North West University Prospectus 2016:

Bright Star in the Present Prospect Ian Dunn, 2015-10-19 An illustrated history of the University of Chester charting its progress from the foundation as Chester Diocesan Training College in 1839 to the achievement of university status in 2005 and subsequent consolidation as a leading higher education institution in the region Self-Tracking Btihaj

Ajana, 2017-10-01 This book provides an empirical and philosophical investigation of self tracking practices In recent years there has been an explosion of apps and devices that enable the data capturing and monitoring of everyday activities behaviours and habits Encouraged by movements such as the Quantified Self a growing number of people are embracing this culture of quantification and tracking in the spirit of improving their health and wellbeing The aim of this book is to enhance understanding of this fast growing trend bringing together scholars who are working at the forefront of the critical study of self tracking practices Each chapter provides a different conceptual lens through which one can examine these practices while grounding the discussion in relevant empirical examples From phenomenology to discourse analysis from questions of identity privacy and agency to issues of surveillance and tracking at the workplace this edited collection takes on a wide and yet focused approach to the timely topic of self tracking It constitutes a useful companion for scholars students and everyday users interested in the Quantified Self phenomenon The Outlaw Ocean Ian Urbina, 2019-08-20 NATIONAL BESTSELLER

A riveting adrenaline fueled tour of a vast lawless and rampantly criminal world that few have ever seen the high seas There are few remaining frontiers on our planet But perhaps the wildest and least understood are the world's oceans too big to police and under no clear international authority these immense regions of treacherous water play host to rampant criminality and exploitation Traffickers and smugglers pirates and mercenaries wreck thieves and repo men vigilante conservationists and elusive poachers seabound abortion providers clandestine oil dumpers shackled slaves and cast adrift stowaways drawing on five years of perilous and intrepid reporting often hundreds of miles from shore Ian Urbina introduces us to the inhabitants of this hidden world Through their stories of astonishing courage and brutality survival and tragedy he uncovers a globe spanning network of crime and exploitation that emanates from the fishing oil and shipping industries and on which the world's economies rely Both a gripping adventure story and a stunning exposé this unique work of reportage brings fully into view for the first time the disturbing reality of a floating world that connects us all a place where anyone can do anything because no one is watching The Corporation as a Protagonist in Global History, c. 1550-1750

, 2018-12-10 William A Pettigrew and David Veevers put forward a new interpretation of the role Europe's overseas corporations played in early modern global history recasting them from vehicles of national expansion to significant forces of global integration Across the Mediterranean Atlantic Indian Ocean and Pacific corporations provided a truly global framework for facilitating the circulation movement and exchange between and amongst European and non European communities bringing them directly into dialogue often for the first time Usually understood as imperial or colonial commercial enterprises The Corporation as a Protagonist in Global History reveals the unique global sociology of overseas corporations to provide a new global history in which non Europeans emerged as key stakeholders in European overseas enterprises in the early modern world Contributors include Michael D Bennett Aske Laursen Brock Liam D Haydon Lisa Hellman Leonard Hodges Emily Mann Simon Mills Chris Nierstrasz Edgar Pereira Edmond Smith Haig Smith and Anna Winterbottom

The Oxford Guide to Australian Languages Claire Bown,2023-06-19 The Oxford Guide to Australian Languages is a wide ranging reference work that explores the more than 550 traditional and new Indigenous languages of Australia Australian languages have long played an important role in diachronic and synchronic linguistics and are a vital testing ground for linguistic theory Until now however there has been no comprehensive and accessible guide to the their vast linguistic diversity This volume fills that gap bringing together leading scholars and junior researchers to provide an up to date guide to all aspects of the languages of Australia The chapters in the book explore typology documentation and classification linguistic structures from phonology to pragmatics and discourse sociolinguistics and language variation and language in the community The final part offers grammatical sketches of a selection of languages sub groups and families At a time when the number of living Australian languages is significantly reduced even compared to twenty year ago this volume establishes priorities for future linguistic research and contributes to the language expansion and revitalization efforts that are underway

Letters Written from the Banks of the Ohio Claude-François de Lezay-Marnésia, 2016-12-13 First published in French in 1792 Letters Written from the Banks of the Ohio tells the fascinating story of French aristocrat Claude François de Lezay Marnésia and the utopia he attempted to create in what is now Ohio Looking to build a perfect society based on what France might have become without the Revolution Lezay Marnésia bought more than twenty thousand acres of land along the banks of the Ohio River from the Scioto Company which promised French aristocrats a fertile conflict free refuge But hostilities between the U S Army and the Native American tribes who still lived on the land prevented the marquis from taking possession Ruined and on the verge of madness Lezay Marnésia returned to France just as the Revolution was taking a more radical turn He barely escaped the guillotine before dying a few years later in poverty and desperation This edition of the Letters introduced and edited by Benjamin Hoffmann and superbly translated by Alan J Singerman presents the work for the first time since the beginning of the nineteenth century and the first time ever in English The volume features a rich collection of supplementary documents including texts by Lezay Marn sia s son Albert de Lezay Marn sia and the American novelist Hugh Henry Brackenridge This fresh perspective on the young United States as it was represented in French literature casts new light on a captivating and tumultuous period in the history of two nations

Missionary Interests David Golding, Christopher Cannon Jones, 2024-04-15 In Missionary Interests David Golding and Christopher Cannon Jones bring together works about Protestant and Mormon missionaries in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries charting new directions for the historical study of these zealous evangelists for their faith Despite their sectarian differences both groups of missionaries shared notions of dividing the world categorically along the lines of race status and relative exoticism and both employed humanitarian outreach with designs to proselytize American missionaries occupied liminal spaces between proselytizer and proselytized feminine and masculine colonizer and colonized Taken together the chapters in Missionary Interests dismantle easy characterizations of missions and conversion and offer an overlooked juxtaposition between Mormon and Protestant missionary efforts in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries

Transforming the livestock sector through the Sustainable Development Goals Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2018 For decades the livestock debate has focused on how to increase production in a sustainable manner However the UN 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development has shifted the emphasis from fostering sustainable production per se to enhancing the contribution of the sector to the achievement of the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs This publication examines the sector s interaction with each of these Goals as well as the potential synergies trade offs and complex interlinkages This global report is intended to serve as a reference framework that Member States and stakeholders can use as they engage in the transformation process of the livestock sector towards sustainability It calls for an integrated approach towards livestock sustainable development highlights the effective adaptation of the SDGs into specific and targeted national policy action as the major challenge ahead and flags the steps in the implementation road map
