Helen Elsey, Patricia Kitsao-Wekulo, Robert C. Hughes, Margaret Nampijja, Paula Griffiths, Shagoofa Rakhshanda, George Evans Owino, 2024-06-26 Rapid urbanization in low and middle income countries LMICs has triggered a childcare crisis As families move to the city they leave behind extended family and traditional support networks parents and guardians particularly mothers are working long hours outside the home often in informal and unstable jobs In response to the increasing demand a range of informal private and NGO providers have sprung up to provide day and sometimes night care Governments are struggling to respond and the care for children in the early years frequently falls between ministries The combination of these factors in LMIC cities has left children from low income families with substandard childcare which poses a threat to their immediate and long term health and development District

Patterns Of Change In Developing Rural Regions Dafna Schwartz,Raphael Bar-El,Avrom Bendavid-Val,Gerald Karaska,2019-07-11 Development specialists often overlook the fact that the towns of a rural region play as essential a role in the region's economy as does agriculture and they design and implement broad strategies without due recognition of the unique and dynamic character of each individual region Proper analysis requires consideration of the changing nature of rural regions and the principal agents of change The contributors to this volume argue that development strategists should focus on processes rather than on products by taking the nonfarm aspects as well as the farm aspects of rural development into account and by recognizing that land labor water and technology do not alone lead to balanced regional and agricultural development The analytical approaches presented in this book incorporate wide ranging variables from the urban space of rural regions markets towns service industries and organizations that have major impacts on the rural regional economy These methodologies aim at improving rural regional development processes      Kenya National Assembly Official Record (Hansard) ,2005-10-05 The official records of the proceedings of the Legislative Council of the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya the House of Representatives of the Government of Kenya and the National Assembly of the Republic of Kenya
