Theology as Performance Philip Stoltzfus, 2006-06-05 Theology as Performance breaks new ground in the growing conversation between modern theology and philosophical aesthetics Stoltzfus proposes that significant moments in the Western development of the concept of God in particular as represented in the figures of Friedrich Schleiermacher Karl Barth and Ludwig Wittgenstein have been deeply influenced by concepts and approaches borrowed from the discipline of musical aesthetics Each thinker develops fundamentally different ways of writing about God that have in significant respects been derived from each one's reading and writing about music The aesthetic implications of Schleiermacher's so-called subjectivist turn Barth's objectivist reaction and Wittgenstein's language game pragmatism can thus be fully understood only by attending to the musical culture and distinctly musicological discourses that gave rise to them Stoltzfus constructs two trajectories of thought with which to trace theological reflection upon music throughout the pre-modern period the traditions of Orpheus and Pythagoras Schleiermacher's aesthetic approach then becomes a modern representative of the Orpheus trajectory and Barth's approach a representative of the Pythagoras trajectory Stoltzfus interprets Wittgenstein as putting forward a radical critique of these trajectories and pointing toward a third performative theological aesthetic method Theology as Performance offers a provocative rethinking of the aesthetic roots of modern theology

"Multiplication is for White People" Lisa Delpit, 2012 Delpit explores a wide range of little-known research that conclusively demonstrates there is no achievement gap at birth and argues that poor teaching negative stereotypes about African American intellectual inferiority and a curriculum that still does not adequately connect to poor children's lives all conspire against the education prospects of poor children of color

Life Lens Michele Monahan Horner, 2016 In Life Lens Seeing Your Children in Color author and celebrated Suzuki music instructor Michele Monahan Horner presents a trailblazing model that will identify your students' unique learning needs and make your teaching easier and a whole lot more fun The Life Lens method analyzes each individual through the power of observation By simply watching your children you will quickly be able to learn their best learning style thinking process pace preference relationship to time and what most motivates them Life Lens is a system that breaks down a child's interior landscape into seven different colors Far from typecasting the foundation of the Life Lens method is respectful recognition of individuals' hardwired differences and learning how to work with those differences by meeting those individuals where they are most ready to learn Below are just a few people who will benefit from the Life Lens model Parents Educators Social Workers Guidance Counselors Human Resources Professionals Coaches Business Owners Life Lens principles apply universally across all ages classroom groups and with non-musicians By using Life Lens you will be able to home in on the most effective strategies to communicate with and help your students learn Parents will learn how to eliminate hidden relationship stressors so that practice or homework time will be happier and more productive After reading Life Lens you will never see the world in black and white again Book jacket
