Nursing Reflection Meetings:

Reflections on Community Psychiatric Nursing Tony Gillam, 2003-09-02 Reflections on Community Psychiatric Nursing provides new insights into many aspects of the CPN's work. Written by a practising CPN, this is a lively and easy to read introduction to the key debates in community mental health covering issues including professional identity, the community and the role of the nurse, teaching, assessment and clinical supervision, good practice and the concept of risk, mental health promotion, user involvement, treatment from medication to psychosocial interventions. This text is essential reading for students and those undertaking further training as CPN's. In addition, practising nurses and other professionals will find it useful in developing their own reflective practice as well as offering a useful overview of an increasingly important area of nursing.

Parish Nursing Phyllis Ann Solari-Twadell, Mary Ann McDermott, 2006-01-01 Written by a multidisciplinary panel of experts, this comprehensive text and reference presents a fundamental understanding of all aspects of parish nursing, providing in-depth information essential to understanding the ministry of a parish nursing practice. This is the only text in parish nursing that addresses the role of the parish nurse administrator and includes suggested policies and procedures as well as recommendations for competency development for parish nurses.

Reflections on Nursing American Journal of Nursing, 2016-10-03 Offering life and career-changing moments in nurses' lives, the 80 true stories in Reflections on Nursing reveal nursing at its most demanding and fulfilling. Written mainly by nurses offering care at home, hospital or hospice, these first-person stories convey the professional burdens, personal growth and inner realizations found in the course of patient care. Whether you are a new or experienced practitioner or just fascinated by nursing care in action, these inspiring true stories show nursing as both professional and life experience and often as an inspired journey. Experience the challenges and hard-earned wisdom of these real-life nursing moments. Written by or about nurses of all experience levels and in numerous care settings, including stories about memorable nurses written by patients, family members and doctors. Dive into these engrossing short stories and go on a journey with the nurse who inspires dignity and strength in a young soldier who is losing his wife, the young nurse who stands up to a bullying preceptor, the nurse who realizes her best friend, a fellow nurse, is stealing drugs from their unit, the nurse struggling to give adequate care to seven patients at once on an understaffed unit, the retired doctor who recalls the nurse who saved him as a young intern from mishandling a crucial situation with a dying patient, the nurse who takes on an angry patient with a challenging case to offer special help and encouragement, nurses who become a patient, the nurse administrator who pushes hard for administrative decisions that will support nurses and improve patient care, the inspiring patients who help nurses remember why they became a nurse.
