Contemporary Issues in South African Military Psychology Nicole Dodd, Petrus C. Bester, Justin van der Merwe, 2020-05-13 Contemporary Issues in South African Military Psychology is a well timed extremely thought provoking imperative particular to the African context and deals with a highly contemporary issue within the people management and the management studies fields specifically in the military field and context This is specifically of importance as military psychology is a behavioural science that combines theory and practical application Prof Karel Stanz University of Pretoria

Understanding Boko Haram James J. Hentz, Hussein Solomon, 2017-05-08 The primary objective of this book is to understand the nature of the Boko Haram insurgency in northeast Nigeria Boko Haram's goal of an Islamic Caliphate starting in the Borno State in the North East that will eventually cover the areas of the former Kanem Borno Empire is a rejection of the modern state system forced on it by the West The central theme of this volume examines the relationship between the failure of the state building project in Nigeria and the outbreak and nature of insurgency At the heart of the Boko Haram phenomenon is a country racked with cleavages making it hard for Nigeria to cohere as a modern state Part I introduces this theme and places the Boko Haram insurgency in a historical context There are however multiple cleavages in Nigeria ethnic regional cultural and religious and Part II examines the different state society dynamics fuelling the conflict Political grievances are common to every society however what gives Boko Haram the space to express such grievances through violence Importantly this volume demonstrates that the insurgency is in fact a reflection of the hollowness within Nigeria s overall security Part III looks at the responses to Boko Haram by Nigeria neighbouring states and external actors For Western actors Boko Haram is seen as part of the global war on terror and the fact that it has pledged allegiance to ISIS encourages this framing However as the chapters here discuss this is an over simplification of Boko Haram and the West needs to address the multiple dimension of Boko Haram This book will be of much interest to students of terrorism and political violence insurgencies African politics war and conflict studies and IR in general A Case Study of European Skill Formation in Albania Indrit Vuçaj, 2018-09-15

In the quest of becoming a competitive knowledge driven society and nationalize the efficacy of an evolving tradition in the free labor market Albania is increasingly pursuing policies in alignment with the European standards The highly effective standards of the European skill formation system are serving as a guiding compass to orient policymaking institutions in Albania for developing meaningful and interplaying national alliances between the labor market and the education and training system The institutional approach in this study thoughtfully explores the implementation impact and the field implications of the collective skill formation system in Albanian education reforms Indrit Vuçaj critically examines the manifestation of education reforms in preparation of skills for the labor market and provides interpretation of the structural normative and cultural cognitive elements pertaining to the progression of addressing the process evolvement and the continuing complexity of the Albanian national skill formation system reforms as aligned with the European standards

Distributed Situation Awareness in Road Transport Paul M. Salmon, Gemma Jennie Megan Read, Guy H. Walker, Michael G. Lenné, Neville A. Stanton, 2018-11-21 How can we design transport environments that cater to the situation awareness needs of different end users This book answers this question by showcasing how state of the art human factors theory and methods can be used to understand how situation awareness differs across drivers cyclists motorcyclists and pedestrians and creates new designs that cater to these diverse situation awareness needs Written by experts in the field and based on a major program of work funded by the Australian Research Council this book outlines the distributed situation awareness model and provides practical guidance on how to study situation awareness naturalistically and how to create designs that support rather than hinder situation awareness The book closes by outlining outline a generic framework to support similar applications in other areas and discusses future applications in areas such as vehicle automation artificial intelligence and cybersecurity Features Challenges traditional road safety analysis design processes and conventions Outlines a novel on road study methodology for analyzing naturalistic interactions among drivers cyclists motorcyclists and pedestrians Presents a review of state of the art situation awareness theory and methods Provides practical guidance on a series of human factors

South Africa. Department of Defence,2016 China's Relations with Africa Joshua Eisenman,David H. Shinn,2023-08-01

