Space and Geospatial Technologies for the Africa We Want Jossam Potel, Kamal Labbassi, Solomon

Tesfamichael, Harold Annegarn, Jide Kufoniyi, Souleye Wade, 2024-10-25 This book comprises the contributions of the African Association of Remote Sensing of the Environment AARSE international conference which is conducted biennially across Africa alternately with the AfricaGIS conference. It is the premier forum in Africa for research on remote sensing technologies and geospatial information science, gathering leading scholars from the remote sensing and related communities. The 13th AARSE International Conference was held on October 24-28, 2022 in Kigali, Rwanda, to focus on Earth observations and geospatial science to achieve the Sustainable Development Goals. The five-day event, themed 'Space and Geospatial Technologies for the Africa We Want', was organized by the African Association of Remote Sensing of the Environment (AARSE) and the Institut d'Enseignement Supérieur de Ruhengeri (INES) in partnership with the Rwanda Space Agency and Space in Africa. Furthermore, the conference was sponsored by GMES and Africa, the Regional Centre for Mapping of Resources for Development (RCMRD), Airbus, European Space Agency (ESA), Digital Earth Africa, and INES Ruhengeri and the Rwanda Space Agency. The 13th Conference continues a long series of successful AARSE conferences which started in 1996 in Harare, Zimbabwe, and has been held in Abidjan, Côte d'Ivoire, in 1998; Cape Town, South Africa, in 2000; Abuja, Nigeria, in 2002; Nairobi, Kenya, in 2004; Cairo, Egypt, in 2006; Accra, Ghana, in 2008; Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, in 2010; El Jadida, Morocco, in 2012; Johannesburg, South Africa, in 2014; Kampala, Uganda, in 2016; and in Alexandria, Egypt, in 2018. The book is mainly addressed to practitioners and experts from academia, politics, and industry.

The Triumph of Improvisation James Wilson, 2014-01-21 In The Triumph of Improvisation, James Graham Wilson takes a long view of the end of the Cold War from the Soviet invasion of Afghanistan in December 1979 to Operation Desert Storm in January 1991. Drawing on deep archival research and recently declassified papers, Wilson argues that adaptation, improvisation, and engagement by individuals in positions of power ended the specter of a nuclear holocaust. Amid ambivalence and uncertainty, Mikhail Gorbachev, Ronald Reagan, George Shultz, George H. W. Bush, and a host of other actors engaged with adversaries and adapted to a rapidly changing international environment and information age in which global capitalism recovered as command economies failed. Eschewing the notion of a coherent grand strategy to end the Cold War, Wilson paints a vivid portrait of how leaders made choices, some made poor choices while others reacted prudently, imaginatively, and courageously to events they did not foresee. A book about the burdens of responsibility, the obstacles of domestic politics, and the human qualities of leadership, The Triumph of Improvisation concludes with a chapter describing how George H. W. Bush oversaw the construction of a new configuration of power after the fall of the Berlin Wall, one that resolved the fundamental components of the Cold War on Washington's terms.

Globalization, Development, and Social Justice Ann El Khoury, 2015-03-27 Are there existing alternatives to corporate globalization? What are the prospects for, and commonalities between, communities and movements?

such as Occupy the World Social Forum and alternative economies Globalization Development and Social Justice advances the proposition that another globalization is not only possible but already exists It demonstrates that there are multiple pathways towards development with social justice and argues that enabling propositional agency rather than oppositional agency such as resistance is a more effective alternative to neoliberal globalization El Khoury develops a theory of infraglobalization that emphasizes creative constitution not just contestation of global and local processes The book features case studies and examples of diverse economic practice and innovative emergent political forms from the Global South and North These case studies are located in the informal social economy and community development as well as everyday practices from prefigurative politics to community cooperatives and participatory planning This book makes an important contribution to debates about the prospects for and practices of a transformative grassroots globalization and to critical debates about globalization and development strategies It will be of interest to students and scholars of international relations globalization social movement studies political and economic geography sociology anthropology and development studies

The Contest for the Indian Ocean Darshana M Baruah, 2024-08-27 A major new examination of the Indian Ocean revealing how the region has become a hotly contested geopolitical flashpoint Throughout history the Indian Ocean has been an essential space for trade commerce and culture Every European power has sought to dominate it Now after a lull in the postwar period control of major shipping routes has once again become a critical aspect of every rising state s ambition to be a global power Darshana M Baruah shows how governments from Washington DC to Nairobi and Canberra are expanding their interests in the region The Indian Ocean is resource rich strategically placed and home to over two billion people Island nations have become more important than ever with Madagascar forming ties with Russia and the Comoros with Saudi Arabia It is also through the region that China engages with Africa and the Middle East This is a compelling account of the geopolitical significance of the Indian Ocean showing how the region has taken centre stage in a new global contest

Rebalancing U.S. Forces Andrew Sven Erickson, Carnes Lord, 2014-05-15 As the U S military presence in the Middle East winds down Asia and the Pacific are receiving increased attention from the American national security community The Obama administration has announced a rebalancing of the U S military posture in the region in reaction primarily to the startling improvement in Chinese air and naval capabilities over the last decade or so This timely study sets out to assess the implications of this shift for the long established U S military presence in Asia and the Pacific This presence is anchored in a complex basing infrastructure that scholars and Americans generally too often take for granted In remedying this state of affairs this volume offers a detailed survey and analysis of this infrastructure its history the political complications it has frequently given rise to and its recent and likely future evolution American seapower requires a robust constellation of bases to support global power projection Given the rise of China and the emergence of the Asia Pacific as the center of global economic growth and strategic contention nowhere is American basing access more important than in this region Yet manifold political and military challenges stemming not least of which from rapidly improving Chinese long range precision strike capabilities complicate the future of American access and security here This book addresses what will be needed to maintain the fundamentals of U S seapower and force projection in the Asia Pacific and where the key trend lines are headed in that regard This book demonstrates that U S Asia Pacific basing and access is increasingly vital yet increasingly vulnerable It demands far more attention than the limited coverage it has received to date and cannot be taken for granted More must be done to preserve capabilities and access upon which American and allied security and prosperity depend

