Not As The World Gives The Way Of Creative Justice:

Not As the World Gives Stratford Caldecott, 2014-05-07 This is the time for a new politics a new economics Not As the World Gives drawing on the Church's two millennia of reflection on the Gospel especially in the encyclicals from Rerum Novarum to Centesimus Annus shows us the nature of society by showing us ourselves We are beings created to give and receive called to walk towards the true freedom that Christ taught us in the Beatitudes as Pope Francis expressed it There is no peace without justice but neither can there be justice without love Far from being an impractical dream Catholic social doctrine can transform the way we work the way we govern and the way we treat the natural world What emerges from this sequel to the author's The Radiance of Being is a vision of integration and wholeness a society both divine and human and a humanism open to the absolute The Trinitarian Theology of Hans Urs von Balthasar Brendan McInerny, 2020-04-30

Although scholarship has long recognized the centrality of the Trinity in the theology of Hans Urs von Balthasar no sustained treatment of this theme has been published until now In this insightful new book The Trinitarian Theology of Hans Urs von Balthasar Brendan McInerny fills this gap situating Balthasar's trinitarian theology in conversation with both the wider Christian theological tradition and his non-Christian intellectual contemporaries Drawing from across Balthasar's extensive body of works McInerny argues that Balthasar's vivid description of the immanent Trinity provides a way to speak of how God is love in himself beyond his relationship to creatures He then shows how Balthasar's speculation into the immanent Trinity serves as the substructure of his theology of deification For Balthasar what we say about the inner life of God matters because we are called to share in that very life through Christ and the Holy Spirit to the glory of God the Father Finally responding to the criticisms that Balthasar's speculations into the inner life of God are without warrant McInerny argues that Balthasar's bold trinitarian claims are actually a vehicle for apophatic theology Balthasar's vivid description of the triune God does not transgress the boundaries of theological discourse Rather it manifests God's ever greater incomprehensibility through verbal excess oxymoron and paradox Engaging the Doctrine of Creation Matthew Levering, 2017-07-18

Distinguished scholar Matthew Levering examines the doctrine of creation and its contemporary theological implications critically engaging with classical and modern views in dialogue with Orthodox and Reformed interlocutors among others Moving from the Trinity to Christology Levering takes up a number of themes pertaining to the doctrine of creation and focuses on how creation impacts our understandings of both the immanent and the economic Trinity He also engages newer trends such as ecological theology Cosmic Chastity in an Age of Technocratic Lust: A Song of Three Popes

Jeremiah Barker, 2023-04-12 This book arises from the conviction that the ways in which John Paul II and Benedict XVI were confused as allies with American conservatism is as misleading unclear and confusing as any misapprehension of Francis's genuine orthodoxy As the author does not have a stake in reacting against a liberal Catholicism that he sees dying out anyway the bigger threat in his view sociologically for the North American church is falling into a right wing tribalism and