Since Xi Jinping s accession to power in 2012 nearly every aspect of China s relations with Africa has grown dramatically Beijing has increased the share of resources it devotes to African countries expanding military cooperation technological investment and educational and cultural programs as well as extending its political influence This book examines the full scope of contemporary political and security relations between China and Africa David H Shinn and Joshua Eisenman not only explain the specific tactics and methods that Beijing uses to build its strategic relations with African political and military elites but also contextualize and interpret them within China s larger geostrategy They argue that the priorities of Chinese leaders including the conflation of threats to the Communist Party with threats to the country a growing emphasis on relations in the Global South and a focus on countering U S hegemony have combined to elevate Africa s importance among policy makers in Beijing Ranging from diplomacy and propaganda to arms sales and space cooperation from increasingly frequent People s Liberation Army Navy port calls in Africa to the rising number of African students studying in China this book marshals extensive and compelling qualitative and quantitative evidence of the deepening ties between China and Africa Drawing on two decades of systematic data and hundreds of surveys and in person interviews Shinn and Eisenman shed new light on the state of China Africa relations today and consider what the future may hold The Handbook of African Defence and Armed Forces Evert Kleynhans,Marco Wyss,2025-03-01 The Handbook of African Defence and Armed Forces provides the first in depth and multifaceted analysis of the evolution and current state of national defence policies strategies doctrines capabilities security challenges and strategic responses of African states and their armed forces Geographically these aspects are investigated at the national sub regional and regional levels Chronologically they are analysed against the backdrop of the superpower withdrawal from the continent in the 1990s and the so called New Scramble for Africa which has seen a crescendo of renewed great power interest in the continent s resources as well as its strategic role location and relevance since the 2000s The book takes a bottom up and African centric approach and is organized around five key themes i the differing security outlooks and defence policies of African powers within the region and the different sub regions ii the strategies doctrines transformation and employment of African armed forces iii the relationship between African armed forces with sub regional regional and international organizations iv the challenges that African states and their armed forces have been facing and their strategic responses and v the position of African perspectives and agency in the context of continental and international security and defence Understanding African security and defence especially in terms of each individual nation s ability to contribute to peacekeeping operations counterterrorism

border security and internal security requires a focus on the national level of armed forces and defence policies this in turns sheds light on sub regional and regional divergences challenges and cooperation Based on this framework the chapters in this volume offer comprehensive African perspectives on African and international security and defence and in doing so show the agency of the continent s countries and armed forces in International Security and Relations

Vigilantism against Migrants and Minorities Tore Bjørgo, Miroslav Mareš, 2019-10-18 This edited volume traces the rise of far right vigilante movements some who have been involved in serious violence against minorities migrants and other vulnerable groups in society whereas other vigilantes are intimidating but avoid using violence Written by an international team of contributors the book features case studies from Western Europe Eastern Europe North America and Asia Each chapter is written to a common research template examining the national social and political context the purpose of the vigilante group how it is organised and operates its communications and social media strategy and its relationship to mainstream social actors and institutions and to similar groups in other countries The final comparative chapter explores some of the broader research issues such as under which conditions such vigilantism emerges flourishes or fails policing approaches masculinity the role of social media responses from the state and civil society and the evidence of transnational co operation or inspiration This is a groundbreaking volume which will be of particular interest to scholars with an interest in the extreme right social movements political violence policing and criminology

Civil Liability for Artificial Intelligence and Software Mark A. Geistfeld, Ernst Karner, Bernhard A. Koch, Christiane Wendehorst, 2022-11-21 Initiated by the European Commission the first study published in this volume analyses the largely unresolved question as to how damage caused by artificial intelligence AI systems is allocated by the rules of tortious liability currently in force in the Member States of the European Union and in the United States to examine whether and if so to what extent national tort law regimes differ in that respect and to identify possible gaps in the protection of injured parties The second study offers guiding principles for safety and liability with regard to software testing how the existing acquis needs to be adjusted in order to adequately cope with the risks posed by software and AI The annex contains the final report of the New Technologies Formation of the Expert Group on Liability and New Technologies assessing the extent to which existing liability schemes are adapted to the emerging market realities following the development of new digital technologies

