No Time For Goodbye Linwood Barclay:

No Time for Goodbye Linwood Barclay, 2008 On the morning she will never forget suburban teenager Cynthia Archer discovers her house is empty with no sign of her parents or younger brother Todd Her family has simply disappeared Twenty five years later married with a daughter of her own Cynthia fears that her new family will be taken from her just as her first one was Then a letter arrives which makes no sense and yet chills Cynthia to the core Too Close to Home* Linwood Barclay, 2009-07-28 Critically acclaimed and bestselling author Linwood Barclay brings terror closer than ever before in a stunning thriller in which murder strikes in the place we should feel safest of all In a quiet neighborhood in the house next door a family is brutally murdered for no apparent reason You can't help thinking It could have been us And you start to wonder What if we're next Promise Falls isn't the kind of community where families are shot to death in their own homes But how well did Jim and Ellen Cutter really know their neighbors or the darker secrets of their small town They don't have to look further than their own marriage to know that things aren't always what they seem Now the Cutters and their son Derek must face the unthinkable that a murderer isn't just stalking too close to home but is inside it already Indefensible

Pamela Callow, 2011-01-01 When Elise Vanderzell plummets from her bedroom balcony one gorgeous summer night her children awaken to a nightmare Their mother is dead Their father is charged with her murder Lawyer Kate Lange knows all about nightmares She's survived the darkest period of her troubled life and the wounds are still raw Now she's been handed a case that seems utterly unwinnable defending her boss high profile lawyer Randall Barrett A prosecutor's dream suspect Randall is a man who was cuckolded by his ex wife A man who could not control his temper A man who had argued bitterly with the victim the previous day in full view of the children With limited criminal law experience Kate finds herself enmeshed in a family fractured by doubt Randall's teenage son is intent on killing him His daughter wants only to feel safe again And the entire legal community would like nothing better than to see Randall receive a public comeuppance As Kate races to stay a step ahead of the prosecution a silent predator is waiting for the perfect time to deal the final blow Detecting Canada

Jeannette Sloniowski, Marilyn Rose, 2014-03-25 The first serious book length study of crime writing in Canada Detecting Canada contains thirteen essays on many of Canada's most popular crime writers including Peter Robinson Giles Blunt Gail Bowen Thomas King Michael Slade Margaret Atwood and Anthony Bidulka Genres examined range from the well loved police procedural and the amateur sleuth to those less well known such as anti detection and contemporary noir novels The book looks critically at the esteemed sixties television show Wojeck as well as the more recent series Da Vinci's Inquest Da Vinci's City Hall and Intelligence and the controversial Durham County a critically acclaimed but violent television series that ran successfully in both Canada and the United States The essays in Detecting Canada look at texts from a variety of perspectives including postcolonial studies gender and queer studies feminist studies Indigenous studies and critical race and class studies Crime fiction enjoyed by so many around the world speaks to all of us about justice citizenship and important social issues in an uncertain world Elevator Pitch Linwood Barclay, 2019-09-17 INSTANT NATIONAL BESTSELLER The 1 bestselling Linwood Barclay returns with an edge of your seat thriller that does for elevators what Psycho did for showers and Jaws did for the beach a heart pounding tale of terror and menace that will make you think twice the next time you hit Up It all begins on a Monday when four people board an elevator in a Manhattan office tower Each presses a button for their floor but the elevator proceeds nonstop to the top Once there it pauses for a few seconds but the doors don't open Instead the elevator begins to descend floor by floor Then it plummets Right to the bottom of the shaft It appears to be a random accident But on Tuesday it happens again in a different Manhattan skyscraper And then Wednesday brings yet another tragic high rise catastrophe In only three days one of the most vertical cities in the world and the nation's capital of media and entertainment is plunged into chaos Clearly this is anything but random This is a cold calculated bid to terrorize the city And it's succeeding Fearing for their lives thousands of men and women working in offices across the city refuse to leave their homes Commerce has slowed to a trickle Emergency calls to the top floors of apartment towers go unanswered Who is behind this Why are they doing it Are these deadly acts of sabotage somehow connected to a nameless body found on the High Line Two seasoned New York detectives and a straight shooting journalist race against time to uncover the truth before the city's newest and tallest residential tower has its ribbon cutting on Friday night With each diabolical twist Linwood Barclay ratchets up the tension building to a shattering finale Elevator Pitch is a riveting tale of psychological suspense that is all too plausible and will chill you to the bone How to Write a Mystery Mystery Writers of America, 2022-04-12 From 70 of the most successful mystery writers in the business an invaluable guide to crafting mysteries from character development and plot to procedurals and thrillers this is a writing guide that readers and writers will turn to again and again Booklist starred review Mystery Writers of America MWA is known for providing unparalleled resources on the craft art and business of storytelling helping writers of all levels improve their skills for nearly a century Now this handbook helps authors navigate the ever shifting publishing landscape from pacing plotting the business side of publishing to the current demand for diversity and inclusivity across all genres and more Featuring essays by a new generation of bestselling experts on various elements of the craft and shorter pieces of crowd sourced wisdom from the MWA membership as a whole the topics covered can be categorized as follows Before Writing rules genres setting character research etc While Writing outlining the plot dialogue mood etc After Writing agents editors self pub etc Other than Novels short stories true crime etc Other Considerations diverse characters legal questions criticism Also included is a collection of essays from MWA published authors including Jeffery Deaver Tess Gerritsen and Charlaine Harris selected by bestselling authors Lee Child and Laurie R. drive in movie theater collapses and kills four people the daughter of one of the victims asks private investigator Cal Weaver to look into a recent break in at her father's house Cal discovers a hidden basement room where it's clear that salacious activities have taken place as well as evidence of missing DVDs But his investigation soon becomes more complicated when he realizes it may not be discs the thief was actually interested in Meanwhile Detective Barry Duckworth is still trying to solve two murders one of which is three years old he believes are connected since each featured a similar distinctive wound As the lies begin to unravel Cal is headed straight into the heart of a dark secret as his search uncovers more startling truths about Promise Falls And when yet another murder happens Cal and Barry are both driven to pursue their investigations no matter where they lead Evil deeds long thought buried are about to haunt the residents of this town as the sins of the past and present collide with terrifying results

