Nurturing Different Dreams Youth Ministry Across Lines Of Difference:

Nurturing Different Dreams Katherine Turpin, Anne Walker, 2014-10-09 Increasingly adolescents and young adults in the United States are racially and socioeconomically diverse while the teaching population remains predominantly white and middle class Many youth ministry programs that utilize volunteer mentors recruit adults who are ill equipped to bridge cultural differences and effectively build sustainable relationships with adolescents who come from different backgrounds than their own College and university campus ministries that are historically white struggle to provide adequate support and mentoring for students who have traditionally not been represented in the college population Often mentoring relationships break down over cultural misunderstandings As educators who come from backgrounds marked by privilege Katherine Turpin and Anne Carter Walker draw from their experiences in an intentionally culturally diverse youth ministry program to name the challenges and inadequacies of ministry with young people from marginalized communities Through engaging case studies and vignettes the authors re examine the assumptions about youth agency vocational development educational practice and mentoring Offering concrete guidelines and practices for working effectively across lines of difference Nurturing Different Dreams invites readers to consider their own cultural assumptions and practices for mentoring adolescents and assists readers in analyzing and transforming their practices of mentoring young people who come from different communities than their own Youth Ministry as Peace Education Elizabeth W. Corrie, 2021 Youth Ministry as Peace Education offers clergy students and practitioners a new approach to youth ministry to equip young people to transform violence and oppression as part of their Christian vocation In this theologically robust and pedagogically innovative and tested resource Elizabeth W Corrie shows that youth like all of us are meant to work to establish God's shalom peace justice and well being on earth as it is in heaven Book jacket Conundrums in Practical Theology Joyce Ann Mercer, Bonnie Miller-McLemore, 2016-09-19 In this landmark volume internationally recognized scholars address key intellectual and practical conundrums that not only trouble practical theology but also reflect biases and breakdowns in the construction of theological knowledge in academy and religious communities at large With critical facility and unheralded honesty that includes reflexivity about their own lives in the academy the authors tackle complex issues that refuse easy solutions racism hierarchy of theory over practice devaluation of small case studies risks of interdisciplinarity to scholarly identity inequities between Christian traditions unreflective Christian centrism and tensions between the production of scholarship and public service Outcomes of these issues will have serious implications for the discipline and the study of theology for years to come Contributors include Tom Beaudoin Eileen R Campbell Reed Faustino M Cruz Jaco Dreyer Courtney T Goto Tone Stangeland Kaufman Joyce Ann Mercer Bonnie J Miller McLemore Phillis Isabella Sheppard Katherine Turpin Claire E Wolfe Neurodiversity, Faith Formation, and Theological Education Michael Paul Cartledge, Erin Rafferty, 2025-04-25 This book demonstrates the constructive insights the neurodiversity paradigm presents for a more thorough understanding of creation human flourishing Christian virtues ecclesiology belonging youth ministry prayer worship and justice The neurodiversity movement is a social justice movement that celebrates the unique insights and strengths of Autistic people people with ADHD learning differences and other experiences like Tourette s and tics Rather than viewing such experiences as deficits the movement emphasizes the natural variation in the ways people think learn and live in the world Yet people with these diagnoses who often identify as neurodivergent have experienced prejudice and stigma in educational and church spaces due to their neurological or behavioral differences Participation in church and learning environments is often a burden for neurodivergent people What can theological educators and ministry leaders learn from the neurodiversity paradigm and movement How might places of learning and worship be transformed by listening to the voices of neurodivergent people Drawing on empirical research and lived experience the contributors to this book pursue answers to these questions and present a vision of faith formation and theological education that centers the voices of neurodivergent people and cultivates environments where people of all neurotypes can flourish This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Disability Religion

Calling All Years Good Kathleen A. Cahalan, Bonnie J. Miller-McLemore, 2017-07-05 A uniquely comprehensive discussion of vocation from infancy to old age Do infants have a vocation Do Alzheimer s patients In popular culture vocation is often reduced to adult work or church ministry Rarely do we consider childhood or old age as crucial times for commencing or culminating a life of faith in response to God s calling This book addresses that gap by showing how vocation emerges and evolves over the course of an entire lifetime The authors cover six of life s distinct seasons weaving together personal narrative developmental theory case studies and spiritual practices Calling All Years Good grounds the discussion of vocation in concrete realities and builds a cohesive framework for understanding calling throughout all of life

