   Wine and Identity Matt Harvey,Leanne White,Warwick Frost,2014-01-10 In an increasingly competitive global market winemakers are seeking to increase their sales and wine regions to attract tourists To achieve these aims there is a trend towards linking wine marketing with identity Such an approach seeks to distinguish wine products whether wine or wine tourism from their competitors by focusing on cultural and geographical attributes that contribute to the image and experience In essence marketing wine and wine regions has become increasingly about telling stories engaging and provocative stories which engage consumers and tourists and translate into sales This timely book examines this phenomena and how it is leading to changes in the wine and tourism industries for the first time It takes a global approach drawing on research studies from around the world including old and new world wine regions The volume is divided into three parts The first branding investigates cases where established regions have sought to strengthen their brands or newer regions are striving to create effective emerging brands The second heritage considers cases where there are strong linkages between cultural heritage and wine marketing The third section terroir explores how a sense of place is inherent in winescapes and regional identities and is increasingly being used as a distinctive selling proposition This significant volume showcasing the connections between place identity variety and wine will be valuable reading for students researchers and academics interested in tourism marketing and wine studies   Church Papers Leonard Woolsey Bacon,1877   The Bābur-nāma in English Babur (Emperor of Hindustan),1921   101 Middle Eastern Tales and Their Impact on Western Oral Tradition Ulrich Marzolph,2020-08-18 A comprehensive exploration of the Middle Eastern roots of Western narrative tradition Against the methodological backdrop of historical and comparative folk narrative research 101 Middle Eastern Tales and Their Impact on Western Oral Tradition surveys the history dissemination and characteristics of over one hundred narratives transmitted to Western tradition from or by the Middle Eastern Muslim literatures i e authored written works in Arabic Persian and Ottoman Turkish For a tale to be included Ulrich Marzolph considered two criteria that the tale originates from or at least was transmitted by a Middle Eastern source and that it was recorded from a Western narrator s oral performance in the course of the nineteenth or twentieth century The rationale behind these restrictive definitions is predicated on Marzolph s main concern with the long lasting effect that some of the Oriental narratives exercised in Western popular tradition those tales that have withstood the test of time Marzolph focuses on the originally Oriental tales that became part and parcel of modern Western oral tradition Since antiquity the Orient constitutes the quintessential Other vis vis the European cultures While delineation against this Other served to define and reassure the Self the Orient also constituted a constant source of fascination attraction and inspiration Through oral retellings numerous tales from Muslim tradition became an integral part of European oral and written tradition in the form of learned treatises medieval sermons late medieval fabliaux early modern chapbooks contemporary magazines and more In present times when national narcissisms often acquire the status of
