LA1010 Criminal law – Zone A

Introduction

As in previous years, the examiners attempt to make the examination as straightforward to pass as possible for those who are prepared to put in the hours of study and revision. Your module guide joins together with your textbook, consolidated by the activities appearing in each chapter. These activities direct you to sections of the textbook. If you now go through the examination paper below with your module guide open you will see that everything you need to answer the questions is there. For example, look at Question 6 and turn to your module guide, 12.1.4, the associated Activity 12.13 and the summary, and the references made to the textbook to help you solve the activity. If you do this, you will have all the information, knowledge and understanding to get a very good mark indeed! You will see, for example, that the activity directs you to 14.2.B.1 Wilson, which answers much of the question for you! Indeed Case 19 is essentially part (b) of Question 6. Make life and study easy for yourself: follow the advice and structure your study around the module guide and the textbook.

Comments on specific questions

PART A – multiple choice examination

Feedback on the multiple choice exam is provided on pages 14-15 of this report.

PART B – problem/essay question examination

Question 1

Rita is Henry's 14-year-old sister who is in love with Fred. Rita asks Fred to carve the letter 'F' on to her arm using a penknife. Fred does not want to do this but reluctantly agrees when Rita tells Fred that she will end the relationship if he does not. The wound is not serious, although it does require three stitches. Henry is angry with Fred and they decide to settle their differences by having a fight. Fred punches Henry, knocking him over and causing him to fracture his wrist.

As Fred is making his way home, a beggar, Toni, who is carrying a baby in her arms, approaches him and asks him for money. Fred, who is still angry after the fight, raises his hand in a threatening way. In trying to protect herself and the baby, Toni accidentally drops the baby which bruises it slightly.
