discipline while policing the worst excesses of industrial capitalism Recently governments have begun to rediscover criminal law as a regulatory tool in a diverse set of areas related to labour law modern slavery penalizing irregular migrants licensing regimes for labour market intermediaries wage theft supporting the enforcement of general labour standards new forms of hybrid preventive orders harassment at work and industrial protest This volume explores the political and regulatory dimensions of the new criminality at work from a wide range of disciplinary perspectives including labour law immigration law and health and safety regulations The volume provides an overview of the regulatory terrain of criminality at work exploring whether these different regulatory interventions represent politically legitimate uses of the criminal law The book also examines whether these recent interventions constitute a new pattern of criminalization that operates in preventive mode and is based upon character and risk based forms of culpability The volume concludes by reflecting upon the general themes of criminality at work comparatively from Australian Canadian and US perspectives Criminality at Work is a timely rich and ambitious piece of scholarship that examines the many intersections between criminal law and work relations from a historical and contemporary vantage point ... Legislative Summary California.
