Road and Track, 2007 Handbook of Consumer Psychology Curtis P. Haugtvedt, Paul M. Herr, Frank R.

Kardes, 2018-12-07 This Handbook contains a unique collection of chapters written by the world's leading researchers in the dynamic field of consumer psychology. Although these researchers are housed in different academic departments in marketing, psychology, advertising, and communications, all have the common goal of attaining a better scientific understanding of cognitive, affective, and behavioral responses to products and services, the marketing of these products and services, and societal and ethical concerns associated with marketing processes. Consumer psychology is a discipline at the interface of marketing, advertising, and psychology. The research in this area focuses on fundamental psychological processes as well as on issues associated with the use of theoretical principles in applied contexts. The Handbook presents state-of-the-art research as well as providing a place for authors to put forward suggestions for future research and practice. The Handbook is most appropriate for graduate-level courses in marketing, psychology, communications, consumer behavior, and advertising.

They met in their teen years at an all-girls boarding high school nestled in the Himalayas. Now in their 40s, the lives of Mini, Divya, Alka, and Priya have brought each of them to the SF Bay Area. Sharing secrets since their teenage years, they reunite and gather weekly to play the Indianized version of rummy. The novel provides a snapshot of the Indian diaspora in the context of 21st-century America. Now the friends' lives are all in crisis. Wealthy Alka's abandoned ambitions and her dissatisfying marriage have turned her into an obsessive Tiger Mother. Big-hearted Priya must face the truth about her collapsing marriage. Divya herself lies awake at night struggling with her envy of the comfortable stability her friends have already attained. And in one unexpected moment, beautiful Mini suddenly becomes a widow and begins dating a white guy. When Alka's son attempts suicide and Divya's frustrated longing for the American Dream spills over into the Rummy game, their once dependable world is torn apart. Will Alka's son survive? Will Alka and Divya repair their friendship? Will Priya's fledgling business and her blossoming relationship with a Hispanic hunk survive? Will Mini marry a WASP? Will the four friends ever play Rummy together again? By Papal Decree Norbert E.