Francis resists precisely that First Things editor R R Reno highly critical of Francis has called for a redemption of hints and suggestions of a cogent argument in the Francis message Jeremiah Barker reappropriates Reno's call as a call to draw out or highlight what he takes to be the underlying rationale of the Francis message That underlying rationale he compellingly argues is strikingly identical to that of the two previous popes Barker who has learned much from Reno is in fact inspired by Francis's call and teaching and it is the aim of this book to draw out what inspires him and to identify what he hopes Reno and fellow John Paul II Catholics don't miss in the Francis message the theological ethical and spiritual core of his social teaching which Francis shares with that of John Paul II and Benedict XVI Cosmic Chastity in an Age of Technocratic Lust Jeremiah Barker, 2024-10-31 John Paul II and Benedict XVI Jeremiah Barker argues share the theological ethical and spiritual core of Pope Francis social teaching Reappropriating R R Reno's redemption of Francis cogent argument Barker draws out the underlying rationale of Francis message which he argues is identical to the two previous popes Inspired by Francis call and teaching Barker's compelling argument is an opportunity to reconsider the legacies of John Paul II and Benedict XVI in the light of contemporary Catholic debates and challenges A unique and refreshing analysis Barker's argument is relevant for any Catholic seeking to make sense of these popes messages On Earth as It Is in Heaven David Vincent Meconi S.J., 2016 With the recent publication of Pope Francis's encyclical Laudato Si many people of faith have found themselves challenged to seek new ways of responding to serious ecological questions essential to the flourishing of all creatures On Earth as It Is in Heaven brings together fifteen top scholars to consider pressing contemporary environmental concerns through the lens of Catholic theology Drawing from ancient Christian sources the contributors delve into such diverse topics as equitable food distribution responsible procreation land stewardship evolutionary theodicy and poverty and providence A concluding essay addresses the liturgy as the space in which all creation is consecrated before the cross of Christ Allowing the earliest Church Fathers and voices from the Christian tradition to speak to our unique circumstances today this engaging volume shows that ancient creedal Christianity contains important insights into caring for God's creation Creative Justice Mark Banks, 2017-01-30 Creative Justice examines issues of inequality and injustice in the cultural industries and cultural workplace It first aims to do justice to the kinds of objects and texts produced by artists musicians designers and other kinds of symbol makers by appreciating them as meaningful goods with objective qualities It also shows how cultural work itself has objective quality as a rewarding and socially engaging practice and not just a means to an economic end But this book is also about injustice made evident in the workings of arts education and cultural policy and through the inequities and degradations of cultural work In worlds where low pay and wage inequality are endemic and where access to the best cultural academies jobs and positions is becoming more strongly determined by social background what chance do ordinary people have of obtaining their own creative justice Aimed at students and scholars across a range of disciplines including Sociology Media and Communication Cultural Studies Critical Management Studies and Human Geography Creative Justice examines the evidence for and proposes some solutions to the problem of obtaining fairer and more equalitarian systems of arts and cultural work The Analogy of Love Gary Chartier, 2015-11-09 This book offers an overview of Christian theology organized around the twin themes of divine and human love The book covers the traditional theological topics as well as basic questions of theological method It seeks to integrate a focus on love throughout While love is regularly canvassed as a dominant theme in Christian thought it has rarely been the focus of Christian theological construction or a constraint on theological formulation The book seeks to suggest chapter by chapter how a given topic relates to the broad theme of love The book is written in a way designed to make it accessible to university students and educated laypersons At the same time it takes positions on controverted scholarly issues and the methodological approach outlined at the beginning will be of interest to academic theologians Awake to the Moment Laurel C. Schneider, Stephen G. Jr. Ray, 2004-12-01 Most introductory textbooks in theology see their primary task as explaining Christian doctrines that no one quite understands anymore While this is one of theology's jobs it is by no means the only nor even the most important one Theology has also been called to change the world to help people connect deeply rooted beliefs about the world's source and goal to questions of personal meaning and communal thriving Theology is here to help us make sense of the complex flawed world into which we've been thrust and to assist us in our attempt to love our neighbors and live toward the common good For more than forty years the Workgroup on Constructive Theology has brought the liberal and liberationist theological traditions into creative encounter with lived human experience In this introduction to the methods and tasks of theology they invite a new generation of readers many who will have little or no exposure to Christian doctrine to see theology as a partner in the struggle for a better world They demonstrate how theological ideas have legs playing themselves out not only in religious communities but in the public square as well Theology the authors tell us is constructive when it joins in God's work of building human lives and human societies Readers will learn to think about all of life in light of their religious commitments and to see theology as an essential tool for a life well lived Achieving Creative Justice in the U.S. Creative Sector antonio c.

cuyler, 2025-05-02 Caste and the discrimination exclusion marginalization othering oppression subalterning and subjugation that it produces continue to challenge creative industries compromising culture's verisimilitude as a public good Achieving Creative Justice in the U S Creative Sector explores the relationships between access diversity equity and inclusion ADEI and creative justice in the U S creative sector as a solution to meaningfully address enduring creative injustices Whether it's the BlackLivesMatter LandBack or MeToo movements caste remains structurally and systemically built into U S Society and thereby the creative sector Acknowledging this realization after George Floyd's murder in 2020 has galvanized a quest for solutions This book encourages sincere consideration for the human toll of insisting on artistic excellence and artistic merit at the expense of profound and unnecessary identity based human suffering Providing a practical guide on how to activate ADEI to achieve creative justice and a research agenda this book is an essential reading for practitioners and scholars who feel compelled to address creative injustices that constrain the creative flourishing of historically and continuously low casted peoples throughout the entire cultural ecosystem that defines the U S creative sector The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license

Race, Culture and Media Anamik Saha, 2025-05-14 Race Culture and Media is a critical impassioned and accessible exploration of this complex relationship This new edition moves past conventional discourse on diversity challenging you to confront the real issues of power and participation Anamik Saha's approachable writing starts from the ground up leading you through nuanced topics such as how capitalism and legacies of colonialism shape media content today and the value and limitations of key concepts like stereotype representation and racialisation You will be empowered to Understand the multifaceted theories and experiences of race and its intersections with gender sexuality and class Analyse key topics from how algorithms AI produce racism in digital media to the politics of superdiversity in popular culture to ongoing anti migrant and anti Muslim racism in news media Engage with brand new case studies which cover the latest developments on how race is made in media including YouTube and social media This book will challenge your preconceptions and ignite your critical thinking making it essential reading for students and researchers across media communication and cultural studies

You Shall Not Condemn Jennifer M. McBride, 2022-06-13 This book tells the story of Kelly Gissendanner the only woman on Georgia's death row until her execution in 2015 and highlights the role theological studies played in her faith and in advocacy efforts on her behalf Central to the book is the written correspondence between Kelly and German theologian Jurgen Moltmann known internationally as the theologian of hope After reading Moltmann's work in a course taught by McBride at the prison Kelly began a five year correspondence with him When Kelly was denied clemency a local and international advocacy movement arose that was rooted in her theological studies and friendship with him The advocacy campaign challenged Christians who supported the death penalty to re-examine basic truths of Christian faith As it was unfolding the story of Kelly's transformation changed people's minds not only about her case but also about the death penalty itself Weaving together powerful storytelling and theological expertise McBride recounts that story again here with an aim toward abolition and offers practical ways that readers may enter the work

