Sa Military Forms For 2016:

Military Review ,2018 Contemporary Issues in South African Military Psychology Nicole Dodd,Petrus C.

Bester,Justin van der Merwe,2020-05-13 Contemporary Issues in South African Military Psychology is a well timed extremely thought provoking imperative particular to the African context and deals with a highly contemporary issue within the people management and the management studies fields specifically in the military field and context This is specifically of importance as military psychology is a behavioural science that combines theory and practical application Prof Karel Stanz University of Pretoria South Africa's Post-Apartheid Military Lindy Heinecken,2020-01-01 This timely book examines how the South African National Defence Force has adapted to the country s new security political and social environment since 1994 In South Africa s changed political state how has civilian control of the military been implemented and what does this mean for defence in a democracy This book presents an overview of the security environment how the mission focus of the military has changed and the implications for force procurement force preparation force employment and force sustainability The author addresses other issues such as the effect of integrating former revolutionary soldiers into a professional armed force the effect of affirmative action on meritocracy recruitment and retention military veterans looking at the difficulties they face in reintegrating back into society and finding gainful employment gender equality and mainstreaming the rise of military unions and why a confrontational instead of a more corporatist approach to labour relations has emerged HIV AIDS and the consequences this holds for the military in terms of its operational effectiveness In closing the author highlights key events that have caused the SANDF to become lost in transition and transformation spelling out some lessons learned The conclusions she draws are pertinent for the future of defence security and civil military relations of countries around the world South Africa and United Nations Peacekeeping Offensive Operations Antonio Garcia,2018-08-17 The creation of the Force Intervention Brigade FIB as the sharp tactical edge of the United Nations Stabilisation Mission in the Democratic Republic of the Congo MONUSCO tasked with the neutralising of armed groups was a watershed moment in the history of modern peace missions What was more significant was that sub Saharan national leaders were instrumental in the creation of the FIB South Africa Tanzania and Malawi but lacked the resources to deploy such a force and consequently the brigade was deployed under the banner of the UN With the legacy of an African Renaissance and its role in the conception of the FIB South Africa remains a critical player in international peace and security in sub Saharan Africa and therefore holds a key strategic role in achieving the FIBs objectives This comes at a critical time where blue helmets are increasingly exposed to complex and challenging security contexts The aim of this work is to provide a conceptual model for South African military future operations and UN offensive peacekeeping operations In this undertaking a layer of military and Clausewitzian theory is added to offensive peacekeeping operations Furthermore there are sections on operational constructs capstone and operating concepts doctrine and structural elements as well a section on mine action This book contributes towards an understanding of the nature of modern strategy through the lens of UN offensive peacekeeping operations and provides insights into operational challenges Police Integrity in South Africa Sanja Kutnjak Ivkovich, Adri Sauerman, 2020-04-29 Policing in South Africa has gained notoriety through its extensive history of oppressive law enforcement In 1994 as the country's apartheid system was replaced with a democratic order the new government faced the significant challenge of transforming the South African police force into a democratic police agency the South African Police Service SAPS that would provide unbiased policing to all the country's people More than two decades since the initiation of the reforms it appears that the SAPS has rapidly developed a reputation as a police agency beset by challenges to its integrity This book offers a unique perspective by providing in depth analyses of police integrity in South Africa It is a case study that systematically and empirically explores the contours of police integrity in a young democracy Using the organizational theory of police integrity the book analyzes the complex set of historical legal political social and economic circumstances shaping police integrity A discussion of the theoretical framework is accompanied by the results of a nationwide survey of nearly 900 SAPS officers probing their familiarity with official rules their expectations of discipline within the SAPS and their willingness to report misconduct The book also examines the influence of the respondents race gender and supervisory status on police integrity Written in a clear and direct style this book will appeal to students and scholars of criminology policing sociology political science as well as to police administrators interested in expanding their knowledge about police integrity and enhancing it in their organizations Hollywood and Africa Opio Dokotum, 2020-02-05 Hollywood and Africa recycling the Dark Continent myth from 1908 2020 is a study of over a century of stereotypical Hollywood film productions about Africa It argues that the myth of the Dark Continent continues to influence Western cultural productions about Africa as a cognitive based system of knowledge especially in history literature and film Hollywood and Africa identifies the colonial mastertext of the Dark Continent mythos by providing a historiographic genealogy and context for the terms development and consolidation An array of literary and paraliterary film adaptation theories are employed to analyse the deep genetic strands of Hollywood Africa film adaptations The mutations of the Dark Continent mythos across time and space are then tracked through the classical neoclassical and new wave Hollywood Africa phases in order to illustrate how Hollywood productions about Africa recycle revise reframe reinforce transpose interrogate and even critique these tropes of Darkest Africa while sustaining the colonial mastertext and rising cyberactivism against Hollywoods whitewashing of African history Foreign Policy in Post-Apartheid South Africa Adekeye Adebajo, Kudrat Virk, 2017-12-18 South Africa is the most industrialized power in Africa It was rated the continent's largest economy in 2016 and is the only African member of the G20 It is also the only strategic partner of the EU in Africa Yet despite being so strategically and economically significant there is little scholarship that focuses on South Africa as a regional hegemon This book provides the first comprehensive assessment of South Africa's post Apartheid foreign policy Over its 23 chapters and with contributions from established Africa Western Asian and American scholars as well as diplomats and analysts the book examines the current pattern of the country's foreign relations in impressive detail. The geographic and thematic coverage is extensive including chapters on the domestic imperatives of South Africa's foreign policy, peace making, defence and security, bilateral relations in Southern Central West Eastern and North Africa, bilateral relations with the US, China, Britain, France and Japan, the country's key external multilateral relations with the UN, the BRICS, economic grouping, the African Caribbean and Pacific Group, ACP as well as the EU and the World Trade Organization, WTO. An essential resource for researchers, the book will be relevant to the fields of area studies, foreign policy, history, international relations, international law, security studies, political economy and development studies.

