32 Counties Kieran Allen, 2021-04-20 This is Irish history seen anew from below bristling with practical lessons for working class struggle today Eamonn McCann The 32 counties of Ireland were divided through imperial terror and gerrymandering Partition was borne from a Tory strategy to defend the British Empire and has spawned a carnival of reaction in Irish politics ever since Over the last 100 years conservative forces have dominated both states offering religious identity as a diversion from economic failures and inequality Through a sharp analysis of the history of partition Kieran Allen rejects the view that the two cultures of Catholic and Protestant communities lock people into permanent antagonism Instead the sectarian states have kept its citizens divided through political and economic measures like austerity competition for reduced services and low wages Overturning conventional narratives 32 Counties evokes the tradition of James Connolly and calls for an Irish unity movement from below to unite the North and the Republic into a secular socialist and united Ireland

Chinese Strategy and Military Modernization in 2015

Anthony H. Cordesman, Steven Colley, 2016-01-12 China's emergence as a global economic superpower and as a major regional military power in Asia and the Pacific has had a major impact on its relations with the United States and its neighbors. China was the driving factor in the new strategy the United States announced in 2012 that called for a rebalance of U.S. forces to the Asia Pacific region. At the same time, China's actions on its borders in the East China Sea and in the South China Sea have shown that it is steadily expanding its geopolitical role in the Pacific and having a steadily increasing impact on the strategy and military developments in other Asian powers.

India and China in the Emerging Dynamics of East Asia G. V. C. Naidu, Mumin Chen, Raviprasad Narayanan, 2014-11-26 Though considerable research literature is now available on China-India relations, most of it still follows a conventional narrative viewing the relationship through the narrow conflictual prism limited to South Asia, rather than in the new larger perspective especially in the context of emerging East Asian dynamics. This book offers comprehensive analyses of some of these issues in papers addressing two broad themes: One, significant trends in the relationship between China and India on a range of issues including economic development models, their military strategies and the boundary dispute; and two, how others are responding to the rise of India and China and their impact on East Asia. Together, the chapters constitute a comprehensive study on both China-India relations and their concurrent rise, including a variety of perspectives and methodologies. Written by some of the top experts on the subject from India, China, Japan and Taiwan and covering a broad range of issues, the book will generate considerable interest in understanding this relatively neglected dimension of today's East Asia.