The Political Theology of Paul Tillich Rachel Sophia Baard, 2024-01-16 The Political Theology of Paul Tillich explores the political theology of one of the foremost thinkers of the 20th century Paul Tillich whose life and scholarship were decisively shaped by his experiences during World War I his resistance to the rising scourge of Nazism in Germany and his subsequent immigration to the United States Tillich's discerning analysis of fascism grounded in his socialist commitments and his continuing efforts to write theology in correlation with culture make his voice a crucial one for contemporary political theology The contributors to this volume represent different generations social and cultural locations and nationalities Together they explore Tillich's early work on religious socialism and its lingering presence in his later systematic theology bring him into dialogue with liberation theologies apply his thought to contemporary political concerns and show the significance of his method of correlation for theological scholarship that engages culture thereby presenting a case for the continued relevance of Tillich for political theology

A Trinitarian Theology of Law David H. McIlroy, 2009-07-01 This book explores the neglected significance of the doctrine of the Trinity for the understanding of human law Through interaction with the thought of Jurgen Moltmann Oliver O Donovan and Thomas Aquinas it argues that human law is called to play a positive but limited role in maintaining shallow justice and relative peace Human law is overshadowed by the work of the Son included in the purposes of the Father and used as an instrument by the Holy Spirit However the Spirit works in those who are in Christ to effect deep justice a work of sanctification which culminates in glorification the experience of perfect free willing obedience in heaven Thinking about law in the light of the Trinity enables us to understand its role its purposes and its limits

God-Walk Frederick Herzog, 2008-07-01 Challenging and disturbing and ultimately healing Robert McAfee Brown author of Liberation Theology An Introductory Guide Frederick Herzog was Professor at the Duke University Divinity School He served on numerous commissions of the World Council of Churches and the United Church of Christ In the spring of 1970 he wrote the first North American article on liberation theology and in 1972 his Liberation Theology was published a study of the Fourth Gospel described by Robert McAfee Brown as a pioneer North American work In Justice Church Herzog continues his pioneering work with a North American methodology of liberation theology

Indwelling the Forsaken Other J. Matthew Bonzo, 2009-02-01 Indwelling the Forsaken Other is a critical reading of Jurgen Moltmann's ethics of discipleship While Moltmann's notable turn to the inner life of the Trinity as a source for his reflections on the life of the church is influential it is not without problems The call emerging from Moltmann's reflection upon Trinitarian life to copy God in our relationships may offer some general direction for our actions however it also raises several questions Two important questions for this work are In what way are we to copy God and What conditions make it possible to copy God Moltmann's answers to these questions are insufficient and consequently he fails to protect the difference between Creator and creation in his analogia relationis As a result the ethical direction of Moltmann's work seems to be increasingly muddled and at best paradoxical

Labor and Global Justice Mary C. Rawlinson, Wim Vandekerckhove, Ronald M. S. Commers, Tim R. Johnston, 2014-10-30 Labor and Global Justice Essays on the Ethics of Labor Practices under Globalization combines conceptual and theoretical perspectives across a multiplicity of relevant differences both geographical and disciplinary to develop a transnational perspective on labor and justice Through its multidisciplinary transnational approach and its engagement with public policy the contributors advance urgent contemporary debates around work and clearly demonstrate the necessity of articulating the rights of labor to any global ethics or to any concept of global justice Together the chapters make evident why justice requires both theoretically and practically a rethinking and rearticulation of the relation between labor and capital Framing the theoretical and practical question of justice in a new way the editors have gathered addresses scholars across multiple disciplines including philosophy international relations and the social sciences As the volume emphasizes the connection between the concept of justice and real public policy it also appeals to human rights workers and labor organizers as well as those who make the public policies that establish the relation between labor and capital just or unjust and that determine the well being of workers for good or ill The New Big Book of Christian Mysticism Carl McColman,2023 From beloved spiritual teacher Carl McColman comes a book about big possibility the hope of achieving authentic blissful experiential union with God He reveals the various ways Christian mysticism and contemplation have been in dynamic practice through the centuries proving inspirational for today s seekers regardless of faith tradition Advocate of Peace Through Justice ,1920 Christian Ethics, Second Edition J. Philip Wogaman,2010-12-24 This updated survey of Christian ethics addresses major thinkers movements and issues from the early church to the present A broad range of topics is discussed including the biblical and philosophical legacies of Christian ethics and ethics through the early medieval Reformation Enlightenment and modern eras This new edition contains more extensive discussions of ethics in the twentieth century including Vatican II ecumenical social ethics and Orthodox Christian ethics A new section Toward the Third Millennium looks at the issues we will face in the coming decades including medical scientific and political dilemmas and issues of terrorism war and peace
