Race and the Wild West Laura J. Arata, 2020-07-02 Winner of the Western Writers of America SPUR Award and the Western Association of Women Historians Gita Chaudhuri Prize Born a slave in eastern Tennessee Sarah Blair Bickford 1852 1931 made her way while still a teenager to Montana Territory where she settled in the mining boomtown of Virginia City Race and the Wild West is the first full length biography of this remarkable woman whose life story affords new insight into race and belonging in the American West around the turn of the twentieth century For many years Sarah Bickford s known biography fit into a single paragraph By examining her life in all its complexity Arata fills in what were long believed to be unrecoverable silent spaces in her story Before establishing herself as a successful business owner we learn she was twice married both times to white men Her first husband an Irish immigrant physically abused her until she divorced him in 1881 Their three children all died before the age of ten In 1883 she married Stephen Bickford and gave birth to four more children Upon his death she inherited his shares of the Virginia City Water Company acquiring sole ownership in 1917 For the final decade of her life Bickford actively preserved and promoted a historic Virginia City building best known as the site of the brutal lynching in 1864 of five men Her conspicuous role in developing an early form of heritage tourism challenges long standing narratives that place white men at the center of the Wild West myth and its promotion Bickford s story offers a window into the dynamics of race in the rural West Although her experiences defy easy categorization what is clear is that her navigation of social norms and racial barriers did not hinge on exceptionalism or tokenism Instead she built a life that deserves to be understood on its own terms Through exhaustive research and nuanced analysis Laura J Arata advances our understanding of a woman whose life embodied the contradictory

intersections of hope and disappointment that characterized life in the early twentieth century American West for brave pioneers of many races Utopian Universities Miles Taylor, Jill Pellew, 2020-11-12 In a remarkable decade of public investment in higher education some 200 new university campuses were established worldwide between 1961 and 1970 This volume offers a comparative and connective global history of these institutions illustrating how their establishment intellectual output and pedagogical experimentation sheds light on the social and cultural topography of the long 1960s With an impressive geographic coverage using case studies from Europe the Americas Africa and Asia the book explores how these universities have influenced academic disciplines and pioneered new types of teaching architectural design and student experience From educational reform in West Germany to the establishment of new institutions with progressive interdisciplinary curricula in the Commonwealth the illuminating case studies of this volume demonstrate how these universities shared in a common cause the embodiment of utopian ideals of living learning and governance At a time when the role of higher education is fiercely debated Utopian Universities is a timely and considered intervention that offers a wide ranging historical dimension to contemporary predicaments Crown Jewel Wilderness Lauren Danner, 2021-06-18 Remote rugged and spectacularly majestic with stunning alpine meadows and jagged peaks that soar beyond ten thousand feet North Cascades National Park is one of the Pacific Northwest's crown jewels Now in the first full length account Lauren Danner chronicles its creation just in time for the park's fiftieth anniversary in 2018 The North Cascades range benefited from geographic isolation that shielded its mountains from extensive resource extraction and development Efforts to establish a park began as early as 1892 but gained traction after World War II as economic affluence sparked national interest in wilderness preservation and growing concerns about the impact of harvesting timber to meet escalating postwar housing demands As the environmental movement matured a 1950s Glacier Peak study mobilized conservationists to seek establishment of a national park that prioritized wilderness Concerned about the National Park Service's policy favoring development for tourism and the United States Forest Service's policy promoting logging in the national forests conservationists leveraged a changing political environment and the evolving environmental values of the natural resource agencies to achieve the goal of permanent wilderness protection Their grassroots activism became increasingly sophisticated eventually leading to the compromise that resulted in the 1968 creation of Washington's magnificent third national park