American Noir Barry Forshaw, 2017-04-27 The word Noir is used here in its loosest sense every major living American writer is considered including the giants Harlan Coben Patricia Cornwell James Lee Burke James Ellroy and Sara Paretsky as well as non crime writers such as Stephen King who stray into the genre often through a concentration on one or two key books Many exciting new talents are highlighted and Barry Forshaw's knowledge of and personal acquaintance with many of the writers grants valuable insights into this massively popular field But the crime genre is as much about films and TV as it is about books and this book is a celebration of the former as well as the latter American television crime drama in particular is enjoying a new golden age and all of the important current series are covered here as well as key important recent films

Bad Guys Linwood Barclay, 2005-05-31 Fans of the crime caper will rejoice that Linwood Barclay is back with the hilarious follow up to his riotously funny and irreverent debut in which paranoid pop Zack Walker plotted to transplant his city savvy wife and two teenage kids to the tranquillity of the burbs where planned communities prevail and fathers rest easy Well not quite and now the Walkers have moved home only to find themselves living in the precarious crosshairs of urban sprawl once again and Zack can't help but be worried really worried that just around the corner lurks the presence of some really bad guys Zack is back and much to his family's relief the work at home science fiction writer has left the house to take a job as a features writer for the city paper But now that Zack's incessant plotting can no longer be hatched from the comforts of his own home he must be ever more vigilant to outwit the evil at large whether in the suburbs the city or his own imagination Zack is ready or so he thinks While researching his first feature article Zack stumbles upon a real life crime scene but what seems like an ordinary hit and run may actually be a homicide linked to a gang that's been burglarizing Crandall's high end shops Suddenly Zack finds himself at the center of a violent crime wave and destined for a confrontation with Barbie Bullock an unsettling figure infamous in the crime syndicate for his ruthless business tactics and peculiar proclivity for collecting dolls And all is not quiet on the home front either Zack's protective instincts launch into overdrive when he discovers that his daughter's rejected suitor has been tracing her every step and may harbor a much more ominous motivation than winning a Saturday night date Nor does his son's strange behavior and recent friendship with a creepy computer recluse inspire joy in a father's heart As worlds begin to collide and boundaries between family and foe blur Zack goes on the attack and heaven help the bad guys when this resourceful father comes to make good on a deal gone bad The Richard & Judy Book Club Reader Dr Helen Cousins, Dr Jenni

Ramone, 2013-05-28 In January 2004 daytime television presenters Richard Madeley and Judy Finnigan launched their book club and sparked debate about the way people in Britain from the general reader to publishers to the literati thought about books and reading The Richard Judy Book Club Reader brings together historians of the book literature scholars and specialists in media and cultural studies to examine the effect of the club on reading practices and the publishing and promotion of books Beginning with an analysis of the book club's history and its ongoing development in relation to other reading groups worldwide including Oprah's the editors consider issues of book marketing and genre Further chapters explore the effects of the mass broadcast celebrity book club on society literature and its marketing and popular culture Contributors ask how readers discuss books judge value and make choices The collection addresses questions of authorship authority and canon in texts connected by theme or genre including the postcolonial exotic disability and representations of the body food books and domesticity In addition book club author Andrew Smith shares his experiences in a fascinating interview Tell Me The Truth About Loss Niamh Fitzpatrick, 2020-09-25 In March 2017 Niamh Fitzpatrick's life fell apart overnight Her beloved sister Dara was killed in a helicopter crash Soon afterwards Niamh's marriage disintegrated and she feared she would lose her house Life as she knew it had ended and the loss she suffered was staggering A psychologist for many years Niamh's job was to guide clients through the worst times in their lives Drawing on everything she learned first to survive and then in time to begin to thrive Tell Me the Truth about Loss is a psychologist's journey through loss grief and the worst of times while finding hope along the way A beautiful book for when life isn't what you expect it to be
