PREFACE Notre Dame de Paris Also known as The Hunchback of Notre Dame by Victor Hugo A few years ago while visiting or rather rummaging about Notre Dame the author of this book found in an obscure nook of one of the towers the following word engraved by hand upon the wall ANArKH These Greek capitals black with age and quite deeply graven in the stone with I know not what signs peculiar to Gothic caligraphy imprinted upon their forms and upon their attitudes as though with the purpose of revealing that it had been a hand of the Middle Ages which had inscribed them there and especially the fatal and melancholy meaning contained in them struck the author deeply He questioned himself he sought to divine who could have been that soul in torment which had not been willing to quit this world without leaving this stigma of crime or unhappiness upon the brow of the ancient church Afterwards the wall was whitewashed or scraped down I know not which and the inscription disappeared For it is thus that people have been in the habit of proceeding with the marvellous churches of the Middle Ages for the last two hundred years Mutilations come to them from every quarter from within as well as from without The priest whitewashes them the archdeacon scrapes them down then the populace arrives and demolishes them Thus with the exception of the fragile memory which the author of this book here consecrates to it there remains to day nothing whatever of the mysterious word engraved within the gloomy tower of Notre Dame nothing of the destiny which it so sadly summed up The man who wrote that word upon the wall disappeared from the midst of the generations of man many centuries ago the word in its turn has been effaced from the wall of the church the church will perhaps itself soon disappear from the face of the earth It is upon this word that this book is founded March 1831 Littérature et cinéma Jean-Bernard Vray, 1999 Entre la littérature et le cinéma que Marguerite Duras dit b ti sur une d faite de l crit s ouvre un espace de jeu s entretissent des relations fructueuses explor es ici sur le mode de la fiction du t moignage ou du commentaire par des cr ateurs crivains cin astes ou des universitaires Notre-Dame de paris Victor Hugo, 1906 Grotesque and Performance in the Art of Aubrey Beardsley Evangelia Stead, 2024-10-11 If I am not grotesque I am nothing This insightful study illuminates previously unexplored aspects of Aubrey Beardsley s relationship to the grotesque and his use of media particularly his manipulation of the periodical press For the first time and with keen intelligence Evangelia Stead fully reveals the aesthetic importance of Beardsley s Bon Mots vignettes as well as the relationship between Darwinism his innovative foetus motif and Decadence itself Beautifully illustrated throughout the book calls on histories of culture and aesthetics to show how the artist reworked traditional imagery and manipulated it beyond recognition revealing for instance the influence of cathedral grotesques on Beardsley s own grotesque performances Stead also demonstrates his major impact on Italian French American and German creative minds through the periodical press Rich in original thought and detailed comparative analysis this book is an invigorating and enlightening read for scholars of Aubrey Beardsley as well as for anyone interested in nineteenth century visual culture art history art criticism print culture illustration grotesque iconography and cultural history Young Scholars' Developments in Philology Yulia Lobina, 2018-10-12 Culture as a way of bringing meaning into life is maintained through discourse In search of factors influencing discourse effectiveness this volume brings together young scholars from Russia France Pakistan Slovakia and Lebanon to focus on variation as an essential feature of meaning producing communication in its multiple aspects and settings The book is based on papers presented during online sessions on cross cultural discourse literary analysis and language education of the 7th International Young Researchers Conference Studying and Teaching Philology held in Ulyanovsk Russia in 2017 In Part I Irina Zhuchkova explores variation in academic discourse on discourse In the first two chapters of Part II Hibah Shabkhez discusses the interaction of various culture codes and transformations of a literary character travelling from one fictional world into another and in the next chapter Hibah Shabkhez Ibreez Shabkhez and Azka Mahboob analyse the divergence of stances taken on the same character by its creator and the readers In the final chapters of this section Ibreez Shabkhez and Maksim Duleba uncover mechanisms of expressing conflicting stances with the result of marginalising discourse participants including the stance taker himself Roksolana Povoroznyuk in Part III examines the interpreter's choices in mediating cross cultural literary discourse concentrating on paratranslational techniques and terminological variation both of which involve a lot of translatorial freedom and responsibility Finally Part IV by Christelle Frangieh Fenianos addresses the issue of the second language learner's freedom in choosing the ways of acquiring vocabulary which serves as a gate to the world of cross cultural communication This book will be of interest to researchers postgraduate students and advanced undergraduates working in the fields of philology discourse analysis literature and translation studies and language acquisition

Actology Malcolm Torry, 2020-07-08 Two streams run through the Western philosophical stream one characterized by Being beings the unchanging the static and the unitary and the other by Action actions the changing the dynamic and the diverse The former might be represented by Parmenides Plato and much of what followed the latter by Heraclitus and by rather less of what followed The book explores the Action stream as it wound its way through history through Heraclitus Plato Aristotle Hegel Maurice Blondel Henri Bergson Pierre Teilhard de Chardin process philosophy and theology Geoffrey Studdert Kennedy Ludwig Wittgenstein and John Boys Smith The journey enables us to create the beginnings of an actology a way of seeing ourselves the universe and God in terms of actions in patterns rather than as beings that change Such an actology offers a complete alternative narrative far more in tune with the diverse and rapidly changing world in which we live than the ontology that has shaped philosophy theology and much else for the past two thousand years Medieval que nationale MS Vma r s 571 Sacred Repertories in Paris under Louis XIII reveals that far from being a transitional period in which little music of any interest was produced the reign of Louis XIII witnessed a flowering of musical activity and the development of musical techniques normally associated with the reign of Louis XIV Based on an exhaustive and innovative manuscript study Sacred Repertories shows that Vma r s 571 a largely anonymous source of previously unknown provenance was copied in Paris by the composer Andr Pechon and that it preserves three previously unidentified repertories with connections to the court of Louis XIII The repertoire of the musique de la chambre until now considered a secular institution shows it to have been an equal partner of the chapelle in the provision of sacred music at court The repertoire of the royal parish church of Saint Germain l Auxerrois the only working liturgical repertory surviving from the century illustrates musical practices at this important collegiate church And the repertoire of the Royal Benedictine Abbey of Montmartre testifies to the richness of musical tradition in Parisian convents during a period when no other comparable music from France survives Sacred Repertories thus transforms our understanding of the musical landscape of seventeenth century France and provides a springboard fo
