Low-Cost Carriers in Emerging Countries John Bowen, 2019-02-14 Low Cost Airline Carriers in Emerging Countries traces the development of low cost carriers LCCs in Asia Latin America the Middle East and Africa examining airlines that have become significant players in their home markets but little known at a global scale The book maps the geography of the LCC phenomenon explaining the starkly varying success of budget airlines and assessing their current social economic and environmental impacts The book concludes with insights into the future potential of the LCC phenomenon along with its global ramifications Beginning with Southwest Airlines in the 1970s low cost carriers LCCs have democratized air travel around the world fostering huge increases in airline traffic and transforming the airline industry At the same time however the ascent of these budget airlines has exacerbated aviation related problems such as aircraft noise airport congestion greenhouse gas emissions and more LCCs have been extensively studied in the US and Europe but not in emerging regions of the globe Yet the impact of such airlines is greatest in low and middle income economies where only a small fraction of the population has ever flown and where competition from alternative modes road rail is weak

A Quarter Century of Post-Communism Assessed M. Steven Fish, Graeme Gill, Milenko Petrovic, 2017-02-09 This edited volume seeks to understand and explain the pattern of varying national and regional success in post communist political and economic transition across the post communist world Despite widespread hopes for the development of vigorous democratic political systems and vibrant market economies the outcomes of a quarter century of post communist transition in the countries of the former communist bloc in Eurasia have been widely variant Some have matched these hopes including becoming full members of the EU others have fallen far short with political and economic systems little changed from the communist era This collection with an internationally respected list of contributors addresses some of the pressing issues in political science and transition studies ranging from theoretical overviews to the more specific nitty gritty of contemporary politics SME Policy Index: Western Balkans and Turkey 2019 Assessing the Implementation of the Small Business Act for Europe OECD,European Training Foundation,European Union,European Bank for Reconstruction and Development,2019-05-06 Robust SME sectors are critical to the prosperity of the six Western Balkan economies and Turkey accounting for over 70% of those employed in the business sector and generating 65% of value added in these seven economies Yet their potential remains untapped as SMEs across the region grapple SME Policy Index: Western Balkans and Turkey 2016 Assessing the Implementation of the Small Business Act for Europe OECD,European Training Foundation,European Union,European Bank for Reconstruction and Development,South East European Centre for Entrepreneurial Learning,2016-04-28 The SME Policy Index is a benchmarking tool designed for emerging economies to assess SME policy frameworks and monitor progress in policy implementation over time The European Union's Approach to Conflict Resolution Laurence Cooley,2018-10-09 This book investigates and explains the European Union's approach to conflict resolution in three countries of the Western Balkans Bosnia and Herzegovina Macedonia and Kosovo In doing so it critically interrogates claims that the EU acts as an agent of conflict transformation in its engagement with conflict affected states The book argues contrary to the assumptions of much of the existing literature that rather than seeking the transformation of conflicts the EU pursues a more conservative strategy based on the regulation of conflict through the promotion of institutional mechanisms such as consociational power sharing and decentralisation Drawing on discourse analysis of documents speeches and interviews conducted by the author with European Union officials and policy makers in Brussels and the case study countries the book offers a theoretically grounded methodologically rigorous and empirically detailed analysis of EU policy preferences of the ideas that underpin them and of how those preferences are legitimised This book will be of key interest to scholars students and practitioners interested in ethnic conflict and conflict resolution the politics of the Balkans and the external and foreign policies of the EU European Rail Timetable ,2009

Thomas Cook European Timetable ,1992 Identity, Oppression, and Diversity in Archaeology Laura E. Heath-Stout,2024-10-31 Identity Oppression and Diversity in Archaeology documents how racism classism sexism heterosexism and ableism affect the demographics of archaeology and discusses how knowledge that archaeologists produce is shaped by the discipline's demographic homogeneity Previous research has shown that like many academic fields archaeology is numerically dominated by straight white cisgender people and those in positions of authority are predominantly men This book examines how and why those demographic trends persist It also elucidates how individual archaeologists social identities shape the research they conduct and therefore how our demographics affect and limit our knowledge production on a disciplinary scale It explains how through unflinching reflection proactive policymaking and sincere community building we can build a diverse and inclusive discipline This book will appeal to archaeologists who have an interest in diversity and inclusion within the discipline as well as scholars in other disciplines who are engaged in research on diversity in academia
