Changes in Care Cati Coe, 2021-10-15 Africa is known both for having a primarily youthful population and for its elders being held in high esteem However this situation is changing people in Africa are living longer some for many years with chronic disabling illnesses In Ghana many older people rather than experiencing a sense of security that they will be respected and cared for by the younger generations feel anxious that they will be abandoned and neglected by their kin In response to their concerns about care they and their kin are exploring new kinds of support for aging adults from paid caregivers to social groups and senior day centers These innovations in care are happening in fits and starts in episodic and scattered ways visible in certain circles more than others By examining emergent discourses and practices of aging in Ghana

Changes in Care makes an innovative argument about the uneven and fragile processes by which some social change occurs There is a short film that accompanies the book Making Happiness Older People Organize Themselves 2020 an 11 minute film by Cati Coe Available at <https://doi.org/doi/10.7282/t3.thke.hp15> The Complete Book of Colleges, 2013 Edition Princeton Review, 2012-08-07 Profiles every four year college in the United States providing detailed information on academic programs admissions requirements financial aid services housing athletics contact names and campus life
