research has been done on the design of PPIs applicable to multi cultural contexts The contributions to this volume provide insights into this hitherto neglected area of research Leadership for change W.P. Wahl,René Pelsler,2020-12-31 This edited volume reveals how the journey of transformation at the University of the Free State UFS became interwoven with student leadership development and global learning The UFS initiated two intersecting co curricular programmes namely the First Year Leadership for Change F1L4C programme in 2010 and the triennial Global Leadership Summit GLS in 2012 Although these programmes changed over time their core focus remained to be the development of transformational student leaders through the creation of global learning spaces From its inception in 2010 to the last GLS in 2018 the UFS global learning project involved 780 students and 259 staff members from 109 institutions across four continents The goal of this edited volume is to create a deeper understanding of how the UFS F1L4C and GLS programmes enhanced student leadership development through global learning especially in the context of higher education transformation Christian hermeneutics in South Africa Hendrik Goede,Nico Vorster,2024-02-26 Hermeneutics remains a divisive and polarizing topic within scholarly and ecclesiastical communities in South Africa These tensions are not limited to theoretical differences but often crystallize on a grassroots level when local churches and church assemblies have to make important decisions on controversial ethical topics such as ordaining women in church offices assessing the ethics of gay marriages and taking a stance on the land debate in South Africa This book makes a unique contribution in two ways firstly it focuses on the uniquely South African hermeneutical landscape secondly it relates theories to practical ethical application The unique scholarly contribution of this consists in it relating hermeneutics to ethics within the South African landscape A diverse group of scholars have been invited to partake in the project and the views expressed are often quite diverse This allows readers to develop an understanding and sensitivity of the various angles employed and the interests at stake in addressing difficult societal problems The Future of Higher Education in the Middle East and Africa Habib M. Fardoun,Kevin J.

Downing,Mandy Mok,2018-03-26 This book addresses some of the challenges posed by the globalization of higher education It examines the emergence and resulting challenges of English as Lingua Franca ELF and of the decision to use English as the Medium of Instruction EMI as part of a strategic policy of internationalization It looks at survival challenges caused by globalization and expansion the diversity challenge the concept of marginality and how marginality can lead to creativity teaching and encouraging entrepreneurialism the tools needed for internationalizing higher education in developing countries innovative approaches the intelligent use of technology and finally the value of non constraint engagement in driving teaching and course quality improvements The expansion of higher education and the increasingly international body of students and staff continue to inspire and drive the development of global higher education systems Whilst these systems began locally many are now engaging with the challenges of retaining their local flavour whilst embracing the march of globalisation The challenge is to find local solutions that also meet the requirements of the rapid development of what might be termed the massification of international higher education This book reflects these contemporary challenges through its variety of topics taken from countries as diverse as Hong Kong Panama South Africa USA and Saudi Arabia The topics are as diverse as some of the local solutions but each chapter represents a response to a rapidly changing global landscape