Special Operations Success James D. Kiras, 2024-10-24. Special Operations Success establishes a new benchmark in military theory in this deeply analytic and innovative work. It answers several pressing questions: How successful have American special operations been over the past quarter century? Are special forces fated to cycles of expansion and misuse? Will special forces invariably exceed the authorities granted to them because of they are? Is a general theory of special operations feasible given the range of activities and conditions that fall under the category? Kiras' work is based on two decades of practical teaching and consulting experience within different special operations communities and its analysis and conclusions are designed to inform practitioners, policymakers, educators and the general public. The book develops a framework in the form of a theory comprising capabilities and control for the comprehensively evaluating special operations success and is divided into three parts. Part I lays the foundation for a general theory of special operations. Part II explores the two component parts of theory: capabilities and control. Part III uses various aspects of the theory depending on available information to assess the success of special operations over a twenty-year period in the United Kingdom, South Africa and the United States.

ICCWS 2016 11th International Conference on Cyber Warfare and Security Dr Tanya Zlateva and Professor Virginia Greiman, 2016. The 11th International Conference on Cyber Warfare and Security (ICCWS 2016) is being held at Boston University, Boston, USA on the 17-18th March 2016. The Conference Chair is Dr Tanya Zlateva and the Programme Chair is Professor Virginia Greiman, both from Boston University. ICCWS is a recognised Cyber Security event on the International research conferences calendar and provides a valuable platform for individuals to present their research findings, display their work in progress and discuss conceptual and empirical advances in the area of Cyber Warfare and Cyber Security. It provides an important opportunity for researchers and managers to come together with peers to share their experiences of using the varied and expanding range of Cyberwar and Cyber Security research available to them. The keynote speakers for the conference are Daryl Haegley from the Department of Defense (DoD) who will address the topic 'Control Systems Networks: What's in Your Building' and Neal Ziring from the National Security Agency who will be providing some insight to the issue of 'Is Security Achievable: A Practical Perspective'. ICCWS received 125 abstract submissions this year. After the double-blind peer review process, there are 43 Academic Research Papers, 8 PhD papers, Research papers, 7 Masters and 1

Human Rights in the Indian Armed Forces Dr. U C Jha, Dr Sanghamitra Choudhury, 2019-03-18 The military plays an important role in nation building and national security Notwithstanding special requirements of military life the members of the armed forces should enjoy the rights guaranteed in the Constitution and other relevant international human rights treaties which India has ratified to the extent that those rights are available to other citizens of the country The guarantee of a fair trial should apply to all proceedings under the military legal system including summary trial and summary systems of court martial The government must ensure the economic social and cultural rights of military personnel including housing medical care education free legal aid and social security Derogations of the Fundamental Rights under Article 33 should not be carried so far as to create a class of citizens who are not entitled to the benefits of the liberal interpretation of the Constitution This book is aimed at all those who are involved in promoting protecting and enforcing the rights of not only the members of the armed forces but also the other forces engaged in the security of the country It will of relevance to parliamentarians government officials military authorities and members of the civil society who have a stake in the armed forces

Local Officials and the Struggle to Transform Cities Claire Bénit-Gbaffou , 2024-02-27 Why are even progressive local authorities with the will to improve seldom able to change cities Why does it seem almost impossible to redress spatial inequalities deliver and maintain basic services elevate impoverished areas and protect the marginalised communities Why do municipalities in the Global South refuse to work with prevailing social informalities and resort instead to interventions that are known to displace and aggravate the very issues they aim to address Local Officials and the Struggle to Transform Cities analyses these challenges in South African cities where the brief post apartheid moment opened a window for progressive city government and made research into state practices both possible and necessary In debate with other progressive moments in large cities in Brazil the USA and India the book interrogates City officials practices It considers the instruments they invent and negotiate to implement urban policies the agency they develop and the constraints they navigate in governing unequal cities This focus on actual officials practices is captured through first hand experience state ethnographies and engaged research These reveal day to day practice that question generalised explanations of state failure in complex urban societies as essential malevolence contextual weakness corruption and inefficiency It is hoped that opening the black box of the workings of state opens paths for the construction of progressive policies in contemporary cities

The Dragons and the Snakes David Kilcullen, 2020 In The Dragons and the Snakes David Kilcullen asks what the opponents of the West have learned in the past quarter century and how they have evolved He shows how Russia China Iran and North Korea developed new tactics by copying terrorists and guerrillas and how guerrilla groups have been able to access new technologies that allowed them to take on the states that oppose them More broadly Kilcullen explains how evolution happens in combat how states and non state groups copy each other how our enemies have sought to exploit our tunnel vision on terrorism since 9 11 and how we can respond