Embodying Youth Wesley Ellis, Michael Langford, 2020-05-21 Embodying Youth Exploring Youth Ministry and Disability seeks to help close the gap between disability theology and youth ministry education What is youth ministry And who is it for Christian youth workers and ministers in the West have been answering these questions either implicitly or explicitly for decades The ways we answer these questions and the ways in which we go about answering them have huge implications with regards to the faithfulness and effectiveness of the church s ministry with young people These questions have not always been pursued with the experience of disability in mind In fact it is often excluded not only from the academic field but from the church s practice of youth ministry as well In this book scholars and youth workers seek to attend to the questions of youth ministry by putting the experience of disability at the forefront with hope not only that the church might include young people with disabilities but also that our very understanding of what youth ministry is and who youth ministry is for might be transformed for the sake of the gospel This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Disability Religion

Faith Forward Volume 3 David Csinos, 2018-05-30 In one of his best known songs Bruce Cockburn sings about lovers in a dangerous time Well there s no doubt that our world is under siege and that we are living in a dangerous time With massive crises threatening life all over our planet economic crises social crises ecological crises the list goes on and on our faith can t afford to ignore the reality of our diverse and fragile world Our faith needs to move or inspire us to get our hands not just dirty but downright bruised and bloody as we work against the tremendous forces of hatred death and suffering in our world That s what this third volume in the Faith Forward series is about It s about forming Christian lovers in the dangerous time in which we live It s about dousing the flames of hatred and suffering in our world by pouring out unconditional sacrificial love It s about having rich and meaningful and difficult conversations about how we can do ministry with children youth and families in ways that have the power to heal the world How can we empower children and youth to disrupt the world with God s love How can we empower them to overturn the tables and shatter the walls and to pour out compassion and justice and love in the world This kind of ministry isn't easy or popular work And it isn't going to pack kids into our church But it's truly life and death work and we need to do it as embodiments of God's hope and healing Like the other books in this series Faith Forward Volume 3 collects the wisdom of some of the leading thinkers and shakers and movers in the arena of ministry with children and youth including Alaa Basatneh Brian D McLaren Soong Chan Rah Waltrina N Middleton Daniel White Hodge Lisa and Mark Scandrette Marcia J Bunge Leslie Neugent Ivy Beckwith Eboo Patel Almeda M Wright and Amy K Butler

"Same Is Better" Cari Myers, 2022-10-31 As younger generations drift away from evangelical churches the number of religiously unaffiliated young adults grows Is the drift because of politics personal morality rebelliousness culture wars or something else In this project 16 young adults from the Churches of Christ participate in qualitative interviews over a five year span They describe messages they learned about success and survival from their faith communities as children and how they have embraced and reinterpreted those messages into helpful life principles as adults The resulting study explores issues of ethnicity in evangelical borderland communities and contrasts Latinx narratives with white narratives in religious and educative contexts Findings also revealed gendered narratives class based narratives and the glaring absence of helpful narratives around sexuality filtered through the lenses of religion and education The central finding of the interviews is this participants experienced the Church of Christ as rewarding conformity with community a strategy when it works which secures the future of the denomination and cements a conservative doctrine in the next generation of leadership However the study concludes that true survival narratives were the narratives participants constructed in response to the narratives provided by Churches of Christ

Decolonizing Interreligious Education Shannon Frediani, 2022-10-28 Decolonizing Interreligious Education explores multiple injustices focusing on the lived experience unaddressed grief and acts of resistance and resilience of populations most impacted by coloniality and white supremacy It lifts up the voices of those speaking from embodied experience of suffering multiple oppressions based on negative constructs of race religion skin color nationality etc Engaging ideological critique construction of knowledge beyond dominant lenses and acts of resistance are presented from the perspective of those most impacted by systemic injustice It challenges interreligious education to frame encounters where the impact of intergenerational trauma and the realities of power differentials are recognized and the contributions of all voices are truly integrated It challenges the fields of religious and interreligious education to imagine a broadened view that includes recognition of the role played by religion in harm done and to take a leadership role in engaging processes of accountability and redress

Because of their ever changing personalities their high energy and their emerging ability to think critically younger adolescents present a special faith formation challenge to the congregations who love them This book explores an educational strategy of creating biblical dramas with tweens for spiritual formation and increased familiarity with the Christian tradition The project of creating a drama for presentation to the congregation invites tweens to dig into the history of interpretation of the story to make connections across the biblical text and to engage with the characters in relevant ways to their own experiences Writing and producing a small play in worship allows them to share their learnings with the rest of their faith community The book helps prepare adult volunteers to better understand the transformations happening in the late elementary and middle school years and to lead tweens through this process with confidence Five sample plays all co written and performed by the tweens of Christ Church United Methodist in Denver Colorado are also included These slightly snarky but fearlessly faithful interpretations model the kind of depth engagement with biblical stories that the Drama Tweens process hopes to create     Saturday Review ,1963-07
