from the Earliest Accounts to the Middle of the Nineteenth Century Samuel Austin Allibone, 1859      British dairying John Prince Sheldon, 1896      New Challenges for Data Design David Bihanic, 2014-12-27 The present work provides a platform for leading Data designers whose vision and creativity help us to anticipate major changes occurring in the Data Design field and pre-empt the future Each of them strives to provide new answers to the question What challenges await Data Design To avoid falling into too narrow a mind set each works hard to elucidate the breadth of Data Design today and to demonstrate its widespread application across a variety of business sectors With end users in mind designer contributors bring to light the myriad of purposes for which the field was originally intended forging the bond even further between Data Design and the aims and intentions of those who contribute to it The first seven parts of the book outline the scope of Data Design and presents a line up of viewpoints that highlight this discipline's main topics and offers an in-depth look into practices boasting both foresight and imagination The eighth and final part features a series of interviews with Data designers and artists whose methods embody originality and marked singularity As a result a number of enlightening concepts and bright ideas unfold within the confines of this book to help dispel the thick fog around this new and still relatively unknown discipline A plethora of equally eye-opening and edifying new terms words and key expressions also unfurl Informing influencing and inspiring are just a few of the buzz words belonging to an initiative that is first and foremost a creative one not to mention the possibility to discern the ever-changing and naturally complex nature of today's datasphere Providing an invaluable and cutting-edge resource for design researchers this work is also intended for students professionals and practitioners involved in Data Design Interaction Design Digital Media Design Data Information Visualization Computer Science and Engineering      A Catalogue of Books, ... Containing Theology, Ecclesiastical History, Biography, ... and Miscellaneous English Books; Nearly the Whole of which are in Very Fine Condition; Now on Sale at the Low Prices Affixed William Strong, 1837      Feeling Things Stephanie Downes, Sally Holloway, Sarah Randles, 2018-01-13 This interdisciplinary essay collection investigates the various interactions of people feelings and things throughout premodern Europe It focuses on the period before mass production when limited literacy often prioritised material methods of communication The subject of materiality has been of increasing significance in recent historical inquiry alongside growing emphasis on the relationships between objects emotions and affect in archaeological and sociological research The historical intersections between materiality and emotions however have remained under-theorised particularly with respect to artefacts that have continuing resonance over extended periods of time or across cultural and geographical space Feeling Things addresses the need to develop an appropriate cross-disciplinary theoretical framework for the analysis of objects and emotions in European history with special attention to the need to track the shifting emotional valencies of objects from the past to the present and from one place and cultural context to another The collection draws together an international group of historians art historians curators and literary scholars working on a variety of cultural literary visual and material sources

Objects considered include books letters prosthetics religious relics shoes stone and textiles Many of these have been preserved in international galleries museums and archives while others have remained in their original locations even as their contexts have changed over time The chapters consider the ways in which emotions such as despair fear grief hope love and wonder become inscribed in and ascribed to these items producing emotional objects of significance and agency Such objects can be harnessed to create affirm or express individual relationships as for example in religious devotion and practice or in the construction of cultural communal and national identities Parliamentary Debates on the Subject of the Confederation of the British North American Provinces, 3rd Session, 8th Provincial Parliament of Canada Canada.
