Faith + Resilience = Success Lamar Whitehead, 2019-10-03 Have you ever felt like you couldn't get ahead in life Whether it was financially mentally physically or in a relationship you just cannot get ahead to take it to the next level Have you ever felt like no matter what you did it was never good enough like everyone was effortlessly passing you by while you are staying still and afloat on a motionless lake Well I remember like it was yesterday having a conversation with an old friend who was telling me her struggles in life and why her life seems to be upside down Then that's when I saw the light I had an epiphany that we as humanity have been viewing success wrong What I noticed was that her values were all self-centered which caused her to view success differently Society must understand that love is life's true essence of success that will bring about life's essential amenities like joy peace and happiness So I was inspired and I began to write This book Faith Resilience Equals Success was birthed out of that conversation to first find and pursue the true meaning of success and second how to obtain it It has been my personal mission to enlighten all walks of life of humanity starting with the leaders and focusing on the youth by pulling the blindfolds off to see the true essence of success So viewers come join us by reading this book to find the true meaning of success and the one essential element that we all must possess to obtain success This book acts as a navigator to help change one's perception of success by providing factual knowledge and wisdom derived from biblical principles and what I personally experienced in my life A Christian Approach to Work and Family Burnout Thomas V. Frederick, Scott E. Dunbar, 2019-08-27 In A Christian Approach to Work and Family Burnout Calling, Caring and Connecting Thomas V. Frederick and Scott E. Dunbar provide a Christian spiritual model to prevent and cope with burnout caused by the workplace and conflict with family Coupled with indifference and lack of urgency burnout eliminates a sense of purposefulness and results in psychological depletion To counter this Frederick and Dunbar stress the importance of connecting with God in order to understand intrinsic motivations and redefine work as a calling and means to care for others Evaluating Interreligious Peacebuilding and Dialogue Mohammed Abu-Nimer, Renáta Katalin Nelson, 2021-09-20 In the emerging fields of religious and interreligious peacebuilding the question of monitoring and evaluation is a challenging yet necessary process The need to develop comprehensive yet fitting evaluation models for religious and interreligious peacebuilding is not only important for donor interests but also critical as a means of documenting and learning for peacebuilders themselves Theories and best practices in monitoring and evaluation have become prevalent in many fields yet the amount of literature on evaluating intercultural and especially religious and interreligious projects remains scant in comparison This volume offers a unique contribution that not only looks at several of the challenges and implications faced by religious and interreligious peacebuilders but also provides concrete examples of new models and tools for monitoring and evaluating religious and interreligious peacebuilding projects In doing so this volume serves as a tool and point of reference for individuals and organizations developing and implementing interreligious dialogue and peacebuilding projects More Books Boston Public Library, 1927
