Robles,2019-01-01 The South China Sea Arbitration which marks the first time that the Philippines and China have been parties to a compulsory dispute settlement procedure is a landmark legal case The Tribunal tackled head on critical issues in the interpretation and application of the UN Convention on the Law of the Sea that other international courts have failed to address particularly the compatibility of historic rights with the Convention the identification of maritime features as permanently submerged or above water at high tide and the distinction between features that are fully entitled to maritime zones and those that are not In addition the Tribunal also had to decide on issues as diverse as near collisions at sea illegal fishing of giant clams and sea turtles and the destruction of fragile coral reefs resulting from island building The Tribunals task was rendered arduous by Chinas refusal to appear before it In these circumstances understanding the Tribunals decisions is a challenging undertaking Chinas public relations campaign targeting the proceedings raised issues that the layperson could readily grasp notably African states support for its non appearance the integrity of the judges and the validity of arbitral awards Understanding the Awards and Debating with China aims to facilitate understanding of the South China Sea Arbitration by presenting detailed summaries of the two Arbitral Awards The author rebuts the questionable claims raised by Chinas public relations campaign and highlights Chinas covert actions during the proceedings

Accounting at War Warwick Funnell, Michele Chwastiak, 2015-03-24 Accounting is frequently portrayed as a value free mechanism for allocating resources and ensuring they are employed in the most efficient manner Contrary to this popular opinion the research presented in Accounting at War demonstrates that accounting for military forces is primarily a political practice Throughout history military force has been so pervasive that no community of any degree of complexity has succeeded in Through to the present day for all nation states accounting for the military and its operations has primarily served broader political purposes From the Crimean War to the War on Terror accounting has been used to assert civilian control over the military instill rational business practices on war and create the visibilities and invisibilities necessary to legitimize the use of force Accounting at War emphasizes the significant power that financial and accounting controls gave to political elites and the impact of these controls on military performance Accounting at War examines the effects of these controls in wars such as the Crimean South African and Vietnam wars Accounting at War also emphasizes how accounting has provided the means to rationalize and normalize violence which has often contributed to the acceleration and expansion of war Aimed at researchers and academics in the fields of accounting accounting history political management and sociology Accounting at War represents a unique and critical perspective to this cutting edge research field

The Politics of Migration and Immigration in Europe Andrew Geddes, Peter Scholten, 2016-08-09 Migration and immigration are high on any nation s agenda but have particular resonance in Europe in light of recent events The new edition of this book has been fully updated in this respect and explores Immigration policy in individual EU nations The treatment of migrants including immigrant policies The development and effects of the Shengen agreement The movement towards common EU policies It looks specifically at the contexts of Britain France Germany The Netherlands Sweden Italy Spain Greece and Turkey as well as a examining the changing nature of migration dynamics in central and Eastern Europe This book is a significant and timely analysis suitable for students of migration at any level

Black and Indigenous Resistance in the Americas Juliet Hooker, 2020-03-04 Black and Indigenous Resistance in the Americas is an essential roadmap to understanding contemporary racial politics across the Americas where openly white supremacist politics are on the rise It is the product of a multiyear transnational research project by the Anti racist Research and Action Network of the Americas in collaboration with resistance movements confronting racial retrenchment in Brazil Bolivia Chile Colombia Guatemala Mexico and the United States How did we get here And what anti racist strategies are equal to the dire task of confronting resurgent racism This volume provides powerful answers to these pressing questions 1 It traces the making and contestation of state led racial projects in response to black and indigenous mobilization during an era of expansion of multicultural rights in the context of neoliberal capitalism 2 It identifies the origins and manifestations of the backlash against hard fought but hardly far reaching gains by marginalized peoples showing that contrary to critiques of identity politics the losses and anxieties produced by the failures of neoliberalism have been understood in racial terms 3 It distills a path forward for progressive anti racist activism in the Americas that looks beyond state centered rights seeking strategies and instead situates a critique of racial capitalism as central to the contestation of white supremacy Maestro of Science Jason S. Ridler, 2015-11-26 One of the brightest Canadian scientists of his generation Omond McKillop Solandt was a physiologist by training an engineer by disposition and a manager by necessity A prot g of insulin s co discoverer Charles Best Solandt worked as a scientist for the British government during the Second World War including as a pioneer of operational research and a manager of scientific establishments Ending the war as a colonel he served on the British Mission to Japan where he studied the effects of the atomic bombs at Hiroshima and Nagasaki before returning to Canada to become chairman of the newly created Defence Research Board There he spearheaded Canada s attempt to create a new and innovative government science infrastructure that served the needs of the Canadian military at the dawn of the nuclear age and worked alongside allies in Britain and the United States In Maestro of Science Jason S Ridler draws on interviews with Solandt and his colleagues and declassified records from Canada and the United Kingdom to paint a vivid picture of the influence and achievements of a Canadian leader in Cold War military research

Federal Register, 2013-11 Citizenship and Democratization: Perspectives from Different Gender-Theoretical Approaches Eva Maria Hinterhuber, Jana Günther, 2024-01-30 The year 1918 was significant in many ways seeing the end of World War 1 At the same time the impact and transformational effects of this event enabled civil society activists and politically institutionalised actors in European countries to pick up the threads of democratic social movements and parliamentary aspirations and make use of political opportunity structures to obtain citizen rights for larger parts of the population One result of this process albeit with a difference between European states was that more groups in society gained suffrage Amongst those were large sections of the working class and women While the vote was won for some new social groups in European societies others were still excluded After one centennium of struggle for political participation we would like to discuss specific problems of politics of belonging The question concerning the full recognition of citizen rights was and continually is connected to ideas of a specific membership of a nation state a fact that denotes the particular problem of membership and non membership and of inside and outside This Research Topic will take account of this special field of tension of democratisation e g inclusion through exclusion from a perspective of social history political science gender studies and intersectionality approaches This analytical foil shall be used to examine the relationship between state or government action and civil society as well as the reproduction of social and political inequality despite increasing democratisation movements      Scientific and Technical Aerospace Reports ,1990 Lists citations with abstracts for aerospace related reports obtained from world wide sources and announces documents that have recently been entered into the NASA Scientific and Technical Information Database      Working Dogs: Form and Function, Volume II Cynthia M.
