Inter-Regional Place Branding Sebastian Zenker, Björn P. Jacobsen, 2015-04-01 This book examines and clarifies key aspects of regional branding with the special focus of inter regional brands Today regions are in strong competition for companies tourists and most of all talent In order to differentiate one region from another regional developers politicians and planners increasingly focus on establishing the region as a brand This is by no means easy since places are complex systems of geographical abstractions in which each place is understood in relation and contrast to other geographical entities In doing so regions not only differentiate but also cooperate within one country or between countries building so called Inter Regional Brands with an even higher degree of complexity Accordingly this volume provides a theoretically well informed but practically oriented overview of this phenomenon including numerous cases and best practices As such it will strongly appeal to both academics and practitioners in the field

Mozambique's foreign policy towards South Africa Paulo Mateus Wache, 2022-01-01 This Book discusses the Mozambique s foreign policy framework in general and towards South Africa in particular searching to understand why it has been characterized by the hostility friendship dichotomy The Book argues that asymmetry alone cannot explain the occurrence of the dichotomy as suggested by Womack s asymmetry theory In the case of Mozambique s foreign policy the dichotomy is caused by combination of factors namely power asymmetry ideological differences leadership perceptions economic disagreements and economic ties However it is highlighted that power asymmetry is the main factor of the dichotomy This complexity and amalgamations of causes of the dichotomy makes it a permanent and distinctive feature of Mozambique s foreign policy towards South Africa Thus the major contribution of this book is twofold First it presents a detailed and comprehensive analysis of Mozambique s foreign affairs as they have interacted with South Africa Second by applying asymmetry theory to Mozambique the study makes a significant theoretical contribution to understanding the agency of the smaller side in bilateral asymmetric relationships

Tourism, Land Grabs and Displacement Andreas Neef,2021-05-09 This book examines the global scope of tourism related grabbing of land and other natural resources Tourism is often presented as a peaceful and benevolent sector that brings people from different cultural backgrounds together and contributes to employment poverty alleviation and global sustainable development This book sheds light on the lesser known and much darker side of tourism as it unfolds in the Global South While there is no doubt that tourism has been an engine of economic growth for many so called developing countries this has often come at the cost of widespread dispossession and displacement of Indigenous and non indigenous communities In many countries of the Global South tourism development is increasingly prioritised by governments businesses international financial institutions and donors over the legitimate land and resource rights of local people This book examines the actors drivers mechanisms discourses and impacts of tourism related land grabbing and displacement drawing on more than thirty case studies from Latin America and the Caribbean sub Saharan Africa South and Southeast Asia the Middle East and the Southwest Pacific

The book provides solid grounds for an informed debate on how different actors are responsible for the adverse impacts of tourism on land rights infringements what forms of resistance have been deployed against tourism related land grabs and displacement and how those who have violated local land and resource rights can be held accountable Tourism Land Grabs and Displacement will be essential reading for students and scholars of land and resource grabbing tourism studies development studies and sustainable development more broadly as well as policymakers and practitioners working in those fields relationships forged through involvement within these marine transboundary conservation initiatives The Report: Ghana

2014 Oxford Business Group, 2014-12-18 The economy has a history of strong government involvement and a legacy of socialist policies in the 1960s and 1970s with state companies involved in both energy and agriculture yet the country's market is now among the more liberalised in the region Ghana has a strong export profile although it is somewhat dependent on commodities It is the world's second largest exporter of cocoa behind Cote d'Ivoire and one of the continent's largest gold producers while new reserves of oil and gas have helped further expand its resource wealth The economy saw expansion of 7.1% in 2013 while inflation reached 14.5% in March 2014 Although inflation and balance of payments remain the country's biggest economic challenges measures have been taken to strengthen the cedi and curb inflation The U.S. Foreign Language Deficit Kathleen Stein-Smith, 2016-08-24 This volume explores why Americans are among the least likely in the world to speak another language and how this U.S. foreign language deficit negatively impacts national and economic security business and career prospects Stein Smith exposes how individuals are disadvantaged through their inability to effectively navigate the global workplace and multicultural communities how their career options are limited by the foreign language deficit and even how their ability to enjoy travel abroad and cultural pursuits is diminished Through exploring the impact of the U.S. foreign language deficit the author speaks to the stakeholders and partners in the campaign for foreign languages offering guidance on what can and should be done to address it She examines the next steps needed to develop specific career pathways that will meet the current and future needs of government business and industry and empower foreign language learners through curriculum and career preparation Governance of Risk, Hazards and Disasters Giuseppe Forino, Sara Bonati, Lina Maria Calandra, 2018-01-29 Growing debates around governance are taking place among academic policy making and practice based communities In light of the increasing focus on governance this book presents and discusses governance as a framework that is able to both conceptualize and contextualize risks and disasters as currently experienced and managed into social systems Contributions offer a variety of perspectives experiences and socio cultural contexts which have identified the challenges opportunities and critiques of promoting governance Part I explores approaches models and keywords as applied to risk and disaster governance theory Part II investigates practices of risk governance and associated issues by focusing on disaster risk reduction policy and practice Finally Part III explores practices of disaster governance and associated issues by focusing on disaster recovery experiences This book highlights cutting edge recent theoretical and empirical trends and is a valuable resource for students academics practitioners and policy makers interested in risk and disaster governance Development of Tourism and Travel Industry Robin Watts & Zishan Parks, 2018-10-11 Nowadays senior government officials visit other countries to promote tourism in their country Because of the fact that the western capitalist world has huge amounts of capital at their disposal they are able to invest more money in the tourism industry for tourism development and as such they get huge dividends from tourism This work is an attempt in the collection of firsthand information from various areas of tourism industry draw from wide range of sources A travel agency is a private retailer or public service that provides travel and tourism related services to the public on behalf of suppliers such as activities airlines car rentals cruise lines hotels railways travel insurance and package tours In addition to dealing with ordinary tourists most travel agencies have a separate department devoted to making travel arrangements for business travelers and some travel agencies specialize in commercial and business travel only There are also travel agencies that serve as general sales agents for foreign travel companies allowing them to have offices in countries other than where their headquarters are located Travel and tourism industry has now become the largest civilian industry in the world according to statistics one out of every ten person worldwide is part of the Travel and tourism industry Travel and tourism is one of the largest and fastest growing global service industries The travel and tourism industry along with the related sectors contributing to it is expected to grow in leaps and bounds in the coming years The book is a unique research account on tourism strategies and marketing It is an excellent asset for the students scholars and expert of tourism marketing

Challenges of European External Energy Governance with Emerging Powers Michèle Knodt, Nadine

Piefer, 2016-03-03 In a multipolar world with growing demand for energy not least by Emerging Powers such as Brazil India China or South Africa BICS questions of EU external energy governance would at first hand appear to be a high priority Yet reality tells a different story the EU's geographical focus remains on adjacent countries in the European neighbourhood and on issues related to energy security Despite being Strategic Partners and engaging in energy dialogues it seems that the EU is lacking strategic vision and is not perceived as a major actor in energy cooperation with the BICS Thus political momentum for energy cooperation and joint governance of scarce resources is vanishing Resulting from three years of international interdisciplinary research cooperation among academics and practitioners in Europe and the BICS countries within a project funded by the Volkswagen Foundation this volume addresses one of the greatest global challenges Specific focus lies on the bilateral energy dialogues and Strategic Partnerships between the EU and Emerging Powers regarding bilateral inter and transnational energy cooperation Furthermore the analysis provides policy recommendations in order to tap the full potential of energy cooperation between the EU and Brazil India China and South Africa
