Theoretical Approaches to Multi-Cultural Positive Psychological Interventions

Llewellyn Ellardus Van Zyl, Sebastiaan Rothmann Sr., 2019-06-11 This volume provides theoretical perspectives on and approaches to the development or enhancement of positive psychological capacities within various multi cultural professional and organizational contexts Specifically it presents theoretical frameworks for the identification development and optimization of positive psychological capacities through a contemporary multi cultural and multi disciplinary lens In recent years the applicability of positive psychological intervention PPI techniques has transposed the boundaries of clinical practice into a wide array of complementary domains such as law education business and even design sciences such as architecture These interventions target the enhancement of positive psychological capacities e g strength identification and use high performance learning appreciative design job crafting in order to not only improve individual functioning well being and the treatment of various forms of psychopathology but also to enhance team functioning performance organizational growth and community development Despite its importance very little research has been done on the design of PPIs applicable to multi cultural contexts The contributions to this volume provide insights into this hitherto neglected area of research

Promoting sustainable local economic development initiatives Marius Venter, 2022 This book endeavours to outline case studies that promote sustainable Local Economic Development LED initiatives It is generally believed that local governments are the foot soldiers of LED However this seems to be a myth as local governments in South Africa and elsewhere have not yet fulfilled this mandate and have been struggling for several years to implement LED initiatives The distinctive merit of this book lies in the way it combines the South African context with the wider international development context in ways that there is a flow of information and ideas both ways The book is an essential part of this sequence of ideas development and action at a critical time for strategic action directed at a sustainable future It showcases case studies and responses to the impacts of globalisation as a bridge between urban rural and institutional action and reveals avenues for local government leadership in communities research student engagement and wider interactions Human Issues in Translation

Technology Dorothy Kenny,2017-01-12 Translation technologies are moulded by and impact upon humans in all sorts of ways This state of the art volume looks at translation technologies from the point of view of the human users as trainee professional or volunteer translators or as end users of translations produced by machines Covering technologies from machine translation to online collaborative platforms and practices from traditional translation to crowdsourced translation and subtitling this volume takes a critical stance questioning both utopian and dystopian visions of translation technology In eight chapters the authors propose ideas on how technologies can better serve translators and end users of translations The first four chapters explore how translators in various contexts and with widely differing profiles use and feel about translation technologies as they currently stand while the second four chapters focus on the future on anticipating needs identifying emerging possibilities and defining interventions that can help to shape translation practice and research Drawing on a range of theories from cognitive to social and psychological and with empirical evidence of what the technologization of the workplace means to translators Human Issues in Translation Technology is key reading for all those involved in translation and technology translation theory and translation research methods Rethinking commerce education in South Africa Elsabé Loots ,Johan Oberholster ,2023-04-29 This book aims to advance the knowledge on the future of business education in South Africa and to allow all relevant role players universities and industry the opportunity to debate and share ideas on how to best position business education to optimally serve the interest of students and the dynamic changes taking place in the world of work Although some of these changes have taken shape before 2020 the COVID 19 pandemic has accelerated the need and pace for change If business schools in our context faculties of economic and management sciences do not adapt rapidly they will be left behind by other up and coming industry providers The research scope covers all business related undergraduate and postgraduate economics management and accounting programmes excluding MBA programmes The International Handbook of Positive Psychology Edward C.
