Black and Indigenous Resistance in the Americas Juliet Hooker, 2020-03-04 Black and Indigenous Resistance in the Americas is an essential roadmap to understanding contemporary racial politics across the Americas where openly white supremacist politics are on the rise It is the product of a multiyear transnational research project by the Anti racist Research and Action Network of the Americas in collaboration with resistance movements confronting racial retrenchment in Brazil Bolivia Chile Colombia Guatemala Mexico and the United States How did we get here And what anti racist strategies are equal to the dire task of confronting resurgent racism This volume provides powerful answers to these pressing questions 1 It traces the making and contestation of state led racial projects in response to black and indigenous mobilization during an era of expansion of multicultural rights in the context of neoliberal capitalism 2 It identifies the origins and manifestations of the backlash against hard fought but hardly far reaching gains by marginalized peoples showing that contrary to critiques of identity politics the losses and anxieties produced by the failures of neoliberalism have been understood in racial terms 3 It distills a path forward for progressive anti racist activism in the Americas that looks beyond state centered rights seeking strategies and instead situates a critique of racial capitalism as central to the contestation of white supremacy Role of Lipids in the

Hinterhuber, Jana Günther, 2024-01-30 The year 1918 was significant in many ways seeing the end of World War 1 At the same time the impact and transformational effects of this event enabled civil society activists and politically institutionalised actors in European countries to pick up the threads of democratic social movements and parliamentary aspirations and make use of political opportunity structures to obtain citizen rights for larger parts of the population One result of this process albeit with a difference between European states was that more groups in society gained suffrage Amongst those were large sections of the working class and women While the vote was won for some new social groups in European societies others were still excluded After one centennium of struggle for political participation we would like to discuss specific problems of politics of belonging The question concerning the full recognition of citizen rights was and continually is connected to ideas of a specific membership of a nation state a fact that denotes the particular problem of membership and non membership and of inside and outside This Research Topic will take account of this special field of tension of democratisation e.g. inclusion through exclusion from a perspective of social history political science gender studies and intersectionality approaches This analytical foil shall be used to examine the relationship between state or government action and civil society as well as the reproduction of social and political inequality despite increasing democratisation movements Canaanite in the Amarna
