Nursing Homes Use Diapers:

Practicing CNA in Nursing Homes Acene Fleurmons, 2009-02 This book Practicing CNA in Nursing Homes is a gem in between CNAs hands Many of them have great experiences and provide star service in nursing homes and reach the residents satisfaction by using standard precautions and applying the CNAs skills properly However most of them lack the skills and use them improperly They need some help not only regarding skills but also regarding handling nosocomial infections and raising customer satisfaction This book also aims toward an ambitious objective which is being a primary source of research for those who are interested in nursing homes in the United States Nursing homes exist everywhere in the world but we find that the level of function here is different Therefore this book is going to describe life inside the nursing homes in this country It is a mixture of micro socio pathological descriptions that can resuscitate a desire to better understand this reality which has remained so long unknown and that needs to be unveiled Acene Fleurmons was born in Artibonite Haiti in 1959 His father is Anoucet Fleurmons and his mother is Carmen two farmers who raised eight children Acene is the fifth child who grew up in God s grace and went to school in Port au Prince where he earned a certificate in philosophy at the Higher Teacher Training School in 1990 and in sociology at the Humanities School in 1993 Acene came to Miami in 1997 and went to Florida International University FIU There he received a Bachelor of Social Work in 2004 After that Acene continued studying with Bellevue University and earned 27 credits in Healthcare Management and Administration of Nursing master s program This study is in progress Moreover Acene earned his doctorate degree in Christian Counseling from the Ministry International Institute in 2005 Nursing Home Ethics Bethel Ann Powers, RN, PhD, 2003-09-09

Designated a Doody s Core Title Winner of an AJN Book of the Year Award p Bethel Ann Powers gives a comprehensive and thoughtful examination of the ethical issues that arise in long term care The first two chapters set the stage by exploring the pre nursing home experiences of families living with dementia and in contrast how residents and family members experience life in the nursing home The following chapters contain detailed hypothetical cases that include questions possible actions and insightful commentary to illustrate practical approaches to understanding common ethical issues affecting nursing home residents Caution: Nursing Home Ahead Stacia G. Girard, 2012-08-29

Is your loved one really getting the best care possible in the nursing home Are you sure Do you want to be Author Stacia Girard didnt take anything for granted when it was time to move her mother into a care facility Through her unceasing demands for better care and respect she made sure that her mother got the care she deserved Here she shares her story and her secrets for getting your loved ones the best care possible When it comes to nursing care expensive does not always equal good No nursing home is perfect but you can help by simply being present in your family members life and active in their care By getting and staying involved you are the key to great care on any budget You can increase the quality of care for your loved one through diligence and diplomacy or if that fails Stacia shares her advice on how you can take more forceful action Stacia spent twenty years on the inside at her mothers care facility as an employee and family member Stacia tells the story of her mother who suffered dementia what she went through and what it took to get her the care she needed Her mother got the best care available at an average nursing home because her daughter cared enough to demand it If you are in charge of your loved ones care this is a responsibility you share conscientious care starts with you Nursing Homes and Assisted Living Peter S. Silin, 2009-11-16 Almost a decade ago Peter S Silin wrote Nursing Homes The Family's Journey to provide family members with practical advice and emotional support This successor volume incorporates the new and sometimes baffling world of assisted living Nursing Homes and Assisted Living focuses on the psychological emotional and practical aspects of helping family members and seniors make a difficult transition Silin approaches his subject with compassion and sensitivity guiding readers through the process of finding the best possible care He describes how nursing homes and assisted living facilities work and outlines the selection process he explains how to prepare for the day a relative moves into a facility and suggests ways to help the resident settle in he focuses on the family member's role in solving problems obtaining good quality care and visiting The author's insights help caregivers cope with difficult decisions and deal with emotional issues such as guilt and grief while celebrating the tender rewarding aspects of being a caregiver Vignettes from real life caregivers narrating their experiences amplify Silin's advice and will resonate with families This book provides caregivers family members and seniors with the information they need to effect successful transitions It is also a valuable tool for social workers nurses and family therapists