Living with Floods in a Mobile Southeast Asia Carl Middleton, Rebecca Elmhirst, Supang Chantavanich, 2017-11-02 This book contributes to a better understanding of the relationship between migration vulnerability resilience and social justice associated with flooding across diverse environmental social and policy contexts in Southeast Asia It challenges simple analyses of flooding as a singular driver of migration and instead considers the ways in which floods figure in migration based livelihoods and amongst already mobile populations The book develops a conceptual framework based on a mobile political ecology in which particular attention is paid to the multidimensionality temporalities and geographies of vulnerability Rather than simply emphasising the capacities or lack thereof of individuals and households the focus is on identifying factors that instigate manage and perpetuate vulnerable populations and places these include the sociopolitical dynamics of floods flood hazards and risky environments migration and migrant based livelihoods and the policy environments through which all of these take shape The book is organised around a series of eight empirical urban and rural case studies from countries in Southeast Asia where lives are marked by mobility and by floods associated with the region s monsoonal climate The concluding chapter synthesises the insights of the case studies and suggests future policy directions Together the chapters highlight critical policy questions around the governance of migration institutionalised disaster response strategies and broader development agendas

Black Gold and Blackmail Rosemary A. Kelanic, 2020-05-15 Black Gold and Blackmail seeks to explain why great powers adopt such different strategies to protect their oil access from politically motivated disruptions In extreme cases such as Imperial Japan in 1941 great powers fought wars to grab oil territory in anticipation of a potential embargo by the Allies in other instances such as Germany in the early Nazi period states chose relatively subdued measures like oil alliances or domestic policies to conserve oil What accounts for this variation Fundamentally it is puzzling that great powers fear oil coercion at all because the global market makes oil sanctions very difficult to enforce Rosemary A Kelanic argues that two variables determine what strategy a great power will adopt the petroleum deficit which measures how much oil the state produces domestically compared to what it needs for its strategic objectives and disruptibility which estimates the susceptibility of a state s oil imports to military interdiction that is blockade Because global markets undercut the effectiveness of oil sanctions blockade is in practice the only true threat to great power oil access That combined with the devastating consequences of oil deprivation to a state s military power explains why states fear oil coercion deeply despite the adaptive functions of the market Together these two variables predict a state s coercive vulnerability which determines how willing the state will be to accept the costs and risks attendant on various potential strategies Only those great powers with large deficits and highly disruptible imports will adopt the most extreme strategy direct control of oil through territorial conquest

Disasters Without Borders John Hannigan, 2013-04-17 Dramatic scenes of devastation and suffering caused by disasters such as the 2011 Japanese earthquake and tsunami are viewed with shock and horror by millions of us across the world What we rarely see however are the international politics of disaster aid mitigation and prevention that condition the collective response to natural catastrophes around the world In this book respected Canadian environmental sociologist John Hannigan argues that the global community of nations has failed time and again in establishing an effective and binding multilateral mechanism for coping with disasters especially in the more vulnerable countries of the South Written in an accessible and even handed manner Disasters without Borders it is the first comprehensive account of the key milestones debates controversies and research relating to the international politics of natural disasters Tracing the historical evolution of this policy field from its humanitarian origins in WWI right up to current efforts to cast climate change as the prime global driver of disaster risk it highlights the ongoing mismatch between the way disaster has been conceptualised and the institutional architecture in place to manage it The book s bold conclusion predicts the confluence of four emerging trends politicisation militarisation catastrophic scenario building privatisation of risk and quantification which could create a new system of disaster management wherein insurance logic will replace humanitarian concern as the guiding principle Disasters Without Borders is an ideal introductory text for students lecturers and practitioners in the fields of international development studies disaster management politics and international affairs and environmental geography sociology

Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have charmed audiences this year. November 2013 Geography Nsc Paper 1 : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. November 2013 Geography Nsc Paper 1 : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. November 2013 Geography Nsc Paper 1 : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Pappen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and gripping novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.

web 2 matlab code ar model lms algorithm 2020 12 01 spectral audio signal processing is the fourth book in the music signal processing series by julius o smith one can say that human hearing occurs in terms of spectral models as a result spectral models are especially useful in audio applications for example with the right spectral model one detailed analysis and implementation of lms algorithm using matlab - Jun 04 2023 web this lms algorithm can be described in procedure as follows stepwise first consider the random sequence of inputs x_n which will be given to an fir filter whose output is y_n let us say that d_n is the reference target signal and there always exists a difference between y_n and d_n which is taken as an error e_n eeg learning the coefficients of auto regressive ar model - Apr 02 2023 web jul 8 2019 in order to use the lms to learn an ar model one should use the predictor variant of the least mean squares lms filter basically we predict the $x(n)$ sample using past samples $x(n-i)$ where k is the lms filter order linear prediction and autoregressive modeling matlab - Sep 26 2022

we find ar model from signal using the yule walker method solving the yule walker equations we can determine the parameters for an all pole filter that when excited with white noise will produce an ar signal whose statistics match those of the given signal x once again this is called autoregressive modeling matlab code ar model lms algorithm 2023 - Apr 21 2022 web matlab code ar model lms algorithm advanced forecasting with python jan 26 2021 cover all the machine learning techniques relevant for forecasting problems ranging from univariate and multivariate time series to supervised learning to state of the art deep forecasting models such as lstms recurrent neural networks facebook's open source
