Guillermo Cordero,Eva H. Önnudóttir,Xavier Coller,2022-12-02 Tax Evasion and the Law Sam Bourton,2024-06-18 This book provides a critical and contemporary evaluation of the laws and enforcement policies pertaining to tax evasion in the United Kingdom UK and United States US Since the inception of taxes revenue collection authorities around the world have attempted to address the seemingly perennial problem of individuals evading their tax liabilities The financial crisis has shone a new light on the issue with an increased interest in using the criminal justice system as a means of addressing it in the UK In sharp contrast to the UK the US has a strong record of prosecuting crimes of tax evasion whether committed by individuals or professional corporate facilitators Providing an evaluation of the UK s tax evasion laws and enforcement policy through a comparative approach this work highlights insights provided by the US experience In so doing the book explores the interconnections between tax evasion and money laundering identifying best practices omissions and areas for reform The work will be a valuable resource for researchers academics and policy makers working in the areas of financial crime financial law accountancy and criminal justice Teacher Expertise in the Global South Jason Anderson,2023-06 The first of its kind this book provides a detailed account of teacher expertise and quality in the global South

Protection of Civilians and Individual Accountability Lenneke Sprik,2019-08-13 This book explores the question of whether peacekeeping commanders can be held accountable for a failure to protect the civilian population in the mission area This requires an assessment of whether peacekeeping commanders have an obligation to act against such serious crimes being committed under domestic and international law The work uses the cases of the Dutch and Belgian peacekeeping commanders in Srebrenica and Kigali as examples but it also places the analysis into the context of contemporary peacekeeping operations It unfolds two main arguments First it provides a critical note to the contextual interpretation given to international law in relation to peacekeeping It is argued that establishing a specific paradigm for peacekeeping operations with clear rules of interpretation and benchmark criteria would benefit peacekeeping and international law by making the contextual interpretation of international law redundant Second it is held that alternative options to the existing forms of criminal responsibility for military commanders should be considered possibly focusing more clearly on failing to fulfil a norm of protection that is specific to peacekeeping and distinct from protective obligations under international human rights law and international humanitarian law
