Miscellaneous Publication ,1949 MotorBoating ,1964-04 Getting Started William Weintraub,2001 With letters from Mordecai Richler Mavis Gallant and Brian Moore Getting Started is a wonderful memoir a collection of extraordinary letters and a brilliant recreation of a time when Canadian writers were set to make their mark in the world for the first time Writer Brian Moore emigrated from Ireland to Canada in the late 1940s and found work at the Montreal Gazette where he also found William Weintraub embarking upon a career as a freelance journalist When he travelled to Paris Weintraub saw an old friend and former Gazette writer Mavis Gallant who filled him in on the tribulations of the expatriate writer's life. My room is enormous and the radiator very small indeed. Gallant introduced Weintraub to another Montreal writer Mordecai Richler, also pursuing a career as a novelist while living a gloriously Bohemian life. Weintraub joined Richler for a while in Ibiza; he later introduced him to Brian Moore, and later they kept in touch. Dear Bill, I got your highly unintellectual letter yesterday and it confirmed my suspicions that you slipped a chair under your arse in the Deux Magots as soon as you arrived in Paris and probably haven't moved since. In these years Gallant had her short stories published for the first time in the New Yorker. Moore methodically churned out money-making thrillers while working on The Lonely Passion of Judith Hearne, and Richler wrote his first acclaimed book The Acrobats. Weintraub meanwhile returned to Montreal where he saw published his brilliant comic novel Why Rock the Boat. William Weintraub weaves together his own memories of the 1950s with letters both to and from his literary colleagues. The letters and his recollections are always fascinating, often hilarious, and provide intimate insight into the lives and work of some of Canada's finest contemporary writers.

Warfare on the Mediterranean in the Age of Sail David S.T. Blackmore, 2014-01-10. Between the last battle fought entirely under oars in 1571 and the first fought entirely under steam in 1866, naval warfare in the Middle Seas and adjacent Atlantic waters was dominated by the sailing warship. This exploration of that distinct period in military history begins with an overview of the galley warfare that dominated the Mediterranean for millennia and a discussion of the technological developments including the sail and the cannon which led to the galley's demise. Subsequent chapters discuss the role of sailing ships in every major conflict on the Mediterranean from the 16th century Eighty Years War to the late 19th century Austro-Prussian/Italian War. In addition to the major battles, the book also highlights smaller encounters between single ships or light squadrons, important conflicts often overlooked in naval histories.