The Laws and the Land Daniel Rück, 2021-09-15 As the settler state of Canada expanded into Indigenous lands settlers dispossessed Indigenous people and undermined their sovereignty as nations One site of invasion was Kahnawake a Kanienkehka community and part of the Rotinonhsini confederacy The Laws and the Land delineates the establishment of a settler colonial relationship from early contact ways of sharing land land practices under Kahnawake law the establishment of modern Kahnawake in the context of French imperial claims intensifying colonial invasions under British rule and ultimately the Canadian invasion in the guise of the Indian Act private property and coercive pressure to assimilate What Daniel Rück describes is an invasion spearheaded by bureaucrats Indian agents politicians surveyors and entrepreneurs This original meticulously researched book is deeply connected to larger issues of human relations with environments communal and individual ways of relating to land legal pluralism historical racism and inequality and Indigenous resurgence One Korea Tae-Hwan Kwak, Seung-Ho Joo, 2016-11-10 On the Korean peninsula there exist two sovereign states the Republic of Korea ROK or South Korea and the Democratic People's Republic of Korea DPRK or North Korea both of whom hold separate membership at the United Nations This book discusses the construction of one Korea and highlights the potential benefits of unification for the Koreans and the international community Arguing that Korean unification is intrinsically international in nature the authors outline how the process and outcome would impact upon the policies of the four major powers the U S China Russia and Japan In addition the authors highlight the possible far reaching repercussions of unification on the political and economic dynamics of Northeast Asia Making a case for the two Koreas and interested powers to plan and orchestrate their acts for sustained peace and gradual unification on the Korean peninsula this book examines the Korean question and the related issue of peace building in Northeast Asia from a global perspective It will be of interest to students and scholars researching politics and international relations

Capital's Terrorists Chad E. Pearson, 2022-10-05 Through the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries employers and powerful individuals deployed a variety of tactics to control ordinary people as they sought to secure power in and out of workplaces In the face of worker resistance employers and their allies collaborated to use a variety of extralegal repressive techniques including whippings kidnappings drive out campaigns incarcerations arsons hangings and shootings as well as less overtly illegal tactics such as shutting down meetings barring speakers from lecturing through blacklists and book burning This book draws together the groups engaged in this kind of violence reimagining the original Ku Klux Klan various Law and Order Leagues Stockgrowers organizations and Citizens Alliances as employers associations driven by unambiguous economic and managerial interests Though usually discussed separately all of these groups used similar language to tar their lower class challengers former slaves rustlers homesteaders of modest means populists political radicals and striking workers as menacing villains and deployed comparable tactics to suppress them And perhaps most notably spokespersons for these respective organizations justified their actions by insisting that they were committed to upholding law and order Ultimately this book suggests that the birth of law and order politics as we know it can be found in nineteenth century campaigns of organized terror against an assortment of ordinary people across racial lines conducted by Klansmen lawmen vigilantes and union busters

Laughing North Koreans Immanuel Kim, 2020-06-22 This study analyzes North Korean comedy films from the late 1960s to present day It examines the most iconic comedy films and comedians to show how North Koreans have enjoyed themselves and have established a culture of humor that challenges subverts and at times reinforces the dominant political ideology The author argues that comedy films popular comedians and the viewers have an intricate interdependent relationship that shaped the film culture the pre post production of filmmaking film watching experience and the legacies of actors in North Korea Oxford Textbook of Creative Arts, Health, and Wellbeing Stephen Clift, Paul Marc Camic, 2016 There is growing interest internationally in the contributions which the creative arts can make to wellbeing and health in both healthcare and community settings A timely addition to the field this book discusses the role the creative arts have in addressing some of the most pressing public health challenges faced today Providing an evidence base and recommendations for a wide audience this is an essential resource for anyone involved with this increasingly important component of public health practice Western Art, Western History Ron Tyler, 2019-03-07 For nearly half a century celebrated historian Ron Tyler has researched interpreted and exhibited western American art This splendid volume gleaned from Tyler's extensive career of connoisseurship brings together eight of the author's most notable essays reworked especially for this volume Beautifully illustrated with more than 150 images Western Art Western History tells the stories of key artists both famous and obscure whose provocative pictures document the people and places of the nineteenth century American West The artists depicted in these pages represent a variety of personalities and artistic styles According to Tyler each of them responded in unique ways to the compelling and exotic drama that unfolded in the West during the nineteenth century an age of exploration surveying pleasure travel and scientific discovery In eloquent and engaging prose Tyler unveils a fascinating cast of characters including the little known German Russian artist Louis Choris who served as a draftsman on the second Russian circumnavigation of the globe the exacting and precise Swiss artist Karl Bodmer who accompanied Prince Maximilian of Wied on his sojourn up the Missouri River and the young American Alfred Jacob Miller whose seemingly frivolous and romantic depictions of western mountain men and American Indians remained largely unknown until the mid twentieth century Other artists showcased in this volume are John James Audubon George Caleb Bingham Alfred E Mathews and finally Frederic Remington who famously sought to capture the last glimmers of the old frontier A common thread throughout Western Art Western History is the important role that technology especially the development of lithography played in the dissemination of images As the author emphasizes many works by western artists are valuable not only as illustrations but as scientific documents imbued with cultural meaning By placing works of western art within these broader contexts Tyler enhances our understanding of their history and significance