South Africa's High-Stress Security Environment Gerhard Schoeman, 2024-10-11 This book presents valuable insights into the realities faced by security personnel as they deal with life threatening situations in a high stress security environment The causes and consequences of stress are explored followed by a comprehensive discussion of coping strategies and the negative consequences of not being able to cope effectively In this book a scientifically tested accessible model is also developed which provides a visual overview of the stress management process and captures the flow between stressors personality and coping strategies South Africa s High Stress Security Environment is a helpful guide for anyone who wants to gain a wider understanding and appreciation of the challenges and the courage of security personnel which we often take for granted Print edition not for sale in Sub Saharan Africa Police Integrity in South Africa Sanja Kutnjak Ivkovich, Adri Sauerma, 2020-04-29 Policing in South Africa has gained notoriety through its extensive history of oppressive law enforcement In 1994 as the country's apartheid system was replaced with a democratic order the new government faced the significant challenge of transforming the South African police force into a democratic police agency the South African Police Service SAPS that would provide unbiased policing to all the country's people More than two decades since the initiation of the reforms it appears that the SAPS has rapidly developed a reputation as a police agency beset by challenges to its integrity This book offers a unique perspective by providing in depth analyses of police integrity in South Africa It is a case study that systematically and empirically explores the contours of police integrity in a young democracy Using the organizational theory of police integrity the book analyzes the complex set of historical legal political social and economic circumstances shaping police integrity A discussion of the theoretical framework is accompanied by the results of a nationwide survey of nearly 900 SAPS officers probing their familiarity with official rules their expectations of discipline within the SAPS and their willingness to report misconduct The book also examines the influence of the respondents race gender and supervisory status on police integrity Written in a clear and direct style this book will appeal to students and scholars of criminology policing sociology political science as well as to police administrators interested in expanding their knowledge about police integrity and enhancing it in their organizations

Foreign Policy in Post-Apartheid South Africa Adekeye Adebajo, Kudrat Virk, 2017-12-18 South Africa is the most industrialized power in Africa It was rated the continent's largest economy in 2016 and is the only African member of the G20 It is also the only strategic partner of the EU in Africa Yet despite being so strategically and economically significant there is little scholarship that focuses on South Africa as a regional hegemon This book provides the first comprehensive assessment of South Africa's post Apartheid foreign policy Over its 23 chapters and with contributions from established Africa Western Asian and American scholars as well as diplomats and analysts the book examines the current pattern of the country's foreign relations in impressive detail The geographic and thematic coverage is extensive including chapters on the domestic imperatives of South Africa's foreign policy peace making defence and security bilateral relations in Southern Central West Eastern and North Africa bilateral relations with the US China Britain France and Japan the country's key external multilateral relations with the UN the BRICS economic grouping the African Caribbean and Pacific Group ACP as well as the EU and the World Trade Organization WTO An essential resource for researchers the book will be relevant to the fields of area studies foreign policy history international relations international law security studies political economy and development studies Right from Wrong Mark Alan Smith, 2022-11-15 Where does morality come from Apologists people who offer a formal defense of their religion point to God as the answer By inspiring scriptures that people can read study and teach God supposedly gave humanity a guidebook for how to live Award winning scholar of religion and politics Mark Alan

Smith shows the errors in this chain of assumptions Apologists find themselves forced to accept a book that condemns same sex love and authorizes slavery genocide capital punishment for minor offenses and many other practices widely recognized today as immoral Apologists try to protect their worldview by ignoring the offending passages constructing strained reinterpretations rationalizing the indefensible or appealing to God s mysterious ways Is there a non religious method for discovering the elements of an objective morality Yes Smith argues the worldview of humanism Humanists apply reason logic and evidence to all subjects Smith s humanist approach to morality relies on discussion and debate among diverse participants as the best means to attain a moral code stripped of the biases of each individual group and society The result is a hopeful portrait of how to build on the moral progress humans have achieved since the writing of religious scriptures
