African Navies Timothy Stapleton, 2022-11-11 This edited volume focuses on aspects of the understudied theme of African sea power including African navies and the engagement of non African navies with the continent Africa possesses 48 000 kilometers of coastline comprising 38 out of 54 of the continent's states and several strategic choke points for international shipping such as the Suez Canal the Gulf of Aden and the Cape of Good Hope Nevertheless post colonial Africa's small navies and their relations with the navies of external powers have not received much scholarly attention Focusing on Sub Saharan Africa this collection attempts to address this neglect and stimulate further research by offering original chapters related to historical and contemporary themes around Africa's navies The historical chapters cover the origin of the Tanzanian Ethiopian Nigerian and Ghana navies during the era of decolonization and the Cold War the asymmetrical naval campaign fought during the Nigerian Civil War 1967-70 and the activities of the Soviet Navy in supporting African states and movements fighting lingering colonialism and white supremacy during the 1970s and 1980s Focusing on the contemporary situation other chapters discuss the engagement of the Indian Navy with Africa the potential role of the Angolan and Mozambican navies in the Southern African Development Community SADC the transformation and development of the post apartheid South African Navy and the challenges and capabilities of African navies in the early twenty first century The book concludes by discussing the question of whether African coastal countries need navies This book will be of much interest to students of naval power strategic studies African politics and International Relations Chapters 1 2 6 and 8 of this book are available for free in Open Access at www.taylorfrancis.com It has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

Reforming Civil-Military Relations in New Democracies Aurel Croissant, David Kuehn, 2017-03-20 This book addresses the challenge of reforming defense and military policy making in newly democratized nations By tracing the development of civil military relations in various new democracies from a comparative perspective it links two bodies of scholarship that thus far have remained largely separate the study of emerging or failed civilian control over armed forces on the one hand and work on the roots and causes of military effectiveness to guarantee the protection and security of citizens on the other The empirical and theoretical findings presented here will appeal to scholars of civil military relations democratization and security issues as well as to defense policy makers

Navies and Maritime Policies in the South Atlantic Érico Duarte, Manuel Correia de Barros, 2019-02-12 This edited volume analyzes national security issues with maritime implications and specifically naval projects and postures of main South Atlantic countries Brazil Argentina Nigeria and South Africa Additionally it provides comprehensive and multi level analysis of the interplay among national interests in the processes of demarcation of limits of the continental shelf and contention among Uruguay Chile Argentina and the United Kingdom in the Southern Atlantic and the Antarctica This book will interest scholars researchers and students in the fields of Latin American politics regional studies foreign and defense policy and maritime security Capacity Building for Maritime Security Christian Bueger,Timothy Edmunds,Robert McCabe,2020-10-09 This book studies recent attempts to restructure maritime security sectors through capacity building It innovates both theoretically and empirically It proposes a new framework for understanding maritime capacity building drawing on work in peacebuilding and security sector reform The framework is then applied across empirical case studies from the Western Indian Ocean WIO region written by scholars from the Global South The WIO region is a paradigmatic case to study maritime security and capacity building in action Countries in the region face the full gamut of maritime security challenges while their indigenous capacities to deal with these are often weak In consequence the region functions as an engine of innovation for maritime capacity building more widely The lessons and best practices from the region have importance consequences for addressing maritime security across the globe Smart Plant Breeding for Field Crops in Post-genomics Era Devender Sharma,Saurabh Singh,Susheel K. Sharma,Rajender Singh,2023-04-28 This book emphasizes on cutting edge next generation smart plant breeding approaches for maximizing the use of genomic resources generated by high throughput genomics in the post genomic era Through this book the readers would learn about the recent development in the genomic approaches such as genotype by sequencing GBS for genomic analysis SNPs Single Nucleotide Polymorphism whole genome re sequencing WGRS and RNAseq for transcriptomic analysis DEGs Differentially Expressed Genes To maximize the genetic gains in the cereal food crops the book covers topics on transgenic breeding genome editing high throughput phenotyping reliable precision phenotyping and genomic information based analysis In the era of climate change and the ever increasing population food security and nutritional security are the primary concern of plant breeders growers and policymakers to address the UN s sustainable development goals Chapters of this book cohere around these goals and covers techniques such as QTL mapping association studies candidate gene identification omics RNAi through micro RNA miRNA small interfering RNA siRNA and artificial micro RNA amiRNA It also covers other genomic techniques like antisense technology genome editing CRISPR cas9 base editing and epigenomics that assist the crop improvement programmes to fulfil the UNs sustainable development goals It explores the influence of rapidly available sequencing data assisting in the next generation breeding programmes This volume is a productive resource for the students researchers scientists teachers public and private sector stakeholders involved in the genetic enhancement of cereal crops Special Operations Forces in the 21st Century Jessica Glick Turnley,Kobi Michael,Eyal Ben-Ari,2017-08-09 This book sets out the major social scientific approaches to the study of Special Operations Forces Despite consistent downsizing over the past two decades the armed forces of the industrial democracies have seen a huge growth in Special Operations Forces SOF Through increasing numbers of personnel and more frequent deployments SOF units have wielded considerable influence in conflicts around the world with senior SOF officers having led major strategic operations This increased presence and unprecedented expansion for SOF is largely a result of the new kinds of conflicts that have emerged in the 21st century At the same time even with this high profile in the military policy and media and popular cultural arenas there is relatively little social scientific research on SOF This volume aims to fill this gap by providing a series of studies and analyses of SOF across the globe since the end of World War II Analysing SOF at the micro mezzo and macro levels provides broad and diverse insights Moreover the volume deals with new issues raised by the use of such forces that include emerging modes of civilian control innovative organizational forms and the special psychological characteristics necessitated by SOF operatives It concludes with a discussion of a question which continues to be debated in today s militaries what makes SOF special Filling a clear gap in the literature this book will be of much interest to students of strategic studies civil military relations irregular warfare security studies and international relations

The Global Third Nuclear Age Andrew Futter,Ludovica Castelli,Cameron Hunter,Olamide Samuel,Francesca Silvestri,Benjamin Zala,2025-01-17 This book provides an in depth examination of the technological geopolitical and normative pressures driving the world into a new more complex and potentially more dangerous Third Nuclear Age By adopting an innovative framework for analysis the book challenges the constrained focus of much of the existing literature by explaining that the pathways to nuclear security for different actors across the globe will vary considerably in this new context It argues that the Third Nuclear Age will be defined by friction and conflict between Nuclear Traditionalists Technological Transformers Hedgers and Balancers and Activists and Protestors as different interests and visions of the nuclear future clash The book draws on dozens of interviews and non English language sources to provide a global approach and looks at the security politics driving the political debate in 20 different countries across the globe This book will be of much interest to students of nuclear politics security studies and International Relations The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license