Plundering the North Kristin Burnett, Travis Hay, 2023-10-27 The manufacturing of a chronic food crisis Food insecurity in the North is one of Canada's most shameful public health and human rights crises In Plundering the North Kristin Burnett and Travis Hay examine the disturbing mechanics behind the origins of this crisis state and corporate intervention in northern Indigenous foodways Despite claims to the contrary by governments the Hudson's Bay Company HBC and the contemporary North West Company NWC the exorbitant cost of food in the North is neither a naturally occurring phenomenon nor the result of free market forces Rather inflated food prices are the direct result of government policies and corporate monopolies Using food as a lens to track the institutional presence of the Canadian state in the North Burnett and

Hay chart the social economic and political changes that have taken place in northern Ontario since the 1950s They explore the roles of state food policy and the HBC and NWC in setting up perpetuating and profiting from food insecurity while undermining Indigenous food sovereignties and self determination Plundering the North provides fresh insight into Canada s settler colonial project by re evaluating northern food policy and laying bare the governmental and corporate processes behind the chronic food insecurity experienced by northern Indigenous communities Transformation of Higher Education Through Institutional Online Spaces Taiwo, Rotimi, Idowu-Faith, Bimbola, Ajiboye, Simeon, 2023-07-11 The surge in the demand for higher education is closely connected with the liberalization and globalization of education Websites and social media have been chosen for promotional purposes for obvious reasons they are globally accessible For rapid communication of a significant amount of information virile institutional websites and social media spaces with promotional messages have become very important assets for higher institutions and their stakeholders Transformation of Higher Education Through Institutional Online Spaces presents multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary approaches to promotional discourses as presented on higher institution online spaces Covering topics such as brand building and marketing content marketing curriculum marketing digital marketing higher education digital marketing and higher education marketing campaigns this book is ideal for educational website managers educational institution managers public relations units researchers academicians practitioners instructors and students Bright Star in the Present Prospect Ian Dunn, 2015-10-19 An illustrated history of the University of Chester charting its progress from the foundation as Chester Diocesan Training College in 1839 to the achievement of university status in 2005 and subsequent consolidation as a leading higher education institution in the region Disenchanted Modernities Tobias Haller, Samuel Weissman, 2024 Mega Infrastructure Projects MIPs represent a central element of globalized development MIPs like the Chinese driven Belt and Road Initiative BRI include large scale agrarian road rail port and energy networks They are complex ventures involving international capital and multiple stakeholders Disenchanted Modernities presents 16 case studies showing that the promise of a sustainable modern development by MIPs leave many local users disenchanted They don t profit form the MIPs but lose access to their resources often held in common The book describes the strategies of states and companies as well as local responses to MIPs in Asia Africa Americas and Europe Storytelling in Participatory Arts with Young People Catherine Heinemeyer, 2020-06-30 This book draws on the author s experience as a storyteller drama practitioner and researcher to articulate an emerging dialogic approach to storytelling in participatory arts educational mental health youth theatre and youth work contexts It argues that oral storytelling offers a rich and much needed channel for intergenerational dialogue with young people The book keeps theory firmly tethered to practice Section 1 Storyknowing traces the history of oral storytelling practice with adolescents across diverse contexts and brings into clear focus the particular nature of the storytelling exchange and narrative knowledge Section 2 Telling Stories introduces readers to some of the key challenges and possibilities of dialogic storytelling by reflecting on stories from the author's own arts based practice research with adolescents illustrating these with young people's artistic responses to stories Finally section 3 Story Gaps conceptualises dialogic storytelling by exploring three different gaps the gap between storyteller and listener the gaps in the story and the gaps which storytellers can open up within institutions The book includes chapters taking a special focus on storytelling in schools and in mental health settings as well as guided reflections for readers to relate the issues raised to their own practice

The Rhinoceros of South Asia Kees Rookmaaker, 2024-04-30 The rhinoceros is an iconic animal Three species once inhabited South Asia two of which disappeared over a century ago This survey aims to reconstruct the historical distribution of these large mammals resulting in new maps showing the extent of their occurrences Thousands of sources varied in time and nature are used to study the interactions between man and rhinoceros The text is supported by over 700 illustrations and 38 maps showing the importance of the rhinoceros in the scientific and cultural fabric of Asia and beyond
